Police Seize Reds' Propaganda.

BULLETIN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PEKING, June 4.—Following the receipt of the allied reply to Peking's protest against the killing and arrest of Chinese students during the riots of May 31 another Chinese note was handed to the Italian minister tonight, which protests vigorously against the shootings in Shanghai on June 1. This note, like the first, also demands the immediate cessation of firing, with the liberation of all prisoners.

BULLETIN.

LONDON, June 5.—(AP)—The Daily Express says it understands Japan has sent an urgent note to Peking stating that if the Chinese authorities are unable to preserve order in Chinese cities Japan is prepared to send such naval and military forces as will reduce the insurgents to obedience.

BULLETIN.

CANTON, June 4.—(AP)—Rumors are current that owing to differences between the local government and the military, fighting here is imminent. The Central Bank of China has been temporarily closed by order of the Kuomintang party, owing to persistent demands of the military for loans and looting threats by disorderly elements.

SHANGHAI, June 4.—Police and volunteers today raided Shanghai university, a local bolshevik institution supported by funds from Moscow and the radical kuomintang party. A hundred student strike leaders were dislodged and quantities of bolshevik literature were seized. The building is now used as a headquarters for American marines and sailors.

Volunteers also raided all the Chinese hotels in the foreign settlement, finding considerable anti-foreign literature and arresting Gen. Alexander Gushen of the soviet army, who is alleged to have brought $2,000,000 here to spread Red propaganda.

Newspaper Staffs Out.

Students in local American mission universities joined the strike today and the administrations closed the schools for the season. St. John's university, founded in 1879 and headed by F. L. Hawkspott of Virginia, closed his school when students refused to cease political agitation on the campus. F. J. White of Kansas City, president of Shanghai college, also closed his school for a similar reason.

The staffs of the newspapers are out and the servants of all the hotels and the foreign clubs, except the American, are striking.

British Cruisers Arrive.

The foreign defense force has been augmented by two British cruisers, the Despatch and the Brisbane, making four in port. More British sailors have landed and there are now about 2,000 here. Five American destroyers are expected tomorrow and the Sacramento and the transport Jason are coming from Manila with marines.

City Fairly Calm.

SHANGHAI, June 5 (Friday).—(AP)—Shanghai was quiet this morning except for a few minor outbreaks. It was not the normal quiet, however.

The strikes in industrial plants throughout the city were reported slowly spreading. Best available estimates placed the number quitting work so far at 50,000.

Allies Refuse Blame.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PEKING, June 4.—The foreign legations, through the Italian minister, replying to China's protest against the Shanghai disorders, assert that the responsibility for the trouble rests upon the demonstrators, not the concession authorities.

Although the note concludes with a plea for a conciliatory spirit, the Chinese seemingly are dissatisfied with the legations' firm upholding of the police.

All allies are uneasy, fearing the Shanghai disorders may spread to other parts of the country.

Says Reds Must Aid China.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

RIGA, June 4.—The disorders in China are filling the front pages of the Moscow press. The Pravda, Isvestia, and others in editorial comment state that the Russian proletariat must prepare to assist their yellow brothers in China, who are preparing to expel the whites and form a soviet government.

I. C. TO CUT TIME BY ONE-FOURTH, TABLES SHOW

Electric Time Card Is Announced.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The result of the electrification of the Illinois Central railroad in time saving to its commuters—and that is one of the principal objects of the contemplated $75,000,000 expenditure in improvements—was made available exclusively to THE TRIBUNE yesterday.

The time saving to passengers on local trains will range from 15.4 per cent to 19.8 per cent. On express trains the saving will be from 17.1 to 22.2 per cent and on specials—which are extra fast express trains—the saving will range from 21.2 per cent to 29.6 per cent.

Putting it more strikingly in another way, passengers on an 83d street express train now spend 28.57 per cent more time on the steam train than they will when it is electrified. Residents of Blue Island now spend 42.03 per cent more time on a special steam train than they will on a special electrified train.

Speedier Trips to Links.

The golf players who take the I. C. to Homewood, Olympia Fields, Calumet, Flossmoor, Idlewild, Midlothian and Ravisloe country clubs will have their traveling time from downtown to Matteson cut from 59 to 46.5 minutes. They, too, must be cared for, but in percentage of time saved less consideration has been given the golf specials than to any other special trains.

A comparison of running time under steam and electric operation for selected stations and trains is shown in the following tabulation, together with the per cent of time saved:

Two More Stops.

These figures were prepared by the engineering department of the railroad. The time saving is made on express trains despite the fact that the schedules show two more stops under electric operation than at present, and the South Chicago specials will have one additional stop. It is planned to operate the trains at 67 miles an hour on tangent track.

Sundry other important information was made public by President Markham, Senior Vice President A. E. Clift, Vice President F. L. Thompson, in charge of terminals, and E. J. Brumley, terminal engineer. At the request of the city they conducted an inspection trip on a special train for the benefit of the council committee on terminals, headed by Ald. Kaindl, and other city officials headed by Commissioner of Public Works Sprague.

They saw 2,200 men working on the 28 miles of right of way to Matteson on which a trifle more than $25,000,000 has been spent to date. Approximately $12,000,000 more will be spent this year, exclusive of the purchase of 215 cars, of which 130 will be equipped with motors, costing about $8,000,000.

Poles Set for Five Miles.

The aldermen saw about five miles of trolley poles already set on concrete foundations, and the 640 acres on which are being built the enormous Markham yards, which stretch from Harvey to Homewood.

These yards now cover about 500 acres, with space for 11,000 cars, but will be increased to a capacity of 18,000 to 20,000 cars when completed. They saw the site for the machine shop covering an area of 100 by 400 feet, the foundations for the new roundhouse with 46 stalls, and the coal loading bins with a capacity of 1,200 tons.

The station proper, the monumental structure which will flank the Field museum and Grant Park stadium, is awaiting the settlement of the terminal question among the roads which now occupy the Grand Central, Dearborn, and La Salle stations.

MODEL ANSWERS STABBING CHARGE IN COURT TODAY

Miss Gertrude Williams, 18 years old, pretty professional model, will appear in the Chicago avenue court this morning to answer charges of stabbing Samuel Friedman, agent of the building at 846 Sheridan road where Miss Williams lives.

The girl declares that she stabbed Friedman twice in the arm early yesterday morning when he attempted to caress her. Her stepfather, S. A. Williams, a former lieutenant of the air service, joined in the struggle with Friedman when he was attracted by the cries of the girl.

The fight was interrupted by the arrival of police, who arrested the girl. She was later released after being booked on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Miss Williams said she returned home from a party about 7 o'clock in the morning. She told police that she left her coat in the hall while saying good-by to a companion and on returning could not find it.

She went to her apartment, she said, and some hours later went to Friedman's room in search of the garment. The girl says Friedman locked the door. It was then that Williams joined in the battle and neighbors called the police. A police search of both the Friedman and Williams flats failed to locate the coat.

Friedman was given first aid at the Alexian Brothers' hospital, where several stitches were taken in his arm.

Rescue Planes Off Tomorrow for Amundsen

OSLO, June 4.—(AP)—Two weeks have passed since Capt. Roald Amundsen with his five companions disappeared into the arctic wastes in their quest for the north pole and the mystery of their whereabouts is still unsolved.

Amundsen is understood to have left with Capt. Hagerup of the steamer Fram sealed instructions, to be opened a fortnight after his departure. What these contain has not been divulged.

Rescue Planes Go Saturday.

Meanwhile the Norwegian government, at the request of the aero club which promoted Amundsen's flight, is dispatching on Saturday two naval scout seaplanes by the 4,700 ton steamer Ingertre, placed at the government's disposal by the Great Norwegian Coal company of Spitzbergen.

The Ingertre, it is expected, will arrive about mid-June at King's bay, where the seaplanes will be unloaded and flown to Wellman bay, Dane island, to connect with the Fram and Hobby. A systematic search of the ice edge along about the 81st degree of latitude will then begin immediately.

PLANS AID BY DIRIGIBLE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.]—Chances that the government will send one of its giant airships to the rescue of the Amundsen expedition in the Arctic were increased today with the announcement that Capt. Lansdowne, commander of the dirigible Shenandoah, had reported to the navy department that such a trip would be entirely feasible.

Under the proposal the Patoka, equipped with mooring mast and supplies, would sail for Spitzbergen, while the Shenandoah would first cross the Atlantic to Pulham, England, and then in another flight join the Patoka. From Spitzbergen, 700 miles from the pole, the dirigible would sail out over the Arctic in a search for the explorers.

In the absence of Secretary Wilbur, Assistant Secretary Robinson said he was unable to state what action would be taken on the captain's plan, but hazarded the opinion that nothing would be done before the United States was asked for aid.

FEARS CAUSED DEATH?

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

FLORENCE, Italy, June 4.—A statement by Capt. Bartlett that a safe airplane landing at the north pole is practically impossible, coupled with the unfavorable replies from persons whom he sought to induce to lead a rescue expedition, hastened the death of James W. Ellsworth, whose son is in command of Roald Amundsen's second plane. Mr. Ellsworth, a former Chicagoan, is said to have made numerous cable negotiations for a rescue expedition, notably with Donald MacMillan and a Frenchman, M. Charcot.

PRESIDENT DECLINES DEGREE OFFERS FROM SCORE OF SCHOOLS

Washington, D. C., June 4.—(AP)—President Coolidge could have any number of honorary college degrees, but apparently he doesn't want them.

This was indicated today at the White House, where it was learned that more than a score of universities and colleges had formally invited the President to attend commencement exercises and that at least that many had offered to confer a degree, usually with the proviso that he must come to the campus to receive it. The names of the institutions were not made known.

Mr. Coolidge has decided to decline all invitations and offers. He had planned to attend the graduation exercises at the University of Michigan, but called off that trip after the death of its president, Dr. Marion Leroy Burton, who placed him in nomination at the Cleveland convention.

HAROLD TEEN TO RESCUE OF TEXTILE TRADE

[Copyright: 1925: By the New York Times.]

LONDON, June 4.—The very wide trousers, known as Oxford bags, which young Britons recently adopted, (depicted in the Harold Teen comics), may soon revive the textile industry, lately subject to serious depression because of the abbreviated dresses fashion has decreed for women. Sir William Sleigh, lord provost of Edinburgh, addressing the textile institute conference today, said the most hopeful sign was the Oxford bags and everything should be done to encourage their general wear. The new modes for women hit the textile trade a hard blow, since dresses now require but one and three-quarters yards of material instead of eight as formerly. The Oxford bags, so called because they originated with Oxford students, are wider than the New York version, extending nearly to the tip of the shoe.

Foghorn Will Moan On Unless Congress Stops It

The foghorn on the lighthouse at the mouth of the river is going to continue its moaning despite the complaints of hundreds of Chicagoans who say it spoils their sleep. That was announced definitely yesterday by Capt. John O. Anderson of the coast guard station, who, however, disclaimed all responsibility for the horn.

"It will take an act of congress to silence the foghorn," he said. "The men on the lighthouse have no discretion as to when it shall blow. Moreover, there are to be more horns installed. If the mariners are to be safe we must have them."

Speed Kills 90 Per Cent, Says Collins

As two more children died as victims of automobiles Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins yesterday issued a bulletin, in which he declared that more than 90 per cent of the 298 motor fatalities in Cook county so far this year were caused by a motorist mania for excessive speed.

MRS. CADOUN COHEN.
[Killed Wednesday.]

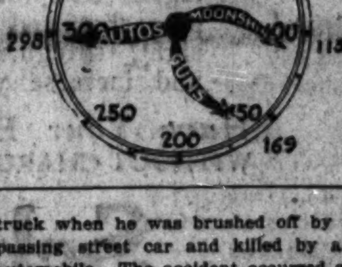
On a basis of Chief Collins' figures a total of 269 automobile killings in a little more than five months are chargeable to speeders including careless truck drivers. With strict observance of the speed laws, the chief reasoned, only 29 would have died.

Seven children have been killed by motor vehicles in the last four days, four of the child fatalities being caused by motor trucks.

Child Killed by Truck.

One of the victims of yesterday was Elaine Brown, 5 years old, 4418 North St. Louis avenue, who was running across a street at St. Louis and Montrose when she was struck by a motor truck driven by Chris Anderson, 4434 North Hamlin avenue. Before Elaine could be taken to a hospital she was dead. Anderson, an employé of Eiseman & Skon, electrical contractors at 4073 Elston avenue, was held.

Tuney Jacobson, 11 years old, 1412 West 13th street, was hitching on a truck when he was brushed off by a passing street car and killed by an automobile. The accident occurred at Roosevelt road and Wells street.



The boy was riding on the rear of a truck driven by Edward Hoff, 1518 West Superior street. When the street car brushed him off the truck he fell in the street directly in front of the automobile, which was driven by George Rutkowski, 4818 George street. A short time after the victim was taken to St. Luke's hospital he died. Both drivers and two of Tuney's companions were held pending an inquest.

Held to Grand Jury.

A coroner's jury yesterday held Alfred Raso, 1116 Polk street, to the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter growing out of the killing on April 4 of George W. Tipp, 316 South Ashland avenue, who was fatally injured by Raso's automobile. Witnesses declared Raso failed to stop and was apprehended after police traced his license number.

Chief of Police Collins' bulletin quoted the motor death figures and declared they showed a wanton carelessness for public safety.

Chief Assails Speed.

"Speed, that frantic rush and hurry of modern times, is the biggest contributing factor to this terrible toll of death," the bulletin continued.

"Never drive at more than 8 miles an hour in the vicinity of schools, churches and playgrounds when they are in session or being used.

"Never exceed the limit of speed the law allows—10 miles an hour in closely built up business sections, 15 miles an hour in residential sections."

CHICAGO DEATHS 9; 'WARM OCEAN' OVER COUNTRY

Mercury 95 Here but Hotter in East.

SLEEP IN PARKS

Lincoln park authorities last night temporarily suspended the rule closing at 11 o'clock. During the heat spell citizens are at liberty to sleep on the lawns. It is expected that the west and south parks may be thrown open tonight, although many slept last night in Grant park.

BULLETIN.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—(AP)—Having smashed records for intensity, the heat wave which has held the eastern half of the country in its grip for five days, appeared tonight to have settled down for a duration record as well. The weather bureau saw no prospect of relief for at least three or four days and probably longer.

In the middle of an ocean of superheated atmosphere reaching from Texas to the Atlantic coast, Chicago paid a toll of nine lives yesterday to the torrid waves which rolled over the city, while a total of 84 deaths has been checked in other parts of the country.

The thermometer climbed to 95 degrees in Chicago at 5 p. m., making a record for the year and only three-tenths of a degree under the record for all June 4ths on the official calendar. It may be slight consolation hereabouts to know that it was several degrees hotter in Philadelphia, Washington, and Cincinnati. New York's maximum was the same as Chicago's.

No Relief Until Sunday.

Charting the winds and currents over the country, and judging with the sixth sense of a trained observer, Weather Forecaster C. A. Donnel last night said that Sunday was the earliest that any relief in the way of rain might be really expected.

The chance of a refreshing thunderstorm until that time was remote, he said. He could see no relief today or tomorrow, but as to Sunday he was still uncertain. There might be a break then.

"A stagnant condition of the atmosphere is the cause of this heat," said Mr. Donnel. "There is an area of high barometer from the southwest to the Atlantic, according to the weather chart just completed.

Always Means Heat Wave.

"Often during the warm season this persists for several days. It always means a heat wave. It results in a lack of movement from the west and the warmth continues.

"The hot wave persists throughout the east and central portions of the country. North and in the St. Lawrence valley there is a little moderation. In the central plains area and in the lake region it is most intense. The 90 degrees area has considerably expanded over Wednesday. This extends from Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas eastward to the Atlantic. It is not so hot in the extreme southeast."

Nine Deaths in Chicago.

The following fatalities were listed in Chicago, more or less directly due to the heat:

In addition, three heat prostrations occurred in the city yesterday, as follows: Nick Minovich, 34 years old, 2424 Clybourn avenue; Steve Swaswka, 7616 West 62d street, and John McCoy, 30 years old, colored, 3910 Federal street. Fifteen persons in Chicago were bitten by dogs during the day.

Included in the country's mortality roll of 84 outside of Chicago, there were thirty deaths caused by drowning and storms in the west. There were hot windstorms in Kansas. No tornadoes were in sight for this section, the forecaster said.

While the east and middle west were sweltering, winter came to the high plateaus of Montana. Great Falls, in the northwestern part of that state, had four inches of snow, the first to fall there in June since 1903. Valparaiso, Ind., furnished a unique contrast to this with the story that the terrific heat was affecting the concrete on the Dunes highway.

One section of pavement exploded as if a stick of dynamite had been placed under it, the report said.

Country's Deaths Listed.

A compilation of heat fatalities throughout the country follows:

New York, 12; New Jersey, 7; New England, 6; Ohio, 12; Michigan, 6; Indiana, 1; Pennsylvania, 3; Baltimore, 3; Minneapolis, 1; Iowa, 1; Kentucky, 2.

Floods Damage Railroads.

Flood damage yesterday was added to that caused by windstorms in western Iowa Wednesday night. A dozen or more homes were toppled over by the wind. High water damaged crops and, by washouts and blocking tracks, disrupted schedules of the Chicago and Northwestern, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and Illinois Central railways in that section.

With reëstablished communications yesterday, it was learned that thirty-four persons had been injured in the wind and violent wind storm which swept the vicinity of Minneapolis Tuesday night. The list of dead remained at five.

NEW YORK SWELTERS

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—While New York sweltered under a temperature of 95 degrees in midafternoon, east side children, and some of the grownups, too, shucked most of their clothes in vain attempts to keep cool. Out at Coney Island thousands thronged the beaches, and at Luna park sale of tickets for the swimming pool had to be stopped, the jam was so great. Mayor Hylan threw open all the public parks and permitted sleepers to rest tonight with only the sky above them.

Reaches 99 in Capital.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—(AP)—Again registering the highest official temperature in the country today, 99 degrees, Washington had two more deaths and several prostrations, bringing the total of fatalities from the heat wave here to three and the prostrations to nearly a score.

The drain on the capital's water supply incidental to the heat brought a warning from city officials today for residents to practice the strictest economy in household and other use of water.

Record Heat in Boston.

Boston, Mass., June 4.—(AP)—Two deaths and seven prostrations resulted from greater Boston's hottest day of the year. The mercury reached its maximum at 96 this afternoon and it was the warmest June 4 in the weather bureau's records here.

At York, Me., 14 year old Marguerite Johnson was drowned in the York river while seeking relief from the sun.

Schools and mills were closed in various cities in New England.

Graft Evidence May Hit High Officials.

Patrick T. Roche, star investigator for the special intelligence unit, department of internal revenue, last night stated that the government's effort to expose a $1,000,000 prohibition graft plot would go before the grand jury next week with astounding bribery evidence.

Since it became known that Harry Ex, Morris Zevin and Irving Friedman, wealthy former rulers of the sacramental wine business in Chicago, went to the federal building May 22 and voluntarily pleaded guilty to indictments pending against them, speculation has been rife as to what extent the higher-ups in the payoff end of the wine scandal had been involved through statements made by Ex, Zevin and Friedman.

Rumors Hit High Officials.

Names of several former and present officials were bandied about the corridors of the federal building yesterday, but rumors met with no confirmation from either Roche or Assistant District Attorney Leo Klein, who is coöperating with the intelligence unit in preparing the impending exposé.

"Our investigation has developed the most amazing tangle of intrigue I have encountered in my federal experience as an investigator," Mr. Roche said. "But we have guarded developments carefully and rumors being circulated are far from the detailed truth and based upon speculation of meager foundation."

It is known, however, that the dealings of the ring were at no time of the piker variety and payments of as high as $200,000 have been traced through various hands to their final resting place.

Report Confession Made.

One of the three former wine wholesalers, who also acted as a fixer and a salesman of fake congregations, is said to have turned over his records of the manner in which more than $100,000 was handled after he had collected it. He told how he got it and what he did with it. Operatives have checked his confession and have found it accurate in every detail, it is said.

The system was well standardized. Three hundred dollars was the charge for a permit for a new Jewish congregation—bona fide or fraudulent—to distribute wine. Subsequent inspections by the prohibition office came to $400 for each 2,000 gallons of wine released. There was no alternative. The distributor—and there were scores of them—either had to pay up or try to get wine from a dry spigot.

Latest of the alleged principals of the ring to join the official talkfest was Louis Abelson, arrested yesterday and released after his bonds had been reduced from $50,000 to $5,000. Louis is alleged to be a collector who has a good recollection as to where he took it.

Wife, 22, Says She and Husband Stole 15 Autos

PLANS SUIT TO HALT PAYMENT OF STATE TAXES

Plans to sustain the county board's demand that the state treasury receive no county taxes from Cook county until the legislature gives the county constitutional representation were laid yesterday when the Chicago Home Rule league, through its counsel, Elmer E. Beach, announced its intention of filing suit to restrain the payment.

The decision was made after Mr. Beach conferred with County Treasurer Patrick J. Carr and Mrs. E. W. Bemis, who introduced the revolt resolution before the county board. The suit, it was said, would be based on the theory that the legislature is illegally formed and has no right to receive tax moneys. Unless he is enjoined by court order, Mr. Carr said, he will be forced to turn over the $4,610,000 in taxes to the state treasurer on July 1.

Similar action in the federal court is contemplated by John B. Fergus, veteran crusader in the reapportionment fight, it was rumored.

BUFFALO STEAKS OFFERED ALL AT PUBLIC BARBECUE

Buffalo steaks will be served to all comers tomorrow at a public barbecue to be held near Palos Park, it was announced yesterday by C. A. Coey and Anton J. Cermak, president of the county board.

The buffalo to be devoured is Wild Bill, shot by Mr. Coey after it escaped from the herd of buffalo in the forest preserve. Those entering the grounds tomorrow will be given numbered tickets and the dinners will be served in rotation.

Only half of the bison is to be served at Palos. The other half is to be divided equally between the county hospital and the Oak Forest infirmary, where the inmates will be given a real treat.

WINS DIVORCE AND $1,074,400 FROM C. H. LOTT

Charles Henry Lott, who rose from ownership of a humble boarding house to become president and treasurer of the Lott Hotels, Inc., owners of the Belden, Parkway, and Webster hotels, was divorced yesterday by his wife of sixteen years, Mrs. Cora Adele Lott.

Stock in the hotel company of a total par value of $1,074,000 was settled upon Mrs. Lott in lieu of alimony, it was revealed when Lott's attorney, Charles E. Erbstein, presented an agreement before Judge Harry A. Lewis, who granted Mrs. Lott a decree.

Slapped Three Times.

Mrs. Lott, a remarkably young looking woman, testified that she had been the recipient of three slaps administered by her husband. Responding to the questions of her counsel, Henry W. Drucker, she declared nothing in her conduct toward her husband had merited his treatment of her—that she always had been a loving wife.

The divorce hearing recalled the romance of Mrs. Lott's daughter by a first marriage. The young girl, one of twins, fell in love with E. L. Lott, her stepfather's brother and partner in his rise in business. They were married and recently the elder Mrs. Lott welcomed into the world a niece and a grandchild in one.

Until their separation last April, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lott lived together at the Parkway hotel. When the domestic discord resolved into a rift Mrs. Lott took up her separate residence at the Belden, where she now resides.

Receives Much Stock.

Under the alimony settlement Mrs. Lott received 1,329 shares of preferred stock in the Lott Hotels, Inc., to be hers forever. She also is given 9,415 shares of common stock under an escrow agreement. All the shares, according to Attorney Erbstein, have a $100 par value.

During the next five years Mr. Lott will pay his wife $1,000 monthly, the payments to apply toward repurchase of the common stock. At the end of that period he agrees to purchase them from his wife at their then book value.

Passengers Shaken Up as Fast Train Strikes Truck

Hundreds of passengers on a fast train of the Northwestern railroad last night were severely shaken up when the train struck a truck which had stalled on the track at South avenue, Glencoe. The truck was demolished and the locomotive almost derailed. H. Deriuta, driver of the truck, leaped aside and was uninjured, as were W. B. Ellis, 4108 North Robey street, engineer, and A. Weltman, 315 North Central Park avenue, fireman of the locomotive.

SEEK CLEW TO STABBING OF OIL OFFICIAL

Charles Hale, 37 years old, 4339 Michigan avenue, a credit manager for the Standard Oil company, was at the county hospital suffering from knife wounds that may prove fatal yesterday while Wabash avenue police sought an unidentified colored man for questioning.

According to William Pollard, 40 years old, a colored janitor living at 4240 Michigan avenue, Hale on Wednesday night received the wounds in a hand to hand encounter with the Negro fought in an alley near Pollard's home.

Held also for questioning is Mrs. Gertrude Adelemen, 33 years old, 4222 Michigan avenue, in whose apartment Hale is said to have sought aid following the fight.

Wife Asks Conservator for Frederick B. Pearson

Declaring that her husband, Frederick Beverly Pearson, is a drunkard and a spendthrift and unable to conserve his estate, Mrs. Gladys Pearson, 3730 Sheridan road, yesterday filed a petition in the Probate court asking the appointment of a conservator for his estate. Recently Mrs. Pearson filed suit for separate maintenance. She then sued her mother-in-law, Mrs. Walter Beverly Pearson, for $500,000 on a charge of alienation of affections.

Set $1,249,825 Value on Senator Lodge's Estate

Salem, Mass., June 4.—(AP)—The inventory of the estate of the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, filed today, showed a total of $1,249,825. The personal estate was given as $1,096,370, principally in stocks, bonds, contracts with publishers for his books, and some personal effects. The real estate is $153,455, including his house in Washington valued at $80,000.

Heat Bends Candles at Bier; Coffin Destroyed by Fire

Tiffin, O., June 4.—Extreme heat, which was 98 degrees here late today, caused candles to bend at the foot of the bier of Peter M. Harnish and the candles set fire to the coffin, which was completely destroyed. Members of the family rescued the body after it was partially burned.

CARLOAD OF ICED BEER SEIZED, AND IT WAS ALL READY TO SERVE

A whole carload of fine beer from Philadelphia, all iced and everything so it would be ready to be placed on tap with desirable expedition, was seized last night at the 16th street team track in Cicero by Prohibition Agent Al Johnson, who pounced on the treasure single handed. There were 100 barrels in the load and the seizure was reported to have caused widespread suffering in sweltering Cicero, where hundreds had been led to believe the stuff could be drawn well before midnight.

POISON MOTHER INDICTED; DENIES HER CONFESSION

Denial of the confession that she poisoned her children was made by Mrs. Anna Cunningham, 49 year old, of Gary, Ind., following her indictment yesterday at Crown Point, Ind., on three first degree murder charges.

The indictments, returned by the Lake county grand jury, charge that the mother killed Isabelle, 18 years old; Charels, 19 years old, and Walter, 13 years old, upon whose deaths life insurance policies totaling $1,650 were collected. Mrs. Cunningham said she poisoned the children because "she loved them so well." But yesterday in her cell she insisted that she had never made a confession.

David Cunningham, another son, is slowly recovering in a Chicago hospital from the effects of poison. It was his illness that led to the disclosure of the long list of mysterious deaths in the family.

FIRE DESTROYS FOUR BUILDINGS OF BRICK PLANT

Fire destroyed three brick buildings and a huge shed of the Bohnsack Brick company plant, West Grand and North Narragansett avenue, last night. By steadily playing streams of water upon them firemen saved five carloads of oil stored in one of the buildings.

When firemen arrived they found three of the buildings burning rapidly. They sounded 2-11 and 4-11 alarms. The plant is in an isolated section, and lines of hose were stretched half a mile along Grand avenue to get sufficient water to fight the flames.

ASKS RETURN OF MONEY SHE USED TO SUPPORT MATE

Spent $25,000 in 12 Years, Suit Says.

WILLIAM H. MULLALEY.

For nearly twelve years Mrs. Josephine Madsen Dreher, fashionable Michigan avenue modiste, fed and housed her husband, William J. Mullaley Sr., and clothed his two children, she declared yesterday as she filed suit for $25,000 from the three, seeking a return of her expenditures.

A month ago Judge Joseph Sabath granted Mrs. Dreher a divorce from Mullaley, who lives with his son at the Belden hotel. The judge found Mullaley guilty of cruelty despite the wife's reputed kindness to him.

Wants Money Back.

Now, through her attorneys, Phillips, Mack & O'Bryan, Mrs. Dreher, who has resumed her former name, wants to win back what she paid for the children's clothing, for their upkeep, and for whatever else she spent.

Mullaley, who is employed in the sales department of the American Can company, paid only $150 monthly, and this sum, Mrs. Dreher said, she gave to the daughter, Helen, for her allowance.

Daughter Mallers Heir.

Now Helen is the wife of E. B. Mallers, son and heir of the late E. B. Mallers Sr., brother of John B. Mallers.

"When I married Mr. Mullaley," Mrs. Dreher declared, "he and his children came to my home at 710 Junior terrace. From then on he never paid anything for the children's upkeep, paid hardly anything for himself, and nothing for me."

MARYLAND NOT TO JOIN DEFENSE TEST BY NATION JULY 4

Baltimore, Md., June 4.—(AP)—Gov. Albert C. Ritchie today notified Acting Secretary of War Davis that Maryland will take no official part in the Defense day test July 4. The occasion, he said, will be left for observance by the various communities of the state as each deems appropriate.

His decision, the governor said, was not made because of disbelief in preparedness. Mobilization of the National Guard, he contended, could accomplish no practical good, as that body would receive no training which it has not already had. Experience last fall, he continued, showed that the time is too short to obtain effective civilian participation.

REFORM BODY'S AID INDICTED FOR SHAKEDOWN

Roy W. Carpenter, employed from time to time to ferret out violators of the booze law in connection with the enforcement program of the Better Government association, was indicted yesterday by the federal grand jury on two counts charging shakedown.

According to evidence presented by Assistant United States District Attorney Jacob I. Grossman, Carpenter, while posing as a prohibition agent, shook down a north side saloonkeeper for $25 upon one occasion and $30 upon another. It is charged that when he took the thirty he failed to observe it was marked money, a circumstance which caused, it is said, no end of embarrassment to Carpenter and his friends when officials extracted the roll from his pockets.

PASSAGE OF TWO BILLS AS CRIME CURB IS URGED

Passage of two bills pending in the legislature and sponsored as crime curbing measures was urged by the Chicago crime commission executive committee yesterday.

One of the bills, known as the Dailey bill, provides for the creation of a statutory revision commission, to be named by the justices of the state Supreme court, charged with the preparation of suggestions for simplifying the criminal code. The commission's report should be forthcoming before the next assembly convenes.

The bill fixes a salary of $6,000 a year for the chairman of the commission and salaries of $3,000 a year for the two associate members. In addition, $50,000 is set apart for the retention of the necessary experts and clerical assistants during the commission's study.

The so-called Mariner bill would legalize the sale of real estate scheduled for bail and later forfeited, and provides for the execution of valid deeds by the sheriff.

GERMAN BLOWS OF 1917-'18 SAP FRENCH MORALE

Gen. Bullard Analyzes Allies' Gloom.

BY GEN. ROBERT LEE BULLARD,
[Who commanded the First division, then the Third corps, and finally led the Second army of the United States.]

[As these are personal memories or experiences, the pronoun "I" can never be out of sight. I am not offering these memories as absolute fact, but as my impression and belief at the time.—R. L. Bullard.]

SECTION XX.

For a year after reaching France I was with the French. For some three weeks now, while tussling with the enemy along the Vesle, I had not only been fighting beside but also commanding the French. This greater responsibility naturally more turned my thought and attention upon them.

The Italian defeat at the end of Octover, 1917, coming concurrently with the Russian defection and American slowness of entry into the war, greatly depressed them.

It did not show suddenly but seemed to come upon them in a sort of slow, dogged resignation which became more and more fixed as in the succeeding weeks and months Italy not only showed little or no comeback but was crying out to the allies to save her, as the United States forces in Europe in the same months showed little war effective increase and as the Germans more and more threatened their great spring offensive.

French Gloom and Sorrow.

The French had in those days been expecting too much of our national effort, as the Germans later expected too little.

Yet there was no sharp, manifest, open gloom in the French. It was a state of sorrow, of darkened hope, which I at the time feared would prove fatal to French aggressiveness for the rest of the war.

French civil and military authorities were putting forth their best efforts to help improve the morale in themselves and others. "Today (Nov. 25, 1917, diary), I heard a vigorous, cheerful, fighting French general (Hirschauer) speak. His spirit was contagious. It did me good to hear him. I shall try to imitate his spirit and determination." In those dark days I was thrown much among French troops and saw their officers and men.

During the last half of 1917 the French had fought little, the British much and hard. The enemy was not forcing the fighting upon either and there was plainly for the British no hope of any real success. They said they were "wearing the enemy down."

Wearing the enemy down, indeed! Any fool could see that they were wearing themselves down.

British Fight to Save French.

I could not understand why they persisted in fighting. Now we know. Marshal Haig, says the press, has told us. The French commander had asked it in order to attract the enemy's attention away from the French, who, in their reduced morale, could not now fight.

It sounds true; it fits the conditions of the French at that time; it explains the apparent senselessness of the British in such persistent, hard, unprofitable fighting at the time. And that fighting did draw the Germans to the British front. Any enemy's order of battle map of the time will show the enemy about twice as strong on the British as on the French front.

And, en passant, why could the British continue the fight and the French not? The state of exhaustion seemed about the same for both. I believe the answer lies in the one word—discipline.

French Discipline Lax.

French officers, our officers, and others have seemed to think that French soldiers were exceptions to the generality of soldiers: that they did not need, that they would fight without the hard bands of discipline found necessary in other peoples. Those bands of discipline, as is well known, had consequently never been and were not in 1917 put upon French soldiers as upon British.

No severer—it seemed from all reports and indications—no more exacting discipline was ever placed upon men than was placed upon the British in the last half of 1917. They could fight on. The French were never placed under such discipline; they could not fight on and they did not. I do not believe that the French were or are exceptions to the rule of discipline.

Certainly without a discipline which the British had they did not in the last half of 1917 fight aggressively, as the British fought.

French Resigned to Struggle On.

The winter passed with ever growing rumors of the great German offensive in the spring. I could see little change in the French manner. It was waiting, resigned.

I can never forget how calm and self-contained, how unflurried yet how unenthusiastic, how noiseless officers and men alike seemed in the great movement made by the French to meet the fearful drive of the enemy against the English front at the end of March, 1918.

Miles and miles of them passed in column, steadily marching toward battle, deliberate, self-possessed, quietly smoking, silently gazing at me and other passers. No excitement, no worry or despair on those faces, only calm, a look not of determination but of resignation to go on and face whatever lay before them. I cannot think they believed they could stem the awful tide of Greman victory; they seemed only to feel that they could face it.

In those days the "Tiger" was vehemently declaring to the French people that the poilu was saying, with determination, "They shall not pass!" I think the poilu never said it; I think he never believed it; I think he only felt and acted: 'I will go on and face; I cannot stop it.'

Calm Despair in France.

Yet, I say, there was not gloom, but a calm feeling of what lay before. Death, annihilation, to fall and pass as they had seen many fall and pass forever from their world!

I wondered if these men were thinking of these things. Doubtless; but they moved on, looking calmly at you as they passed.

Surely where the war takes a good man it makes and puts two in his place. Men may be, but manhood is never diminished by war.

The impulse of the German drive of March, 1918, against the British front spent itself and came to a halt, as it were, in breathlessness rather than from resistance encountered. Before they could gather themselves for another start the allies had faced and stabilized them. America now was fully aroused and began to pour her thousands daily into Europe. The spirit, the morale of all the allies began to rise, but before it could go far upward came the second great German drive that punched the Chateau Thierry salient, threatening the fall of France.

French Morale at Low Ebb.

Say what they now may to the contrary, the bottom again went out of the morale of the French as of all the allies.

It was then that, on a visit to it, I was so frightened at the position and condition of the 6th French army between the Germans and Paris. That army could not and was not standing up before the Germans. In one of the most desperate situations of the war, with its back almost against Paris, it was still giving way before the enemy.

Before, at and after Soissons, American troops fighting beside them had quite regularly declared that the French lagged, failed to keep abreast in attack. That, it is true, is the sure cry of the inexperienced, the excuse of those who have themselves not gone forward—"our flanks were exposed because our neighbors would not advance with us; we couldn't advance"—but the uniformity and number of these claims carried some conviction of their truth.

The ill feeling (it amounted almost to that) which I found existing between French and Americans in the 6th French army when I entered it was due very largely to the Americans' belief that the French would not stand beside them in front of the enemy.

At the end of the summer of 1918, almost at the end of the war, the French, though rising in morale, were fighting warily, with little offense, by no means with the elan for which they have always been famed.

They were weary now. They faced the enemy, but they faced him without heart. They were the most war worn, war exhausted poor fellows that the world has ever held, I am sure. They had seen war in all of its deadly phases, they had seen so many comrades fall at their side and disappear forever, so many irresistible drives of the enemy, that stolidity was upon them and offense was dead within them. When required they went through the form of executing an attack, but they put no great push in it.

I could not blame them. At this stage of the war it looked as though the enemy's lines were composed of only machine guns, the most deadly arm that this war developed. To attempt to drive against these enemy machine guns, except after a complete wreck of his line in an overwhelming attack by fire, meant only sorrow. The anxiety of the commander of the 6th French army to acquire little bridgeheads over the Vesle resulted in repeated unsuccessful efforts to push these troops against such machine gun fire. They would start in due form, but they had the wisdom always to stop before annihilation. In this they were most skillful. Long experience had taught them how to save themselves. American troops, doing the same thing beside them, lost twice as many men. The front of the 6th French army was not advancing.

MASSACRES 8 IN FEAR FRENZY OVER MORTGAGE

Hamilton, O., June 4.—(AP)—Fear that nine relatives, including six little nieces and nephews, with whom he lived, would be made homeless by eviction from a modest home they were buying, because he was unable to meet a $1,600 mortgage, is believed to have caused Floyd Russell, 43, to shoot and kill eight of them early today.

He likewise sought to end his own life as well as that of his 10 year old niece, Dorothy Russell, who succeeded in escaping his demented fury.

His victims were his mother, Rose Russell, 60; brother, John L. Russell, 35; sister-in-law, Emma Russell, 35, and five nieces and nephews, Julia, 12; Robert, 8; George, 6; Paul, 3, and Richard, 4 months.

With two pistols, Russell fired more than forty shots into the bodies of his victims, some of them as they slept.

Russell made no effort to resist officers who broke down a door. Just as the door crashed in he fired a shot into his left lung. His condition is not critical.

SENATE TO FIGHT SMALL ON THREE APPOINTMENTS

Malone May Not Get Tax Commission Post.

BY PARKE BROWN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—[Special.]—Two and possibly three of the seventy-eight appointments that Gov. Len Small sent to the senate today for confirmation are to be fought.

The chief battle and one that apparently promises to be successful will be against the reappointment of William H. Malone of Park Ridge, Cook county, as a member of the tax commission, of which he is now chairman—at least by title. Malone's record and the source of his appointment are considered vulnerable, and Attorney General Carlstrom, formerly one of the controlling forces of the commission, has been opposed to Malone for months.

Cleaning Off the Slate.

There is no secret about the fact that Malone's appointment as chairman was the price demanded by a Chicago representative of William Randolph Hearst for continued support of Gov. Small during the last primary. In response to that demand Malone was made chairman, but the majority of the commission, which included Attorney General Carlstrom, his close friend, Fred E. Erickson of Chicago, and J. D. Telford, aged father of Senator Erastus D. Telford of Salem, a constant Small henchman, simply ignored Malone and conducted the commission's affairs without him.

Since Carlstrom's election as attorney general the tax commission has been the center of a tug of war. The Hearst influence with Lundin support in some phases, sought to gain for Malone all the power and authority of the chairmanship. One angle of this effort was a demand that Erickson be removed, a request due partly also to the Lundin desire that Charles R. Francis, the fifth member of the commission, be let in to the controlling combination.

Carlstrom Won Fight.

But the control depended on the appointment of Carlstrom's successor, provided Erickson was retained, as he was today. And the attorney general won this fight. As his successor Gov. Small named Attorney William P. Seeber of Benton, Franklin county. This apparently guarantees that Erickson, Seeber and Telford will run the commission.

But following a visit this week from the Hearst man, the governor also reappointed Malone. That was the signal for a determined effort to prevent senate confirmation which is now under way.

The second attempt to upset one of the governor's selections will be aimed at Clifford Ireland, director of trade and commerce. Ireland has the reputation of being an able, conscientious official, and the attack upon him is the result of a long standing political feud in Peoria with Senator John Dailey on the other side. A number of senators today indicated they would stand by Ireland.

Has Been Criticised.

The other possible fight concerns the reappointment of A. M. Shelton of Crystal Lake, a small town not far from Waukegan, as director of registration and education. His official conduct has been criticized frequently by legislators.

The only department head dropped was B. M. Davidson, for more than four years director of agriculture. As his successor the governor named S. J. Stanard of Springfield, now head of the division of dairy husbandry. The only other new appointment of any importance was the naming of Don Robinson of Pekin as superintendent of animal industry.

EXPERT TO BE HIRED TO FIGHT MOSQUITO; MONEY IS IN SIGHT

Methods of ridding the Chicago district of mosquitoes were given to a group of interested citizens from many nearby towns meeting yesterday in the county board rooms.

Anton J. Cermak, president of the county board, volunteered on behalf of the county to pay half of the $5,000 salary needed to bring an expert to Chicago if the sanitary district would pay the other half. When officials of the sanitary district expressed doubt about the matter, it was decided to raise the $2,500 by popular subscription.

Joseph Le Prince, mosquito foe, told those gathered at the meeting what his observation of the county in the last two days has shown and what treatment to swamps and other breeding places is required. A permanent committee then was formed to carry on the work.

HOUSE APPROVES PURE WHITE LAW FOR ROADHOUSES

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—[Special.]—Women's influence on legislation intended to tighten up the moral code was demonstrated today when the house advanced Senator Florence Fifer Bohrer's bill for strict regulation of roadhouses, country dance halls, and similar resorts.

If the bill becomes a law and is enforced, sheiks and their Shebas may as well stay in town and patronize the cabarets if they intend to cheat a little on the prohibition laws or otherwise indulge in naughtiness.

Must Obtain Licenses.

The bill requires keepers of country resorts to obtain licenses from the county board after establishing their own moral character and the fact that they have never been in jail.

The bill was amended by Lee O'Neill Browne [Dem., La Salle] to permit girls of 16 or younger to go to a respectable country dance hall, "accompanied by a proper escort."

Other clauses read:

"The county board may revoke the license of any licensee who has been convicted of a felony:

"When the dance hall, as operated and maintained, disturbs the peace of the neighborhood and when disorderly or immoral practices are permitted or intoxicating liquor is sold on the premises,

"It shall be unlawful for any known prostitute, male or female, procurer, or vagrant, or intoxicated person to be present at any dance hall licensed under this act."

Passed by Senate.

The bill, it is understood, is aimed principally at a certain roadhouse near Bloomington, Mrs. Rohrer's home city. It has passed the senate and is being handled in the house by Mrs. Katherine Hancock Goode [Rep., Chicago], who expects to call it up for passage next week.

Organized labor's efforts to rush its anti-injunction bill to the order of passage were blocked by Representative Castle [Rep., Barrington] at today's late session. Mr. Castle had some amendments to offer, but the labor lobby, headed by John H. Walker, refused to accept any sort of amendment and Mr. Castle objected to advancement of the bill with many members absent.

BENNETT LIKES COMFORTABLE SENATE WAYS

But Finds Illinois House Rather Indecorous.

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—[Special.]—Let us, I was saying in my previous articles, survey them in action, these 204 legislators of ours who, with a liberality not always unmixed with guile, vote away three hundred millions of dollars for the current administering and the permanent improving of the colossal concern known as the state of Illinois. By their fruits ye shall know them, but by their conduct, their manners, if any, and their ways of speech you also can estimate them, and perhaps not unfairly.

The senate of the Illinois legislature is a comfortable, spacious, fairly sedate and not unproductive club, whose 51 members thoroughly understand one another.

House Unwieldy, Clamorous.

The house is an unwieldy, clamorous town meeting, whose lack of manners often lapses into flagrant indecorum and some of whose 153 members understand nothing at all save, to them, the satisfying facts that they are there and can stay two years. Hearing from his desk on the floor yesterday the cry of a colleague, "Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question," a member who has been for months on the scene turned to his neighbor and asked, "Say, what the hell is that when they holler previous question?"

The senate is exactly one-third the size of the house, but was described to me by a seasoned observer as containing "Proportionately one-fifth as many fools." This, if my ciphering is correct, would mean the presence of ten and three-fifths fools. The United States senate would run to about the same proportion.

"Brains" in Senate.

"The brains" of the legislature, meaning the dominant, guiding minds that are equipped with the mechanism of long experience, are declared to be in the senate, though not confined to it solely.

Debate in the senate usually takes on the tone and manner of animated and informal discussion or rather of "argufying," as old-fashioned people say. Four or five or six senators stand in a cozy group in the center of the ornate chamber, talking vehemently to and at one another, seldom bothering even to pretend to address the chair. The chair seems not to mind, the chair's thoughts often being deeply intent upon the question whether he can get back to Rockford early Thursday evening.

When only a vive voce vote is demanded on a question before the senate, the chair leaps to it as a time saver, saying rapidly "all those in favor of adoption say aye." But curses—a pertinacious senator shouts "wait a minute—wait a minute——" and demands a roll call.

"What do you want a roll call for?" asks a querulous senator who shares the chair's yearning for home cooking.

No Limit on Debate.

There is no limit on debate unless the speaker makes a nuisance of himself. The outstanding qualities of the senate's debating are, on the whole, readiness in illustration and homeliness in argument. An aged man, quoting from a public document to emphasize a point he is making, will peer benevolently over his spectacles and say, "Now listen to this, will you?" Then he readjusts his spectacles and reads happily along.

After a year's looking on at the pomp and circumstance of the United States senate, I find the comfortable, confiding ways of the Illinois senate irresistible. It is like good neighbors coming together to talk it out.

This interested me. The best diction I have heard in the course of two days of senate debating was that of the colored senator, Adelbert H. Roberts of 3405 Calumet avenue, Chicago, chairman of the committee on criminal procedure and member of a dozen other important committees.

Quotes Sumner Tellingly.

He is one of the few senators who ever quotes from anything but a public document. He has frequent recourse to "the words of Charles Sumner," as he puts it, and he quotes them tellingly. That great spirit, who suffered much for the race from which Senator Roberts sprang, would be proud if he could hear this able and dignified legislator citing him.

And this amazed me: There is no printed senate journal of the debates. Nor in the house either. They are not even taken down in stenography and filed for reference. A member of our legislature is recorded only when voting.

Accustomed to the sacredness with which the printed journals of congress' debates are regarded by congress, I thought our legislature's lack of such a record left a scandalous loophole for the alibi artist, and I said so to one of the veteran correspondents.

Keep It from Folks.

"In a way you are perfectly right," he said. "A lot of the lads under this dome don't want the folks back home to know how they occasionally talk on the floor when they are supposed to be consistently dry. There are other questions in which the leeway given a wobbly senator by the lack of a printed record of debates often is valuable to him."

It seems that both senate and house kept journals of debates for the first time ten years ago, but the house abolished the salutary practice two years ago and the senate followed suit this year. The plea of both chambers was that it cost too much and made the members, as a result of vainglory, talk too much, but a veteran legislator's comment on the latter plea was, "O, that isn't true; fellows either talk or they don't talk."

As a matter of fact, the estimate is that $20,000 a year would cover the cost of a journal of debates, and such a sum as that never deters an Illinois legislator—not if it's your $20,000.

It is all another instance of slavery to the alibi, and that slavery is what reduces many a man who comes here to impotence and shiftiness.

OWEN RE-ENACTS MURDER OF WIFE BY 2 BURGLARS

George Owen, whose wife was shot and killed by one of the two unidentified men who entered their home early Wednesday morning when they were discovered in the act of robbing the house, reënacted his part in the tragedy in the living room of the Owen home, at 1123 Ontario street, Oak Park, where the killing took place. His story yesterday was the same in every detail as that told by him at the coroner's inquest.

Meanwhile the police of Oak Park are searching for the intruders, and Chief of Police Magrath intimated that he has several clews that may lead to the murderers. The police took fingerprints from a desk in the Owen home. They will be transmitted to the Chicago police department.

"We will get the man who shot Mrs. Owen," Levi Fuller, village attorney, said, "and we won't have to go outside Oak Park." However, he declined to amplify the statement.

THIS IS A NATION OF SPENDERS.

Since President Coolidge started on his own time it has been apparent that his chief message to the people was of thrift. He has used precept and example. A leader may talk economy, be applauded, and not followed. Mr. Coolidge believes what he says. That's Vermont.

With Mrs. Coolidge he came to Chicago in the drawing room of a Pullman. A private car cost too much. He issued orders for the saving of soap, pins, towels, and other office supplies. He decided not to get a new suit of clothes for Easter. He decided not to get a new straw hat, but to have the Panama cleaned. That was reasonable. It is why a man buys a Panama in the first place.

This thrift in the White House seems to have made an impression on the people. How much we do not know. We did not believe that any precept or example could keep the American people from spending money when they had it for things they wanted. It is their habit. It gets them what they want and it seems to us that there is a great deal to be said in favor of a life of having what you want rather than a life of wanting what you won't have. Some business men say that Mr. Coolidge has slowed things down, that he has stopped considerable spending of money, and that the old suit is on a good many of his fellow citizens who ordinarily would be sporting a new one.

Thrift is a virtue much admired even by people who do not practice it. To preach against thrift would seem an enormity, as preaching against honesty, virtue, and square dealing. But nations live on different levels. The level of the American nation is one of spending. Our idea is to make money and convert it into things which make life enjoyable. People are busy making the things and selling the things which other people want. There is a quick turnover of the pay check and that turnover makes other pay checks.

The expenditure for automobiles, radio sets, clothes, furniture, rugs, amusements, food which is not needed to sustain life but is pleasant to the palate, all this keeps people busy. If buying stopped, the savings accounts might have a sudden boost, but presently a good many people would be needing their savings for their sustenance. When buying stopped production would stop, and with it employment would stop. The whole nation is geared up to this speed of spending. It gives the individual a rich life. He gets his money because he is contributing something to what other people want. He is buying from their contributions. The people are working for each other and each has something out of the great production thus stimulated.

The saving of money has a protective purpose. Money itself is only intended to be exchanged. It converts a particular kind of work into a great variety of articles. It has ceased to serve its purpose when it is under a mattress or in a sock. If a man could be guaranteed a daily wage for labor to the hour of his death he would not need to save a cent. The more he spent the better everybody would be off. Thrift merely protects him against the time when he cannot work.

We live by spending, not by saving. Great accumulations of wealth give men power and its gratification, but the average man gets his normal life out of what he spends. It may be on his home, in his amusements, to gratify his tastes, to broaden the intellectual scope of his existence, or to increase his grossness. It depends on the person; but he lives by spending and the rest of the country lives with him.

This makes wealth in the real sense of things which are used. That is all wealth is. A mountain of gold as such has no value.

THE MOTOR TRUCK AND THE ROADS.

The Mid-West Motor Transport conference heard Secretary of Agriculture Jardine announce that his department had come to the conclusion that the motor truck cannot replace the railroad for the long hauls, but that in short hauls the truck is supreme.

The same conference heard George Quinlan, superintendent of Cook county highways, refer to Chicago as a walled city because of its lack of adequate gateway roads into the surrounding territory. Mr. Quinlan said 110,000 vehicles leave and enter the city daily, but there are only five principal highways to handle the bulk of this traffic.

More gateways are needed to handle the short-haul traffic, for which, as Mr. Jardine showed, the motor truck is daily proving its supremacy. Just where a short haul ends and a long haul begins is a matter of delicate balance, but there can be no questioning the fact that the economic advantages of truck movement do not end at the city limits. The Chicago business man knows that the cost of hiring a truck may be higher than the railway charge for a shipment to Elgin, for instance, but the difference is more than equalized by reduced handling charges and the saving of a day or more in time of delivery.

The Chicago region is admirably adapted, because of its flatness, to motor transport, yet motor trucks are not being used here as much as they might be because of road congestion. The state has been niggardly in appropriating for additional gateways and for wider pavements which serve the same end. More and wider roads in this region, as has often been pointed out, will be of service to the tourist who rides into the country for pleasure. They will be of even greater value, as Mr. Quinlan and the secretary of agriculture have shown, to the farmers and business men of northern Illinois in reducing the cost and time required for transporting their products to the consumer.

TRACTION ON CRUTCHES.

The legislature evidently is not going to do anything good, bad, or indifferent for Chicago traction. In that respect the legislature is not peculiar. No one else offers to do anything. Mayor Dever had a plan, and the friends of the people would not have it. The ex-mayors wouldn't have it. And they haven't anything else.

In less than two years the surface car franchises expire. Probably when another session of the legislature is organizing the surface lines will be in a federal receivership.

Chicago is sitting quietly waiting for that. The friends of the people exhausted themselves when they made it impossible for the city to adopt the Dever plan and work out a settlement and reconstruction under that.

Obstruction satisfied these citizens, but it did not get much for the city. Mayor Dever himself may not know what to do now. He tried what he thought was best. Time is running against the city and running fast.

OUR SO-CALLED SPRING.

We are against our so-called spring weather. It is very rotten. The shift from winter to summer is not gradual but sudden, and the relapses are equally sudden. It is cool to the point of being cold. Overnight it becomes warm to the point of being hot. Then it gets cold again. A man who buys a top coat in spring in this community is the man with a healthy bankroll. It is a useful garment in our long, cool autumn, but it is a sheer waste in spring, when all a man needs is a winter overcoat or none at all.

The Englishman asks if winter comes will spring be far behind. The Chicago poet should, in something the same spirit, inquire if summer comes will autumn be far behind. The answer to both questions, we hasten to assure doubting readers, is No. Anyhow, our autumns are lovely.

SUPPRESS THE MOSQUITO NUISANCE.

The mosquito pest is not a necessary evil. It was fought successfully in the Canal Zone. It can be fought successfully in the Chicago zone.

But, as they know at Panama, it is not a battle that can be won finally. To keep down the mosquito means a perpetual battle. Freedom from the mosquito, like other freedom, is bought by eternal vigilance. In northern Europe mosquitoes are few. Italy has them still, but drainage and sanitation have reduced them as a serious menace, as they once were in the region of Rome and elsewhere. In the United States vast areas not yet put under intensive cultivation have permitted the mosquito to survive and prosper. Fortunately the common type in this vicinity is not, so far as we know, a dangerous carrier of disease. But it is a nuisance of the first order, depriving out of door life of a good deal of the comfort and pleasure we might have from it. On the Atlantic coast they suffer even more than we do, and some states have made serious campaigns, such as that of the New Jersey board of conservation, realizing that public money spent in reducing this plague would be well spent if only from the viewpoint of increased land values.

But the job is a big one. So far as breeding places on public lands are concerned, that is simply a question of intelligent action by the local authorities. Within villages and towns property owners can be induced or compelled to prevent water surfaces from being used as breeding places and to keep up proper drainage and oiling. But we have a great deal of unimproved and unoccupied land in private ownership, and it is not easy to keep this under control. On the north shore the Skokie valley is a problem, and even more difficult to deal with is the problem of shrubbery. We would not abolish shrubs, and yet they are protection for the mosquito and one of the chief factors in his prosperity on the north shore.

The job is a complicated one, and long and hard. But it ought to be done. The employment of an expert is a sensible move, but if results are not very appreciable at first there should be no discouragement. Study of conditions and adjustment of methods, public education, the awakening of the property holders' sense of self-interest, support and coöperation by the local authorities, all are essential to an effective campaign and to establish a permanent system of mosquito suppression. They cannot be obtained in a day.

Editorial of the Day

PLANTING FOR PRICES.

[Indianapolis News.]

The North Branch Farmers Producers' association sent the following telegram to the secretary of agriculture: "We would be very thankful if you will keep your mouth shut about the intended plantings of the potato acreage for the year 1925." The secretary of agriculture, being a farmer with some experience as a college president, probably smiled reminiscently. Nearly every college president has been asked to lower the requirements for a degree to suit a particular student. Every man in public life is familiar with the plea of citizens who do not like rules approved by the majority and would like to see them altered to favor the minority. The message created no special disturbance in Washington.

The complaint that the government through its crop reports harms the farmer is frequently heard. The fact is that a crop is a hard thing to hide and an important thing to know about. The government is not the only agency at work investigating crop acreage. Every middleman between the producer and the consumer has a deep financial interest in crop acreage. Crop forecasts are usually based on a survey of government and various private reports. As long as business men are forehanded, and it is profitable to know the size of crops well in advance of the harvest, estimates will be made by men well qualified to judge.

Through various agencies, producers are trying to do the same thing that middlemen are trying to do, but in a different way. The stake is the same—a good price. Producers are trying to anticipate the probable normal demand and plant to or under it. If they can take as much profit on a small crop gauged under the demand as on a large crop dumped into a buyers' market they are going to do it. The trust laws specifically exempt farmer combinations. Without government reports, the market would be chaotic and as likely as not many farmers would sacrifice crops on erroneous local indications.

O, MAN!

An old farmer was carrying a pitcher of milk down to the cellar, when he slipped and fell to the bottom, jarring himself from head to foot. His wife called anxiously:

"John, did you break the pitcher?"

"No," replied John, earnestly and profanely, "but darned if I don't."—Everybody's.

How to Keep Well.
By Dr. W. A. Evans.

Questions pertinent to hygiene, sanitation, and prevention of disease, if matters of general interest, will be answered in this column. Where space will not permit, or the subject is not suitable, letters will be personally answered, subject to proper limitations, and where a stamped, addressed envelope is inclosed. Dr. Evans will not make a diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases. Requests for such service cannot be answered.

HABIT SPASMS.

THE children who have habit spasms are the victims of emotional conflicts, according to Dr. B. S. Vedder. The habit spasms are such performances as blinking the eyes, contracting the brows, twisting the mouth around, pulling the head in some direction. Such manifestations are first cousins to biting the nails and habit motions of the fingers, hands, feet, or body.

To begin with, one must be certain that the diagnosis of habit spasm is correct. The jerking of chorea may appear very much like the pattern of habit spasm. Chorea is due to a rheumatic infection, and out of it comes heart disease. The treatment of chorea is medicine, while that of habit spasm is mental and social. Dr. Vedder cites general cases of habit spasm that grew out of emotional conflicts as proven by the results of treatment.

One was a boy who was very much afraid of another boy. He got well when he was sent to visit a relative, and in that manner escaped the source of his trouble. A girl with habit spasms was found to have been tormented in school. In another group of cases of habit spasm the trouble was due to inferiority complexes. The children had jerks because of self-abasement and inferiority.

A large part of the malnutrition and poor appetites of children is the result of emotional conflicts. One malnourished child would not eat because of jealousy of his brother. Another, because he had been dubbed a poor fish and the epithet had sunk in; another, because of excess of fears.

Every physician participating in the discussion of Dr. Vedder's paper was able to tell of undernourished children who got plenty of the best of food but who would not eat, or, eating, were not properly nourished because of emotional conflicts. Dr. Abt's principal contribution related to the baneful influence of misdirected and unreasonable love. The emotions which most upset children are love, fear, and rage. The worst sufferers from emotional conflicts which have their foundation in unreasoning love are those who are "the only child."

SCABIES IS ITCH.

N. A. writes:

1. I wrote to you about a month ago, but I haven't an answer.

2. For the last three or four months I have been troubled with an itch all over my body. I was told that it might be scabies. What is the cause of the disease and is there any remedy?

REPLY.

1. Did you send stamped, self-addressed envelope?

2. Scabies is known as common itch, though some people call it prairie itch and others by still other names.

Scabies is due to a parasite which burrows in the skin. It is cured by sulphur ointment. There are many sulphur ointments, but even the poorest will cure itch if properly used. The parasite has a way of escaping destruction by boring in and covering the hole. Also, by taking refuge in the clothing. Also by living on filthier members of a family or of a school population and sending missionaries to the cleaner members when occasion offers.

DANGER IN SEALED WOUNDS.

C. J. F. writes:

1. Apropos of tetanus, will doctors do away with adhesive plaster, and if so, what will be the substitute?

2. I am not skeptical, but what about licking stamps? The majority of people do it, and we often have open places in our mouths, but it is a horrid practice, I admit.

REPLY.

1. Physicians rarely seal wounds any more. Probably they will wholly discontinue the practice except as to shallow wounds—those that do not penetrate the skin.

2. Even if there were tetanus bacilli on them, licking stamps would not cause tetanus. It is the sealing up of a wound that causes the trouble. The tetanus bacillus is not active in the presence of air.

CURE FOR STUTTERERS.

S. E. M. writes: Noting an inquiry in a recent paper concerning cure for stuttering, I am writing the experience of a friend, 30 years ago. This was the prescription: Take a deep breath before you begin to speak, and let the words flow as you exhale. Stutterers are never troubled when singing, said he. My friend cured himself by practicing this simple advice.

FRIEND OF THE PEOPLE

WILLS IN ENGLAND.

Chicago, June 1.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—Please let me know what length of time it takes for a person in the British isles to probate a will or administer for a parcel of property willed to them. Must a lawyer take charge of all debts and credits or can the party named in the will collect and pay any debts himself?
A. E. M.

The length of time occupied by probate proceedings varies considerably, depending upon the availability of the parties, the speed shown by the attorney, etc. It probably will be advisable to employ an attorney.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

WANTS ITEMIZED STATEMENT.

Waterloo, Ia., May 31.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I am divorced from my husband and have the custody of our child. A settlement was paid me but the child has a weekly amount set to pay by the court.

1. Must I give the father an accounting of the child's money? The agreement reads "money must be used solely for the child."

2. Could he get such accounting or custody of the child by taking the matter to court?

3. Can he have a guardian appointed if I refuse to give such accounting?
C. M.

1. Rights depend upon the wording of the alimony decree. If it does not require accounting, the husband cannot insist upon it.

2 and 3. Since these matters are discretionary with the trial judge the result would depend largely on the showing that the husband could make.

FACTS AND RUMORS ABOUT CITIZENSHIP.

Chicago, May 31.—[Friend of the People.]—Less than a year ago I married an alien. I understand that at the end of two years I lose my citizenship rights. About seven years ago my husband took out his first papers but there was an error in the name and it took so much trouble to try to have it straightened out that he dropped the matter. We have also heard that he can get citizenship by having a United States citizen who has known him two years swear to the fact. Is this so, or shall he take out first papers again? Must I take out papers, too?
MRS. K.

Under the act of Sept. 22, 1922, an American woman who married a foreigner after that date does not lose her citizenship. Under the law as it existed before Sept. 22, 1922, an American woman who married a foreigner assumed the citizenship of her husband.

An alien requires the declaration of intention (first paper) at least two years old and not more than seven years old, in order to apply for naturalization and if the alien mentioned has papers more than seven years old he should make a new one before one of the clerks of the court exercising naturalization jurisdiction. All petitions for naturalization must be filed in the clerk's office at least 90 days before a hearing thereon may be had except petitions of honorably discharged soldiers or sailors who appeared in this office and have been examined and passed.

Inasmuch as under the facts stated Mrs. K does not lose her citizenship, it will not be necessary for her to take any steps to regain it.
FRED J. SCHLOTFELDT,
District Director of Naturalization.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

60 YEARS AGO TODAY

JUNE 5, 1865.

WASHINGTON.—Gen. Grant issued a congratulatory address to his armies. In conclusion he said: "You will soon be permitted to return to your homes and families conscious of having discharged the highest duty of the American citizen. To achieve these glorious triumphs and secure to yourselves, your fellow countrymen, and posterity the blessings of free institutions, tens of thousands of your gallant comrades have fallen and sealed the priceless legacy with their lives. Their graves a grateful nation bedews with tears, honors their memories, and will ever cherish and support their stricken families."

WASHINGTON.—An extra session of congress is expected to be called within a very short time.

NEW YORK.—A Richmond letter says a member of the English parliament has offered Gen. Robert E. Lee a splendid mansion in London and a sum of money, the interest on which would support him and his family for life.

NEW YORK.—The World's Washington correspondent says that Charles O'Conor has applied for permission to tender Jeff Davis his professional services in case he is arraigned on the indictment for treason returned against him in the District of Columbia, and President Johnson has directed that the application be granted to the end that the constitutional provision which secures to accused persons the assistance of counsel may be respected. Mrs. Davis and her party have gone to Savannah. It is understood that quarters have been prepared for Davis in the Old Capitol prison here and a suitable guard will insure his safe keeping.

DETROIT.—Gen. Grant has telegraphed to close all places for selling liquor along the route and at the rendezvous of the returning western troops.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

JUNE 5, 1900.

CHICAGO.—Proprietors of the Metropolitan Medical college, which has been defying the Illinois state board of health for four years, were arrested by United States marshals on a charge of using the mails to defraud. The institution has been graduating 1,000 "physicians" a year without serious molestation because of the inadequacy of the Illinois health laws. James Armstrong is president of the college.

WASHINGTON.—Gen. Joseph Wheeler probably will be made a brigadier general in the regular army and retired at once without special legislation by congress.

MILWAUKEE.—At a trial of the Raddatz submarine boat it made a trip of a mile under water and return.

WASHINGTON.—Congressman Jonathan P. Dolliver of Iowa seems likely to be nominated for Vice President at the Republican national convention at Philadelphia, which begins two weeks from today. It is known he is acceptable to President McKinley.

LONDON.—British reports are that Pretoria is invested and that the Boers will surrender it to Lord Roberts today. From Pretoria, however, comes the announcement that the burghers will defend the capital to the utmost.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

JUNE 5, 1915.

LONDON.—Eight ships, four of them neutrals, have been sunk by German submarines within the last twenty-four hours. In at least three instances no warning was given by the attacking submarines. No lives are reported lost.

WASHINGTON.—President Wilson's rejoinder to the German reply on the sinking of the Lusitania will be sent to Berlin today. It constitutes the most vigorous demand for the observance of respect for American rights in the submarine war zone yet sent to Germany.

VIENNA.—The Russians all along the Galician front are retreating, according to war office advices.

CHICAGO.—Charles S. Cutting was elected president of the Chicago Bar association.

CHICAGO.—Miss Isabel Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Chandler, 744 Rush street, will be married to Hobart Young this evening at the family residence.

WASHINGTON.—A high state department official declared positively that Ambassador Gerard at Berlin has received no instructions to warn the American colony there to be ready to leave on account of possible severance of diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States.

MORNING GOLF.

If I go round in ninety-nine
And you in eighty-three,
Why should I murmur and repine
And groan in misery?

The day is fair; the clock's at six;
The greens are wet with dew.
I care not, I, for trivial tricks
To save a stroke or two.

'Tis magic morn in Jackson Park
And real Chicago weather.
Do you not hear the soaring lark
And see the purple heather?

Elate, exultant, unrepressed,
The eagle on the pole
Salutes the dawn (though facing west)
Beside the eighteenth hole.

I scorn your vulgar show of skill
In drive, approach, and putting.
Mine is a loftier, purer thrill,
And scores are simply nothing.

And yet I yearn that day to see,
O scornful friend of mine,
When I'll go round in eighty-three
And you in ninety-nine.

Says Noah: "A narcotic is a drug which in moderate doses produces profound sleep, but which in large doses produces stupor, coma, or convulsions." And lots of opinions we have heard are just like that.

THE TOWER CALLS 'EM BACK.

R. H. L.: A year ago, when the Tribune Tower was just a baby model, I left Chicago, the city enchanting, because success for me seemed to lie here in Washington—yes, Washington, D. C.—and I've managed somehow to quiet the severe cases of homesickness that I've been afflicted with since leaving the golden city by the lake, and I've worked very hard to build to my job to make it worth while. But today, Dickie, I came accidentally upon a copy of the Tribune, days old, and my eager eyes turned quickly to the beloved Line, where, at the top, was Le Mousquetaire's poem to the Tribune Tower, and, Dickey, with tears streaming down my face, I walked in and resigned my good job, and now I'm coming home. I have to. That poem has made it impossible for me to stay away any longer. When there is a city in the world where folks write poems to a building, and when that building is itself a poem to the city, why, Dick, that's where I've got to live, and I will trade one of my loaves of bread for food for my soul.

WE THOUGHT TENNESSEE WAS FINANCING THE PROSECUTION.

Dayton, Tenn., June 2.—Since the people of America are very much interested in the trial of Prof. John T. Scopes, who is charged with violating the Tennessee anti-evolution law, I wish to make an appeal through the columns of your valuable paper for financial aid for the prosecution in this case. The prosecution represents the church and the public school, while the defense represents science. It will be no trouble for the defense to get all the financial aid that is necessary, and I am calling on all who believe in our cause to make whatever contribution they can in order that we may be able to win the greatest battle of the century.
WALTER WHITE,
Superintendent Rhea County (Tenn.) Schools and Prosecutor in the Scopes case.

IT'S TOO HOT.

Chicago, June 3.—Why is it that THE TRIBUNE has stopped publishing crossword puzzles?
H. G. GOBLE.

IT'S GETTING HOTTER.

Chicago, June 1.—There you go again, trying to stop the crossword puzzle fans from having their little fun, and here I am begging you on bended knee to start them over again.

If the headlines had "war" written in the boldest type, my fingers would automatically run for the crossword puzzle—that's how much I care for the puzzles.

Sure, the rest of the paper's fine, and Uncle Walt and Skeezix are just great, and the back page has nice pictures, but me for the crossword puzzles, too.

THE FLAG ON THE SIDEWALK.

Chicago, June 2.—I am wondering if the same thought that was in my mind last night came also to the minds of others who, like myself, were scurrying along Wabash avenue near the corner of Washington street when they saw, as I did, lying on the sidewalk, a small American flag, dirt stained and torn by the feet of hundreds who had evidently trampled on it.

Although I sidestepped it, I failed in my duty in neglecting to pick it up, though I tried to console myself with the thought, "I guess it's consistent with the times; that's not the only case where the dearest flag in the world has been trampled upon."

However, I'll never pass by another flag without picking it up. It belongs over us, not under us, no matter what its size.

THE REPUDIATED DEBTS.

Algona, Ia., June 2.—I was very much interested in the recent editorial suggesting that the repudiated bonds of some of the southern states now held in England be accepted as a partial payment of English debt to this country.

In a little talk made by me on a Memorial occasion I ventured to rather favor the suggestion. A few old soldiers present were very much against the suggestion.

I think it would be a very fine thing if you would follow up your editorial with a complete analysis of those repudiated bonds. When were they issued and for what purpose were they issued?
T. P. HARRINGTON.

EDGAR S. CAMERON'S WORK.

Chicago, June 2.—I was very glad to see your art reviewer make some mention of Edgar S. Cameron and his work in last Sunday's TRIBUNE. For here is one of Chicago's—indeed, one of America's—much neglected artists—an artist genuine, sincere, and master in his work. Reams of odorous adulation are constantly being poured out in the glorification of this or that sycophantic canvas despoiler, or salesman in artist smock and pose, while the lovely and serenely beautiful paintings of this quiet, unassuming, genuine artist are curiously being overlooked.

The one or two paintings of his hanging in the Art institute are not, I believe, Cameron at his best. I have seen in his studio paintings that, were some foreign name attached to them, would be, as, indeed, they should be, hailed as masterpieces.

Edgar S. Cameron is well past his middle years. Chicago should take some cognizance, a more active cognizance than it has heretofore taken, of this artist in its midst who, in an age of rank commercialism and tom-tomming in art, has steadfastly held to his course and to his devotion to the best traditions and highest ideals of art.

THE SPEAKERS DEFAULTED.

Chicago, June 2.—Some of the speakers listed to appear at certain schools at the Memorial day exercises did not keep the appointment. Our eldest daughter, only 13 years old, remarked on the absence of an adult speaker and the lack of a real patriotic spirit which could have been impressed at the time on the waiting ears of the children.
C. D. M. URQUHART.

WHAT THE C. F. M. T. STANDS FOR.

Chicago, June 1.—In a recent issue of your paper appeared a communication from R. R. Smith in which he accused the Chicago Federation of Men Teachers of an unsportsmanlike attitude in opposing the appointment of women high school principals.

The injustice of this statement is the occasion of this letter.

The Chicago Federation of Men Teachers has always stood for absolute equality of men and women in the matter of appointments and salary. This is a matter of record. Should there be some individuals of a different opinion they are in a decided minority unknown to me. I base my statement on the published record of the men's federation.

URGE UNSELFISH CHICAGO SPIRIT ON REMAPPING

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 5.—[Special.]—Senator E. T. Glackin and his Chicago associates on a subcommittee named for that purpose left for home today with declarations that they will speed up their task of preparing a map redistricting Illinois in conformity with the state constitution.

The fight in the legislature for equal rights for Cook county now is focused on the efforts of these four and the four downstate members of the subcommittee to hasten the drafting of a bill specifying the boundaries of fifty-one new districts, based on the census figures of 1920.

Only a Week's Time.

Their hope is to be able to present such a bill next week, for after that there is only one more week of legislative work and unless a definite plan that will receive the serious consideration of the senate is presented within the next seven days there is extremely little likelihood of its being considered even at a recess session in the fall.

The Chicagoans, Senators Glackin, A. J. Marks, John T. Joyce, and George Van Lent, conferred this morning, before the senate adjourned for the week. They agreed that, while their task is an immense one, it is possible of accomplishment if all the legislators from Cook county and the political powers there will agree to a lot of hard work with a leaven of unselfishness.

See Trouble Ahead.

The Cook county group has the easier task, since the process consists of cutting down the territories of most of the present districts. But even in this they know they will encounter the objections of legislators and political leaders that a few years ago delayed Chicago's new ward lines. Proposed new boundaries will shift present members of the assembly into new districts, they will cut off or add territory, desirable or undesirable because of political or racial characteristics, and nearly every man will want his district left as small as he can keep it.

"We have discussed all these problems," said Chairman Glackin, "and we know that unless all the members of the legislature from Cook county are ready to follow something of the give and take policy, to sacrifice some little advantages here and there, we won't get anywhere. So we are prepared to urge speed and unselfishness for the sake of Chicago and its suburbs."

Chairman Glackin has sent out the invitations to all Cook county legislators for a meeting in the election board rooms in the city hall at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and for a meeting of downstate senators and representatives at the statehouse here at 3 o'clock next Tuesday.

Attorney General Carlstrom's opinion to Senator Glackin on the subject of reapportionment holds, by implication, that redistricting is mandatory upon the legislature.

Programs Fail to Modify the Heat for Elmer

Nurses Soothe, but Some Others Fail.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

A midsummer's madness or a sudden spirit of romance or desperado suggests mentioning little bits here and there as they came in. So——

Beginning with WIBO at 7:25, the Messiah church young ladies' octet was found coming in with a fine program—a start good enough for any evening's entertainment.

Later, several notches higher on the dials, a trombone tenor sliding through a song with the words "IIII'd Liiike to Call You Honeyeeeeeee," and in comparison that sliding voiced Lake Michigan foghorn has it all over the tenor, the former not being endowed with a mind.

So to WQJ, where Lucille Mathews, violinist, was in the midst of a long solo, with marvelous double stopping and other apparently difficult feats. Also some other selections by meritorious artists, but somehow the labor by the announcer in making the famous ChiCAgo hurdle made the dials quiver and move to——

Almost without realizing it this listener was under the soothing influence of the Evanston Hospital Nurses' Glee club at WEBH, who sang "Lullaby," "May Morning" ("May Night" was heard from WLS later), and other selections. In short, this was certainly the finest concert of the evening.

At 8 o'clock there was an interesting series of piano numbers in succession. The first movement from Chopin's piano sonata, by Le Roy North, WEBH's station pianist. Liszt's Etude in A flat and "May Night" (Palmgrin), by Hazel Sims on the fine Warren K. Howe concert at WLS. Chopin's Scherzo in C sharp minor, WMAQ, by Announcer Robert Whitney. Then a Chopin polonaise from KYW, played by the station's pianist, Sallie Menkies.

There is a temptation to bring in Albert H. Tolman's talk at WMAQ on that old-modern-future chestnut, "Shakespeare or Bacon."

But Edwin House, a deep river basso-baritone, was singing a merry "Young Tom A'Devin" (something like that), anyhow something too good to miss, at W-G-N.

And KDKA, Pittsburgh, was coming in like a local station and with a program that was both entertaining to the radio audience and to an audience in Carnegie hall.

And a nearby Chicago station was teaching beginners in things musical, disrespect for the great masters by giving rhythmic arrangements of selections from Verdi's "Il Troxatore" and Wagner's music drama, "Tannhäuser." May the shades of night become thicker and blacker and bury both tones and memory of this ere the sun arise this morning.

And with some announcers pronouncing program as "progrum" last night was quite a night.

Moscow Propagands Art; French Minister Leaves

PARIS, June 4.—Declaring he had come for a decorative art manifestation, not a political one, Minister of Public Instruction Demonzie today indignantly withdrew from the opening ceremonies of the inauguration of the soviet pavillion of the decorative art exposition when a crowd of communists sang the "Internationale" and cried "Down with war!" and "Long Live Morocco!" After whispering a few words to Mme. Krassin he left the building with several deputies, followed by the cat calls of the crowd.

CONVICT SHIP
"SUCCESS" THE OLDEST SHIP AFLOAT

THIS WONDERFUL VESSEL HAS MADE HISTORY THROUGH THREE CENTURIES

She marked the beginning and the end of England's monstrous penal system.

She has held lurid horror and dreadful iniquities beside which even the terrible stories of the Black Hole of Calcutta and the Spanish Inquisition pale into insignificance.

She is the oldest ship in the world and the only convict ship left afloat out of that dreadful "Fleet of Ocean Hells" which sailed the Seven Seas in 1790, A. D.

She is unchanged after all these years, nothing being omitted but her human freight and their sufferings from the cruelties and barbarities practiced upon them.

Aboard her are now shown, in their original state, all the airless dungeons and condemned cells, the whipping post, manacles, the branding irons, the punishment balls, the leaden tipped cat-o'nine tails, the coffin bath and the other fiendish inventions of man's brutality to his fellowman.

From keel to topmast she cries aloud the greatest lesson the world has ever known in the history of human progress.

The Convict Ship "Success" is the Greatest and Most Extraordinary Exhibition that ever visited America. It is a theme for the pen of a Dante. When you walk her decks, grooved with the chains of her miserable victims, the past will speak to you its sad and mournful lesson, but you will leave feeling better because you live in a better age.

Business men appreciate Blue-jay particularly, because it is scientifically efficient. It leaves nothing to the user's guess work. You do not have to decide how much or how little to put on. Each plaster is a complete, standardized treatment—and it does the work.

Mr. Hyde had corns
. . . Dr. Jekyll had none!

At the root of many a bad temper, there's a corn. It is hard to keep the disposition serene when a corn is jabbing and baiting it with pain. You can cover the tip of a corn with a match-head. But this tiny pain-center makes one feel mean all over—and act that way. Doctors know that a corn may irritate the whole nervous system—so the patient with a corn is told to use Blue-jay. A Blue-jay plaster will end a corn pain in ten seconds, and the corn itself in 48 hours.

STINNES WORLD TRUST CRUMBLES AS SONS DIFFER

Banks Demand Drastic Reorganization.

BERLIN, June 4.—[United News.]—The great industrial empire founded by the genius of the late Hugo Stinnes has begun to disintegrate.

The era of world expansion under the Stinnes dynasty ended today when members of the Stinnes family, conferring with directors of leading German banks, including the Reichsbank, decided that the scope of the family realm must be drastically reduced.

The decision is construed as a concession that with the death of Hugo Stinnes, the master genius passed, leaving the two boys, Edmund and Hugo Stinnes Jr., incapable of managing the world-wide activities which the father had built up. These included twenty-nine coal mines, eight iron mines, twenty-four iron and steel plants, automobile factories, electrical industries, steamships, newspapers, and other immense undertakings.

Brothers at Odds.

It has been known for some time that the Stinnes enterprises were falling short of expectations. Anxiety had overcome financial and industrial circles, since the two Stinnes brothers split on a question of political faith. The situation reached a head today when representatives of the leading German banks met at the invitation of the Reichsbank to consider the state of affairs in the Stinnes concerns. The bankers decided that drastic reorganization was necessary to restore the different firms to prosperity.

As the first step toward this reorganization, it was decided to concentrate the Stinnes empire in the hands of young Hugo, who is only 26 years old, and cast off a number of economic enterprises which have proved unwieldy since the father died. This decision sounds the death knell of the famous vertical trust, a German conception of business which centered in one control all industries pertaining to one another. In its place will be substituted the American horizontal trust, which seeks to control only one line of economic endeavor.

Old Dream Is Burst.

Henceforth, therefore, the Stinnes interests will resume their original basis, concentrating on iron and coal and a few carefully selected commercial ventures. The old dream of Hugo Stinnes, the elder, which he lived to realize and which extended its ramifications into every corner of the world and into every branch of commerce and industry, will follow its creator to his grave.

The fact that representatives of several creditor banks were present increased the uneasiness on the bourse, however, repudiated reports that the Stinnes interests were threatened with insolvency, although the bank directors conceded that complete reorganization was imperative.

This decision follows the resigna-

FINANCIAL ROW SHAKES FRENCH CABINET AGAIN

Left Heckles Caillaux; Demands Wealth Levy.

BY HENRY WALES.

[Copyright: 1925: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, June 4.—Joseph Caillaux, finance minister, was severely heckled this afternoon by members of the finance subcommittee of the chamber of deputies. M. Caillaux hopes to modify certain projects in his finance scheme as a compromise, although he refuses to incorporate in the plan a levy on capital, which the socialists demand.

The cabinet position is seriously menaced by the decision of the leaders of the socialist party, forming half the strength of the left cartel, to oppose M. Caillaux' finance scheme. Should M. Caillaux be forced to resign, it is believed Premier Painleve will take the finance ministry himself. Louis Loucheur is urging an increase of the income tax during a period of twenty years to the extent of making it almost a levy on wealth and earnings.

Following the subcommittee hearing, M. Caillaux stated that the present weakening of the franc was due to heavy payments for winter emergency stocks.

"I do not intend to use a mass maneuver constituted by a $100,000,000 Morgan loan until there is evidence of speculation to force down the franc," said M. Caillaux.

Increase in Circulation.

The Bank of France's weekly statement showed a big increase in circulation, almost 1,000,000,000 francs ($50,000,000), last week, leaving the paper money out at 43,648,000,000 francs ($2,132,400,000) or ($67,600,000) below the new legal limit.

These statistics immediately had a weakening effect on the franc, sending it to 20.40 to a dollar.

M. Caillaux today asked the secret police to investigate the case of a French woman who took 1,000,000 francs ($50,000) worth of national defense bonds to Switzerland and deposited them in a Geneva bank for reimbursement. Reports from Holland state that many French francs are glutting the market, buying up florins. The big dumping of francs in Brussels also is being investigated.

Moroccan Campaign a Factor.

Apprehension that the Moroccan campaign will prove a long, costly, bloody operation also is contributing to the feebleness of the franc.

It is reported from Madrid that Spain is negotiating again with Abd-el-Krim, on the basis of granting him an autonomy in the Riff while Spain retains its sovereignty in the entire protectorate and the ports of Ceuta, Melilla, and Tetuan. Dictator Primo de Rivera is offering Abd-el-Krim free trading rights through the ports, it is rumored.

Marshall Is Laid to Rest After Indianapolis Rites

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4.—(AP)—Thomas Riley Marshall, a character known to state and nation, was laid to rest here today. Such simple obsequies as might be tendered any humble citizen were accorded the body of him who served the nation as Vice President during the world war and his native state of Indiana as its twenty-seventh governor. It was the widow's wish that in death he should be unostentatious just as he was in life.

A tribute was paid by the Rev. Matthew Smith, Mr. Marshall's friend and pastor, Scottish rite services for a departed brother were read, and then the body was taken to Crown Hill cemetery, where it will remain in a receiving vault until Mrs. Marshall decides on its final resting place.

BURT W. PEIRCE, associated with the Joseph T. Ryerson & Sons company, died suddenly yesterday in the Blodgett Memorial hospital, at Grand Rapids, Mich. Mr. Peirce suffered an attack of appendicitis while at his summer home at Saugatuck, Michigan. He is survived by his widow and two small sons. Funeral services will be held tomorrow from the chapel at 316 West 63d street at 3 p. m.

CORONER SEEKS WIDOW OF BROKER WHO DIED IN FIRE

Thinks She May Help Clear Up Death Mystery.

Mrs. Deo Parsons, wife of the wealthy young broker presumably burned to death in his apartment at 185 East Chestnut street last Sunday morning, quietly returned to Chicago yesterday, and last night Coroner Oscar Wolff was seeking to question her.

Mrs. Parsons came from Union City, Mich., where she went with the body for the funeral. According to information received by Coroner Wolff she went to the home of friends. The coroner sought their identity that he might inform the widow he wished to see her.

Mystery Still Veils Death.

Coroner Wolff after another day of investigation declared last night that the death of Parsons was still shrouded in mystery and conflicting testimony. The coroner asserted that he is convinced the truth has not been told by all concerned.

And while his investigators were seeking to learn Mrs. Parsons' whereabouts, Mr. Wolff said he did not believe the young widow was purposely staying away.

"I think rather that she does not know the turn things have taken since she went away with her husband's body," he said, "and that when she learns that I wish to question her she will voluntarily come into my office.

Discrepancies in Testimony.

"There are so many discrepancies in the stories of the various witnesses so far questioned that we must have Mrs. Parsons' testimony to clear some of them up."

One of the most flagrant discrepancies concerns the time of the Parsons' arrival at their apartment on Sunday morning. Mrs. Parsons first fixed this at about 1:30. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sickles, with whom Mr. and Mrs. Parsons spent the evening said also it must have been about that time.

Neighbors of the Parsons said it was much later, some fixing the time at 3:20, others at a still earlier morning hour.

James King, suspended policeman of the Lincoln Park force, who was in the Parsons' apartment, drinking with Parsons before he was burned to death, says Parsons picked him up at Aldine street and Sheridan road at 6:50 in the morning and took him to breakfast in the apartment.

Kojun Ania, Japanese servant to the Parsons', says the two arrived there at 5 o'clock.

Had Visited Roadhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Sickles say they went to Ravinia with the Parsons' to look at some lots there. On the way back they all stopped at The Dells, a roadhouse west of Evanston. They then went to the Sickles' apartment in the Congress hotel, where they danced and had a few drinks.

They say the Parsons' left about 1:30 a. m. The neighbors say they heard Mr. and Mrs. Parsons arrive sometime after 3. They assert the broker and his wife were quarreling and that they saw Mrs. Parsons strike Parsons twice in the face and then run to the apartment.

Coroner Wolff during the day again questioned Policeman King. The latter doggedly stuck to the story he has told all along. At last the coroner told King point blank he did not believe him.

Told to Go Home.

"You're lying!" Mr. Wolff said to King. "Either you were so drunk you don't know what happened, or you're covering up for somebody. You say you weren't drunk, so you must be lying."

Then he told King to go home and "talk it over with your wife," and come back "prepared to tell the truth at 1 o'clock today."

One strange circumstance was the finding of King's revolver with one cartridge exploded beside the body of Parsons. King could not explain this. Coroner Wolff is puzzled by it because there were no marks of violence on Parsons' body.

35 MILES AN HOUR HELD SAFE SPEED ON COUNTRY ROADS

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.]—Thirty-five miles an hour is a speed for open country motoring, it has been decided by the committee on uniformity of laws and regulations of the National Conference on Street and Highway Safety. The committee today declined to reduce this rate in the tentative draft of a uniform traffic law.

Gen. Nathan William MacChesney of Chicago, chairman of the committee, was empowered to appoint a body of ten members of the committee to submit a finished draft of uniform laws and regulations to be submitted at another meeting in the fall. A simple signal of holding out the arm when a car is about to stop or turn in any direction was advocated.

Ten miles an hour was placed as the maximum safe speed for passing schoolhouses during the recess hour. There was considerable discussion of the question of the examination of new drivers and of licenses for operators of all cars.

WEEKS SLOWLY IMPROVES, HIS PHYSICIANS SAY

Boston, Mass., June 4.—(AP)—Secretary of War John W. Weeks, who was operated on for gallstones at the Massachusetts General hospital a week ago today, has shown "steady but slow improvement during the last 24 hours," a bulletin from his physicians said tonight.

A bulletin later tonight said:

"Secretary Weeks is holding the improvement made during the last 24 hours. His pulse and temperature are the same."

Two thousand cases and 130 barrels of contraband wet goods were seized.

MEXICAN LABOR IS NEW PROBLEM FOR FLOATERS

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

A Mexican invasion has brought a new problem to floating labor in the employment agency quarter around Canal and West Madison streets. Cheap and unwashed immigrant labor from the southern border is streaming into Chicago and lining up for jobs in railroad camps and in the beet fields of Michigan.

Jobs just now are scarce. The flophouse section today has fully as large a population of jobless itinerants as in the slump season four years ago. The side streets from Halsted to Canal are filled with floating labor sitting on the curb. Unemployed are drifting in from the smaller towns and cities. And in some lines that might be a reservoir of labor in a dull summer, Mexican aliens appear to be in direct competition with American itinerant workers. Men of long experience in the district who have spent years in distributing floaters to seasonable jobs were saying yesterday that the immigration laws seem to need further tightening.

Moonshine is Bigger Force.

Moonshine, too, is becoming a more disruptive force. The floater, with his old thirst working, slakes it on moon at 35 cents the half pint of a sort that turns his throat into a fiery furnace and broils his brain into stupidity. He is apt to ship to a job and return when he has earned a ten spot to get another shot of poison, while the Mexican laborer generally stays on the job until it is over.

Some agencies yesterday displayed records showing a labor turnover of not less than 50 per cent a month in some railroad camps where ordinary floaters were hired, while in Mexican camps the turnover was negligible. Turnover being a costly item, this is advanced as one explanation of the Mexican invasion. Thus the American floater is now caught between moon and Mex.

"Volsteadism is a disturbing economic factor among floating labor," said A. R. Dundas of the Chicago Maintenance and Supply company. He has had long experience in employment placing. "This moonshine is the most fearful thing that happened to the floating worker. In the days of beer and whisky, if he drank, he got soshed and hilarious, but he always sobered up by the time he got to his job. Now they lick up this moon. It stupefies them, makes them dumb. They don't know what they do. It is useless to sign them up because when they come out of it they can't remember."

Works Like Drug Addiction.

"And when once they get the taste for moon, it seems to work like drug addiction. They'll work long enough to roll up a few dollars and then jump the job to come back for more poison. It breaks down the aptitude for industry and the bulk of the floaters are honorable, hardworking toilers. This moon is the cause of more grief to the worker than any other thing."

As to the volume of jobless floaters, J. R. McIntee of Clapp, Riley & Hall, who has had twenty-one years' experience in the Canal street district, declares it is the greatest he has ever seen.

"The Madison street section," he said, "never saw so many idle men at this time of year, and never saw a slighter demand for itinerant labor. About the only difference between today and 1894, the time of Coxey's army, is that in those times a good meal cost only a quarter."

Farms Use own Resources.

Demand from the farms is comparatively small. The farmer in recent years has formed the habit of extending himself more and using his own labor resources over a longer working season, while unemployed in the smaller cities are reported trekking for the farm. It has cut down the usual call for outside hands.

On the railroads seasonal work is just starting up in earnest. It is eight to ten weeks late. A large portion of the calls is for Mexicans. American floaters who seek work on the railroads as better than none refuse to be shipped when they learn Mexicans are in the camp, according to some agencies. The beet fields in Michigan are receiving shipments of Mexicans, many with families. This is the hardest of drudgery. Up to a few years ago the chief labor supply in the beet regions was Slavic. It pays $25 an acre, and it is not work that the ordinary floater will take.

AGED CHINAMAN, EXPERT IN CITRUS FRUIT, IS DEAD

Deland, Fla., June 4.—(AP)—Lue Gim Gong, 70, Chinese-American citrus expert and credited with being the originator of two of the best known varieties of grapefruit and oranges in Florida and California, is dead.

He came to this country at the age of 12 and was adopted and educated by an American woman, whose winter home he inherited here at her death.

Lived in Seclusion.

The Chinese-American had lived in seclusion on his plantation here for the last 15 years and had made many discoveries and had perfected the growing of several other fruits and vegetables.

Among the perfections that Gim Gong has effected are the cherry currant, perfume grapefruit, early sweet apple of Massachusetts, peach which grows under glass and bears in November, a firm variety of tomatoes and the three leaf orange which bears as far north as Connecticut.

Was Very Religious.

While he never left his orange groves, thousands of people, especially horticulturists, visited him annually. Being a Christian, and very religious, he always carried his visitors to his private chapel for prayer after having shown them around the groves.

Lue Gim Gong died a poor man. In the last few years it was necessary for friends to pay off a mortgage on his groves in order that he might continue his experimental work.

JUDGE DECIDES FOR THOMPSON IN PRINTING SUIT

[Walinger Photo.]

Milton Severinghaus may whistle in vain for his $178,457 printing bill, it was decided yesterday by Judge Jesse Holdom in Superior court.

For a time it looked as if William Hale Thompson might have to foot the whole bill, for all the other members of his old time political shebang had been voluntarily dismissed from liability, leaving him to face the music alone.

But Big Bill, without himself lifting his voice, was relieved of responsibility when Judge Holdom decided that there was no semblance of an agreement binding him. This morning, the judge said, he will direct the jury to return a verdict finding for Thompson.

Severinghaus Is Loser.

Which will leave Mr. Severinghaus without the $178,457 he demanded for the campaign literature, posters of Big Bill, cards, and oodles of pamphlets.

"Why, Severinghaus," Judge Holdom exclaimed, "was himself a member of the William Hale Thompson Republican club, Inc., and as such he made contributions. Why not hold himself responsible for his bills?"

"Severinghaus was a good mixer and a good politician," the judge said in his decision. "But he was a bit lax in a business way in not getting the name on the dotted line of a contract for all his printing bills."

When it was over, and while Attorney Chester Cleveland, counsel for Severinghaus, was still preparing his way for an appeal, Thompson went over to his chief counsel, former Senator Samuel A. Ettelson, and congratulated him on his victory.

Thompson Dodges Question.

Some one asked him what he thought about being saddled with the whole bill by Severinghaus, whose printing business with the city was prodigious, and by Attorney Cleveland, whose $150 a day fees from the city certainly were not to be sneezed at. Was this not ingratitude? a friend asked the former mayor.

"I guess that's a legal question and not a political question, so you better see Senator Ettelson about it," was Big Bill's rejoinder.

But Mr. Ettelson wasn't gloating, and he said Judge Holdom's decision spoke for itself and was enough for him.

In Mr. Ettelson's argument he pointed out that none of the members of a political organization, or of a religious or charitable group could be singled out for payment of debts of the organization.

The dismissal of the suit earlier in the day against every one of the seventeen defendants except Thompson was made upon motion of Attorney Cleveland. His reason, it was said, was based on the law which holds that in this case every one of the defendants had to be found guilty, and he feared the jury might single out some individual and release him.

Among the sixteen dropped were Eugene Pike, Mr. Ettelson, Michael J. Faherty, George Harding, Oscar Wolff, Edwin S. Davis, Albert H. Severinghaus, William H. Reid, Morris Eller, August Miller, and others.

TURK DICTATOR CRUSHES ONLY ENEMY PARTY

Progressives Rise Against Kemal Pasha.

BY RAYMOND FENDRICK.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1925: By The Chicago Tribune.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 4.—A cabinet decree today suppressed the new progressive party, the only opposition party in Turkey.

The government charges the progressive party, which is led by such eminent men as Raouf Bey, Kiazim Kara Bekir Pasha, Ali Fuad Pasha and Refet Pasha, has been using religion as a political instrument, meaning that the party has stirred the people against the government's anti-religious policy.

The real reason is that President Mustapha Kemal Pasha has become the dictator of Turkey under a constitutional veil and all his principal collaborators in the Turkish nationalist movement except one or two, like Ismet Pasha, have turned against him.

Hits Kemal Power.

The new party recently elected Noureddine Pasha as deputy from Brusa, and when the assembly invalidated the election the party elected him again. This was a serious blow to Kemal's prestige.

Thirty of the most influential deputies of the national assembly are members of the new party. They may be expelled. A number of army officers support the new party against Kemal, but any resistance to the government is out of the question.

Fight Over Railway.

A hot dispute is raging between France and Turkey over the use of the Bagdad railway.

When the Kurdish revolt broke out several months ago the Turkish government demanded permission from France to transport troops over the Syrian section of the railway which passes through the French mandate.

As the British government feared Turkey would take advantage of the Kurdish revolt to concentrate a large army on the Mosul frontier, the British brought influence on the French government to limit the number of Turkish troops passing through Syria to 25,000.

Quai d'Orsay has definitely informed Angora that in case of war between Turkey and any other power England and France would be neutral and would be bound by international law to forbid the passage of Turkish troops through Syria.

NAVY DIRIGIBLE TO FLY OVER THE CITY, DROP NOTE

Capt. George W. Steele, U. S. N., commanding the dirigible Los Angeles, will fly over Chicago next Sunday or Monday on a cruise from Lakehurst, N. J., to Minneapolis and return. A message to Mayor Dever will be dropped from the airship. An effort will be made by Capt. Steele to pass over the center of the city.

Officials of the American Legion are making arrangements for the delivery of the communication to the mayor. The message will contain, besides the special greeting to the citizens of the city, an appeal for naval aviation and air transportation. Any person recovering the message from the dirigible will be expected to deliver it to the mayor or to an American Legion member.

Policeman's Fatal Shot by Mistake Found Justifiable

"Justifiable homicide" was a coroner's jury verdict yesterday concerning the death of Wilbur Johnson, 1611 North Campbell avenue, an express messenger, who was shot by Policeman Waldo Baxton, colored, Wednesday. Baxton mistook Johnson for a bandit when Johnson entered an oil filling station at Milwaukee avenue and Clinton street to make his daily money collection.

MAN WHO MADE STAR STUDYING POPULAR DIES

PARIS, June 4.—(AP)—Camille Flammarion, the noted French astronomer, is dead at his observatory at Juvisy-sur-Orge, France.

M. Flammarion made astronomy popular to the layman. He sugar coated astronomical facts, but while he won applause from the layman some of his serious minded contemporaries in the study of astronomy attacked many of his theories as pure fancies.

He was the founder, however, of the famous observatory at Juvisy and of the Astronomical Society of France. His books include "Marvel of the Heavens," "Popular Astronomy," and "Mysterious Psychic Forces."

In October, 1920, when in his seventy-eighth year, M. Flammarion married Mis Gabrielle Renaudot, who collaborated with him in the writing of some of his best known works.

M. Flammarion when a boy nine years old witnessed the sun eclipse, which led to his interest in astronomy.

During the Franco-Prussian war in 1871, hidden in an observatory at Passy, as captain of a special corps he commissioned other astronomers to assist him in studying the Prussian troops banked around Paris.

FOUR NORWEGIAN OFFICIALS HERE FOR BRIEF VISIT

Four officials representing the Norwegian government spent yesterday in Chicago and left last night for Minneapolis. They were the forerunners of 5,000 Chicagoans of Norwegian birth who leave for the Minnesota city today to attend the Norse-American centennial which begins tomorrow.

Pageantry, song, speeches, and exhibits will mark the four day celebration which is the commemoration of the arrival in New York of 53 immigrants, the first organized group of Norwegians to emigrate to America.

The Norwegian leaders in Chicago yesterday were C. J. Hambro, chairman of the committee on foreign relations of the storthing; Lars Oftedal, minister of social work; Frederick Stang, professor at the National University of Norway, and Wilhelm Morgenstierne, vice president of the Normands-Forbundet.

HOLD ALLEGED SWINDLER.

Robert Fairbanks, an alleged swindler, was held to the grand jury yesterday in bonds of $3,500. He had previously been arrested, but forfeited his bond. He was charged with having passed several worthless checks on several loop hotels.

Call Out Police to Guard Pedestrians Against Owls

Des Moines, Ia., June 4.—[AP]—Attacks on residents by a flock of owls resulted in action by Acting Police Chief Chamberlain last night, when, armed with a shotgun, he rode about in the neighborhood affected in an automobile and shot down nearly a score of the birds. Residents for several days had carried umbrellas as a means of protection. In several instances the birds became entangled in the hair of women pedestrians and the faces of several children were scratched.

Just read those five famous Hanes points and you'll see why it pays to wear Hanes. And you can wear and wash Hanes again and again without losing any of the fine fit, roominess or buttons.

Look at the price—One Dollar! You'll never find a suit of athletics anywhere that will touch it for the money. And every thread, stitch and button for every suit is covered by a guarantee that says "money back!"

Hanes Athletics come in round-neck or V-neck, in fine checks and fancy woven patterns. If your dealer doesn't have Hanes, write us. Remember that Hanes are made for boys too, in the same quality. Ages, 2 to 16 years; sizes 20 to 34; price, 75c.

SHEPHERD TRIAL CROWD THINNED BY JURY GRIND

34 Veniremen Escape Hot Court.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK.

Those red cards entitling folks to pass through the doors into Judge Thomas J. Lynch's courtroom to listen to the trial of William Darling Shepherd for the murder of Billy McClintock, his wife's millionaire ward, are a bit of an irony these warm, unproductive days.

For the rush is all the other way.

As, witness: Thirty-four veniremen yesterday clutched at "prejudice against the death penalty," "doubt of circumstantial evidence," and "a fixed opinion" successfully enough to win an excuse from sitting any longer in that hot jury box.

Two Women Reënter Case.

About the time these men were making their way out of the case two women were making their way back into the case.

One, Miss Estelle Gehling, Shepherd's "sunshine nurse" who turned into a flock of avenging clouds when he repudiated her, called up State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe yesterday afternoon to correct a rumor that she had mysteriously disappeared. Miss Gehling is ready and willing, she said, to testify for the state and will confer with Assistant State's Attorney John Sbarbaro this afternoon.

The other woman, Mrs. William Grandsen of Tulsa, Okla., who says she can testify to relations between the Shepherds and McClintocks, is too ill to make the journey to the Chicago courtroom. But in a telegram received yesterday by Mr. Crowe, her husband offered the state every possible assistance, and said Mrs. Grandsen would be glad to make depositions regarding what she knows of the case.

Little Activity in Court.

For the rest there wasn't much activity up in the courtroom.

Mr. Shepherd was there, of course. He had to be.

Mrs. Shepherd was there, too. She wanted to be.

And Attorney William Scott Stewart, for Shepherd, and First State's Attorney George E. Gorman, in charge of the prosecution, and Joe Savage, Attorney Robert H. Stoll, Shepherd's law partner, dropped in during the day.

Periodically, ever since the first four jurors were sworn in, another panel of four has "threatened." It happened yesterday when Mr. Gorman tendered these men:

C. Boltz, 5457 West Madison street.

Edward Barrett, 506 West 115th street.

David Korp, 684 Irving Park boulevard.

Carl N. Bjelland, 5467 Harper avenue.

Attorney Stewart said, "All right, we accept 'em. Swear them in."

SOVIET LEGATION PRINT SHOP TO FOIL THE CENSOR

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TEHERAN, Persia, June 4.—A foreign legation owning a printing plant is the novelty originated by the bolsheviks. The plant is ostensibly for the publication of Rosta, the bolsheviks' wireless news service, and for meeting the needs of various Russian trades department branches in Persia, but it is feared it will be utilized for printing pamphlets of questionable character in the Persian language, when the Persian censor will not have a chance to utilize his powers in the forbidden ground.

HARVEY NEWMAN, WHO KILLED SELF, CALLED INSANE

Harvey Newman, proprietor of the Chicago agency of the Lyfeth Thread company of Worcester, Mass, who leaped to his death from a second floor window in the Grant hospital early yesterday, committed suicide while temporarily insane, a coroner's jury decided.

Dr. A. Vanderkloot, his physician and personal friend, told Deputy Coroner Shumm that Mr. Newman had been in ill health and was also worried about his financial affairs.

Mr. Newman was 52 years old and lived at 7424 Bennett avenue. He was a brother of Emanuel Newman, internationally known lecturer.

FIND WOMAN SUICIDE DERANGED.

A coroner's jury yesterday decided that Mrs. Anna Beauchamp, accused of having been an accomplice of Henry J. Fernekes, midget bandit, who killed herself rather than stand trial on a charge of conspiracy, committed suicide while temporarily deranged.

JURY TAMPERING QUIZ EXPECTED IN STAMP TRIAL

Rumors of jury tampering in the $1,000,000 counterfeit war savings stamps case were prevalent at the federal building last last night as the jury, which has been out nearly three days, failed to reach an agreement.

Federal Judge Adam C. Cliffe, before whom the case was tried, adjourned court until 10 o'clock this morning. He ordered the jury to be kept all night at its deliberations unless a verdict is reached.

Should the jury fail to return a verdict by this morning, it probably will be dismissed by Judge Cliffe. Members of the jury, it was reported, may then be subjected to questioning by the federal authorities with a view to ascertaining whether any tampering has been done.

According to Acting United States Marshal John Doyle, the time record for juries will have been broken here if no agreement is reached today.

SUIT FOR $25,000 IS SEQUEL TO JEWEL ROBBERY

Federal Employe Denies Husband's Charge.

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—To the already extraordinary tale of the robbery of Mrs. C. P. Hugo Schoellkopf, wife of a Buffalo capitalist, from whom she is separated, was added today an unusual chapter.

Announcement was made here that Mr. Schoellkopf has brought suit for $25,000 against F. J. H. Kracke, appraiser of the port of New York and a Republican leader of Brooklyn, and against Clarence E. Dill, a man of unknown occupation with desk space in an office at 39 Broadway.

Outgrowth of Robbery.

The suit is an outgrowth of the robbery in which Mrs. Schoellkopf early New Year's day, 1923, after a late party in the apartment of her paid companion, "Barry" Carman, Broadway habitué, was stripped of $285,000 in jewels.

According to the affidavit by Mr. Schoellkopf, filed with his suit in Buffalo, he was approached a few days after the robbery by Mr. Dill and Mr. Kracke. He charges they told him that Carman, then under arrest, had "confessed" and had implicated Mrs. Schoellkopf herself in the disappearance of the jewels, which were heavily insured.

Mr. Schoellkopf asserts he paid them $25,000 with the understanding they would protect Mrs. Schoellkopf from unfavorable publicity, by discovering the real robbers, and proving Carman's "confession" untrue.

Mr. Schoellkopf asserts Carman made no such confession and that Mrs. Schoellkopf never was implicated in any way by him or any one else in the robbery. His suit is to recover the $25,000 he says he paid.

Kracke Denies Charge.

Mr. Kracke contented himself with a brief statement. "The whole matter is too ridiculous and preposterous to talk about," he said.

His lawyers, however, asserted that Mr. Kracke was approached by Mr. Dill through a Brooklyn banker to aid Mr. Dill in trying "to save Mrs. Schoellkopf from some specially harmful publicity in connection with the jewel robbery."

DISABLED VETS HAVE 3 DAYS TO GET INSURANCE

Only three days remain in which ex-service men who have become disabled as a result of service in the war may apply for reinstatement in the war risk insurance plan.

June 7 is the last day for applications. The Reed-Johnson law, enacted June 7, 1924, provided that any veteran whose insurance had lapsed should have the privilege of reviving it within one year after the passage of the act.

It was pointed out by the United States Veterans' bureau, which issued the warning, that men who had been carrying policies which were allowed to lapse may reinstate them for a smaller amount.

No More Castor Oil for the Children

Give Them Haley's Magnesia-Oil

Mothers, there's an easy way now to correct that sour stomach, and to relieve the effect of something that has "disagreed" with the youngsters. Simply give them a teaspoonful or more of Haley's Magnesia-Oil.

It has no oily taste—can be mixed with milk and given children without their knowledge—and it's harmless. A big dose for emergencies is perfectly safe and promptly effective. There is no griping or other unpleasant effect. Haley's Magnesia-Oil is simply milk of magnesia and mineral oil combined.

The oil carries the magnesia straight to the lower bowel, where most "stomach trouble" originates. The milk of magnesia neutralizes the acids and the mineral oil lubricates and aids nature quickly to remove the cause of the trouble. Both work together.

If your druggist can't supply Haley's Magnesia-Oil we will mail a bottle postpaid on receipt of price. Large family size. $1. The Haley M-O Company, Indianapolis, Ind.

CRIMINAL COURTS SPEED UP CASES; JAIL ROLL FALLS

419 Indictments Cleared Up in May.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

The population of the Cook county jail last night was 829. One month ago it was 1,037. The decrease is one measure of the activities in the Criminal court during May, when 194 persons were sentenced to penal institutions.

Evildoers were sent to the penitentiary or reformatory at the rate of about five each court day. Three a day were sent to the county jail or house of correction, three a day were put on probation, and three a day were found not guilty.

Figures available yesterday showed 419 indictments disposed of in May, as against 289 in January. The courts have not only been speeding up, but the proportion of sentences to the penitentiary appears to have been increasing during recent weeks.

Hopkins Sentences 53.

Chief Justice Hopkins led in the number of sentences. Working in his new gun court, he sentenced 53 persons, of whom 15 went to Joliet and 19 to the reformatory. Judge David came second with a total of 42 sentences, of which 14 were to the penitentiary. Then came Judge Lindsay with 34 sentences, thirteen of which were penitentiary, and Judge McGoorty with a total of 21 sentences. Judge Williams rolled up fifteen sentences, all of them but one to the penitentiary.

These five judges sentenced 165 persons and of these 62 went to the penitentiary and 43 to the reformatory.

David Leads in Speed.

It is hardly fair to rate the industry and capacity of a judge upon the report alone, for a court may be filled up with bond cases which occupy much time but do not make a showing, and also a judge may be tied up in an important case, as is Judge Lynch, which may consume many weeks in the trial.

But in disposing of cases, Judge David, who is one of the fastest on the bench, led the field with a total of 87 cases. Judge Hopkins came next with 66; Judge Lindsay, 64, and Judge McGoorty with 62. Judge Gemmill came next with 37, and Judge Williams with 34. These six judges—one-half the Criminal bench—disposed of 350 of the 419 indictments disposed of during the month.

KILLED SWITCHING FREIGHT CARS.

Patrick Keegan, 2804 South Union avenue, an employé of the National Fireproof Bricking company, Shields avenue and West 26th street, was fatally injured yesterday when he was run over by a Chicago and Northwestern railway train while switching freight cars.

CITY PROTESTS BILL TO SPLIT VEHICLE TAXES

Legislative interference in Chicago's domestic affairs, which if successful, will deprive the city of at least $1,000,000 annually and seriously cripple street repairs, is found in the bill introduced in the lower house at Springfield by Representative Edward J. Hughes of the 21st district on the west side.

The Hughes bill, it was pointed out yesterday, would compel the city to share its vehicle tax collections with the west and south park boards. The vehicle taxes, which last year amounted to approximately $3,400,000, are used exclusively in the maintenance of paved strets.

Assistant Corporation Counsel Leon Hornstein was directed by Corporation Counsel F. X. Busch to enter the city's protest against the bill during a committee hearing on the measure in Springfield this morning.

Criminal Court Judges Send 194 Persons to Prison in May

One hundred and ninety-four persons were sent to penal institutions by Criminal court judges during the month of May, according to the report made public yesterday by John H. Passmore, clerk of the court. Chief Justice Jacob Hopkins, presiding in the new gun court, sentenced fifty-three persons to prison. Most of them were robbers.

Girl Reports $1,700 Gem Theft in Hotel Room

Diamond rings valued at $1,700 were stolen from the room of Miss Agnes Burke, 20 years old, a guest of the Walton Manor hotel, 60 East Walton place, she reported to the Chicago avenue police yesterday. The rings were taken during the night while she was asleep, she said. Police began searching for O. E. Waters, who registered Wednesday and left early yesterday morning.

BRYAN PREPARES EVOLUTION CASE WITH LEGAL AIDS

Nashville, Tenn., June 4.—Neither the personal beliefs of John Thomas Scopes, nor those of any other person as to evolution or the divine origin of man, have a bearing on the test case to be tried at Dayton, Tenn., on July 10, according to William Jennings Bryan, who visited Nashville today to consult with Dayton attorneys interested in the case.

There is no abridgement of constitutional rights in the case against the Dayton school teacher, he indicated, and it is purely a question of determining the right of a state to fix limitations as to what may be taught in its schools.

The Commoner, who arrived here from St. Louis, was in buoyant spirits and ready for the battle of wits with the eminent lawyers who are to defend Scopes. He was met by a group of local admirers and Attorneys W. C. Haggard, S. K. Hicks, and P. E. Hicks of Dayton, retained in the prosecution of the Scopes case.

Can House 5,000 Visitors.

Dayton, Tenn., June 4.—[Special.]—The progressive Dayton club has chosen a committee, consisting of W. N. Morgan, chairman; S. C. Patton, C. E. Toliver, and Bert Wilber, to make arrangements for taking care of visitors during the Scopes trial. After canvassing the town the committee announced that homes here can accommodate 1,500 guests, and that with the aid of summer resorts and neighboring towns, 5,000 persons can easily be housed, with unlimited space for camping and parking cars.

STATE BANKERS SEE COMPLETE RETURN OF PROSPERITY BY FALL

Galesburg, Ill., June 4.—Business in this state and the nation is picking up with prospects of a complete return of prosperity, was the opinion expressed by speakers today at the annual meeting of group two, Illinois Bankers' association, being held here. One hundred and fifty bankers from ten counties are in attendance.

"The big thing that bankers of Illinois are trying to do now is to aid in law enforcement," Wayne Hummer of La Salle, president of the association, declared. By the first of the year, he said, the home guard of 100,000 members will be organized, and he was of the opinion that their vigilance would do much to cut down bank robberies in the state.

Referring to the business outlook, Mr. Hummer said that by fall there will be a job for every man who wants one. Money is plentiful for sound investments, he said, and there are other indications of returning prosperity.

5,480 YOUTHS REGISTER FOR MILITARY CAMPS

Five thousand four hundred and eighty boys from Illinois, Wisconsin, and Michigan have applied to Gen. Hale, commander of the 6th corps area of the army, to attend citizens' military training camps this summer. There is room in the camps, Camp Custer, Mich., and Jefferson Barracks, Mo., for only 120 more boys. Of these vacancies 80 may apply from Chicago.

This is the first year that the quota has been so nearly filled. It is expected that there will be several hundred too many applications by the time the camps open on July 23.

Same All Over Country.

And the huge registration is the same all over the United States. More than 38,000 boys have asked to enter the C. M. T. C. association's 39 camps.

The free four weeks' vacation, with military training, has an irresistible lure to most youths of college and high school age, many of whom are the sons of war veterans, according to the association.

"The boys are swamping us with applications," said a camp staff officer yesterday, "but we'll train as many as we can with the money we have, and I guess that's about all any one can do."

Officers Get Camps Ready.

Camp Custer will be commanded by Brig. Gen. Benjamin A. Pore. The commandant of Jefferson Barracks will be Col. David L. Stone. Regular army men are already encamped at both places, preparing to aid in the instruction and care of the boy students during the summer.

MINES BUREAU GIVEN OVER TO HOOVER RULE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.]—The bureau of mines was transferred by executive order of President Coolidge today from the interior department to the commerce department and Secretary of Commerce Hoover announced that he would immediately take action to make the bureau's service to the mining industry more effective. The mineral statistics section of the geological survey also was transferred to the secretary's jurisdiction.

Mr. Hoover announced his intention to appoint an advisory committee representing mining engineers and operators to formulate a policy for the bureau. The American Institute of Mining Engineers, the American Mining congress, and the National Coal association will be requested to suggest who shall comprise the committee.

Secretary Hoover said that he could not anticipate whether the recommendations of the committee would entail general reorganization of the bureau. H. Foster Bain, the director, has resigned to become affiliated with the Institute of Mining Engineers. Mr. Bain has been offered an attractive position and if it were not for that Secretary Hoover said he would be desirous of retaining him as director of the bureau. No consideration has been given to selection of a successor to Dr. Bain, it was said.

Transfer of the mineral statistics section to the department of commerce will eliminate overlapping with the work of the census bureau, but whether the mineral section will be made a part of the census bureau has not been decided.

Auto Battery Stations May Close on Sunday

Storage battery stations in Chicago will probably be closed on Sunday hereafter. Members of the Automobile Associated Trades of Illinois will meet tonight in the Fort Dearborn hotel to vote upon the question of closing the stations. Sentiment is in favor of the move, it was said.

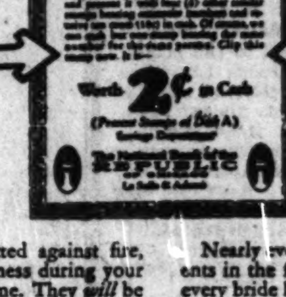
"For Better or for Worse"

Probably the most impressive moment of life comes during the marriage ceremony when a man and woman give their vows to accept and cherish each other "For better or for worse."

This month in Chicago many such vows will be given. Then will come the task of making married life something more than a brief honeymoon. Cupid is a charming little fellow, but a mighty poor banker. And love, at its best, is seriously threatened if financial worries are allowed to camp on the hearthstone.

At the "Republic," young married couples will find a sympathetic understanding of their financial problems—a banking service that can be depended upon to serve them throughout the years. This advertisement is therefore dedicated to the June bride and bridegroom—all are invited to read it.



5 REPUBLIC REFUND STAMP 5

Worth 2¢ in Cash

CLIP Your Wedding Gifts—

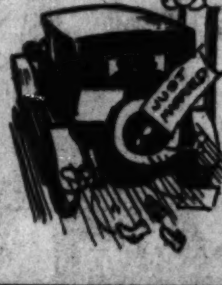
should be protected against fire, theft and carelessness during your absence from home. They will be adequately protected if placed in the strong vaults of The National Republic Safe Deposit Company. In these vaults you can secure an ordinary sized box at the low cost of 1c a Day, 7c a week or 30c a month. For periods of a year or more the rental is even less. Silverware or bulky articles are received in our storage vault. Charges are exceedingly low.

Nearly every bride receives presents in the form of cash. But, not every bride has had the experience necessary to aid her to put that money to work—safely. There are many ways, however, in which this can be done. Small amounts can be employed at 3% Compound Interest in a Savings Account—larger amounts can be invested in an interest bearing Certificate of Deposit or in a good bond. All are safe investments and the Officers of the "Republic" will be glad to cooperate.

Before You Leave On Your Wedding Trip—

one of the most important details of preparation will concern the safety and availability of your Travel Funds.

The experienced traveler converts his cash into Travelers Checks. Right then and there he banishes the risk of loss or robbery, and the necessity of identification in connection with the cashing of personal checks or bank drafts. "Republic" Travelers Checks are self-identifying; they are safe, because no one can cash them until you have signed them the second time. They are convenient, for they are issued in $10, $20, $50 and $100 denominations. "Republic" Travelers Checks are well known and can be cashed at hotels, banks, etc. For more extended tours or foreign travel we especially recommend "Republic" Travelers Letters of Credit. Before you leave, just decide the amount you want to take, then visit our Foreign Division and convert your money into "Republic" Travel Funds. It's a simple transaction—just as simple as changing a $10 bill.



How the Bride and Groom Can Use a Checking-Savings Account to Advantage

OF course you know what your income will be—and you have an idea what your monthly expenses will average and you know that if you spend a little less than you earn, there's bound to be something left over for a Savings Fund. A "Republic" Checking-Savings Account takes all these matters into consideration—in one simplified bank account. Here's the way it works out. Let us suppose that your income is $150 a month. And suppose you figure that you will need but $125 to meet your current monthly expenses. All right, if you want to pay all bills by check, when you open your Checking-Savings Account you fix the maximum balance in your Checking Fund at $125. (You may designate any other amount you choose.)

All deposits are credited in the Checking Fund against which you draw checks. But, on the 10th of each month your surplus, (or the amount in excess of the $125 you have designated,) is automatically transferred by the bank to your Savings Fund where it draws 3% Interest from the first of the month. In this way you are assured of a steadily growing Savings Fund—and at the same time you have all the money you need to pay your bills by check set aside in your Checking Fund.

You enjoy every advantage of a Checking Account in a large "loop" bank—you retain every benefit of a Savings Account—your Checking Fund becomes the most practical sort of an expense budget and your saving becomes automatic.

A more practical, convenient plan for placing your personal and household finances upon a practical, "working" basis would be hard to conceive, and we cordially invite you to come to the "Republic"—and open your Checking-Savings Account today.

GERMANS ASSAIL ALLIED DEMAND FOR DISARMING

Hit Cologne Evacuation Conditions.

BY JOHN CLAYTON.

[Copyright: 1925: By The Chicago Tribune.]

BERLIN, June 4.—The long awaited disarmament note of the allies was handed to Chancellor Luther this morning on behalf of Great Britain, France, Belgium, Italy, and Japan. Lord D'Abernon, the British ambassador, as spokesman for the allied envoys, told Dr. Luther that he was handing over a document which contained "conditions for the evacuation of the Cologne zone."

The official text will be made public Saturday. The general provisions are already known here, where they have been given a cold reception by the right wing press.

Der Tag, the organ of the nationalists, points out that certain of the stipulations are not military, but political, and that before the ministers will be able to decide they must consult the reichstag ministers. Der Tag strongly criticizes the demands for the dissolution of the general staff and removing the police from barracks.

"Police Demands Difficult."

Die Zeit, Foreign Minister Stresemann's paper, after mentioning "the especially difficult demands" regarding the police, says:

"The government in its answer will again point out that neither in point of justice nor according to treaty has the evacuation of the Cologne zone anything to do with disarmament. It might also be assumed that, based on the earlier exchange of notes, the military control might be again conceded on condition that the ensuing inspection be final."

This statement evidently comes from Dr. Stresemann, and it may be considered as a definite outline and in the general tone of the German reply.

President von Hindenburg will preside over the first important cabinet session tomorrow, when the allied note comes up for official consideration.

See Concessions Demand.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 4.—The British anxiously are awaiting the result of the presentation of the allied disarmament note to Germany today. The contents of the note will not be made public before tomorrow evening, but it is now an open secret that the British only agreed to the insertion of demands under French pressure. The general opinion here seems to be that the Germans will eventually accept, but will try to obtain concessions.

French Hope for Accord.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, June 4.—The French security note to London will be delivered tomorrow. It does not refer to the eastern German frontiers, but expresses satisfaction that England is ready to assume substantial obligations to protect France's eastern frontier. Austen Chamberlain will arrive in Paris Saturday but will not see Aristide Briand as the latter will already be enroute to Geneva. Quai d'Orsay is optimistic, hoping the two foreign ministers will find a basis for agreement in Geneva.

U. S. AGREES TO VISAS FOR ARMS EXPORTATIONS

GENEVA, June 4.—(AP)—The conciliatory attitude of the American delegation today prevented any growth of the ill feeling which was manifested yesterday when the arms traffic conference reversed its previous decision that foreign visas would be required on the exportation of certain types of rifles and revolvers. Hugh S. Gibson, the American minister to Switzerland, said that while he opposed a visa system the Americans did not desire to preclude further discussion. He submitted an amendment obligating exporting countries to insist upon exporters obtaining a foreign visa if the importing country gave notification that its laws required sanction for the entry of the arms in question.

FASCISTS FACE FIERCE BATTLE IN PARLIAMENT

BY GEORGE SELDES.

[Copyright: 1925: By The Chicago Tribune.]

ROME, June 4.—The Italian crisis which was aroused just a year ago when 140 members of parliament went on strike in protest against the murder of Deputy Matteotti, will reach its climax on June 10, the first anniversary of the assassination of Sig. Matteotti. The striking parliamentarians, known as the Aventenists, have called a memorial service in the parliament building. Secretary General Farinacci of the Fascist party, Premier Mussolini's right hand man, has issued an order for all Fascist deputies to intervene.

All Italy is excited. A clash is expected and many are asking whether parliament will be the scene of bloodshed.

Prepare for Battle.

Today both sides are preparing for battle. Sig. Farinacci's challenge has been accepted by the opposition. Members of parliament are immune from arrest. Arms are not allowed in the house and even the officers must check their swords at the door. Will 300 Fascists be able to throw 140 anti-Fascists out of parliament. And how? These are the questions everyone is asking, while the fear that it will be a violent day is increasing. Unless their heads cool between now and next Wednesday, parliament will witness an unparalleled fight.

Demands Intervention.

Sig. Farinacci's statement which caused the uproar said:

"The opposition deputies expect to meet in this building. I want them to know that Fascism is in state of exasperation, which has reached the limit after the latest murders. If the opposition meets the Fascist deputies will be summoned to intervene. Fascism is not inclined to permti a repetition of the obscene carnival of last year.

10,000 TO ATTEND CONVENTION OF MUSIC TRADES

Ten thousand manufacturers and merchants of musical instruments will gather at the Drake hotel next week to celebrate the silver jubilee convention of the music trades.

An exhibition of musical instruments worth $1,000,000 will open Monday. Mayor Dever will open the convention with a welcome to the music men. Tuesday, conditions in the music industry will be discussed, with an address by W. W. Smith, Toledo, O., president of the Music Merchants' association, and Prof. Osbourne McConathy, director of the department of community music at Northwestern university.

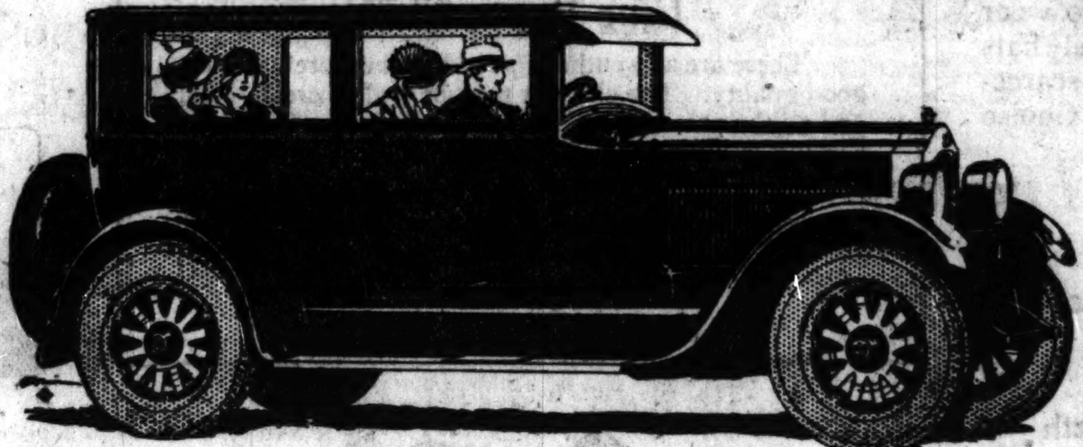
Radio problems of the retail merchant will be revealed Wednesday by Howard A. Lewis of New York. The convention will close Thursday midnight when the annual frolic of the Piano Club of Chicago is given.

THEATER FIRE ALARM FALSE.

Several companies of firemen rushed to the Woods theater, 54 West Randolph street, yesterday afternoon when an alarm of fire was automatically sounded as a sprinkler was accidentally put into operation by a defective valve.

STUDEBAKER

SPECIAL SIX COACH



Much More Room and Much Finer Quality

THE New Studebaker Special Six Coach is a coach in name only.

Vastly different from all other coaches—in its finer materials and craftsmanship, in its greater roominess. It is a "one profit" car built from the ground up by Studebaker.

No other coach within fifteen hundred dollars of its price offers equal room. Make the comparison. It seats 5 passengers in real comfort. And positively no need for occupant of folding seat to get out when others enter or leave.

Doors are unusually broad, seats full-width. Upholstery is genuine mohair-and-wool—not the usual cotton mixture. In appearance and comfort, this Special Six Coach suggests a fine 5-passenger coupe. The long, low body is lacquer-finished in Wyandotte Green with satin-back top. Quality is in every detail—no sacrifice for the sake of price.

And the chassis is the famous Studebaker Special Six—with 65 H. P. engine of remarkable pick-up, smoothness and flexibility.

Come and see this new and different coach. You'll be surprised—and delighted at the outstanding value offered.

WHITE WATER

By ROBERT E. PINKERTON

Reg. U. S. Patent Office.

SYNOPSIS.

Larry Vail, a handsome young woodsman, is commissioned by Howard Franklin to build a hunting lodge on Franklin's forest preserve. With the help of two friends, Hughie Knowles and Sid Evans, Larry works all through the winter. In the spring Franklin comes up to inspect the cabins and finds them satisfactory. He goes to California on business, but Mrs. Franklin, her maid Jane, and Mr. Franklin's niece, Marcia Kerr, come to spend the summer at the camp. Mrs. Franklin is interested in taking pictures of the deer and asks Larry to accompany her as guide on her photographic expeditions. On a day when Mrs. Franklin is not feeling well Larry and Marcia go fishing. When they return Relda Franklin is unable to control her anger against Marcia for taking Larry. Two days later she resumes her photographic expeditions with Larry as her guide. On their way back to camp a storm overtakes them and they go for shelter to a little cabin in the woods. Relda is terrified and clings to Larry in fear. He puts his arms about her to soothe her and she loses her head. She tells Larry she loves him, and begs him to go away with her. Larry repulses her. On their return to camp they find Howard Franklin.

Marcia gains her uncle's consent to return with him to the States to prepare herself for a job. Larry offers his resignation to Franklin. The latter confides to Larry that he has taken over the Bagnall timber mill, near Sabawi, and offers him the job of running it. Larry accepts the position and Franklin returns to California. Sid Evans comes to the mill to work for Larry and the latter learns from old Hughie Knowles that Sid makes occasional visits to the Franklin camp to see Relda Franklin.

Jefferson Shand, one of a small group of men who own the hunting property jointly with Howard Franklin, comes to camp. With Relda's help Shand proposes to get possession of Franklin's mill. Larry sends to headquarters for a reliable office manager and Marcia appears in answer to his request. Against his will he agrees to let her work in the mill office. Larry cuts all the available timber in record time. He is given power of attorney by Franklin and told to dispose of the lumber. He receives a fair offer for the lot and accepts it for immediate delivery. The contract carries a time penalty clause. When ready to ship the lumber Larry finds that he cannot get enough cars in time to fulfill his contract, so is forced to take a loss on the shipment. Marcia and Larry feel so badly about the loss that Larry decides they need a holiday and invites Marcia to shoot partridge with him. During the day Larry realizes he loves Marcia, but does not speak to her about it. A few days later Larry overhears Rene Lacrodaire, a French-Canadian workman, making slighting remarks about Marcia and using profane language in her presence. Larry forces Rene to apologize to Marcia and fires him from the mill.

INSTALLMENT XLI.
LOVE'S REVELATION.

Larry strode into the office, where he signed the check Sid had made out, and then stood in the door until, a few minutes later, Rene came out of the bunk house and started up the track for Sabawi.

"Never knew you had that in you!" Sid exclaimed in an involuntary outburst of admiration. "A man wants a gun when he tackles you."

"A gun wouldn't do Rene any good," Larry answered. "He tried that once. Hasn't got nerve enough to pick a grayback off his shirt. See a good teamster in Sabawi?"

"Gosh!" Larry exclaimed, "it would be great if a fellow never had anything to do but this."

"Guess I can find one. Say! What you going to put me at this winter?"

Larry went on into the office. He had spoken absently, for he was experiencing a new and entrancing emotion. Whatever thoughts had come to him the previous Sunday had been crystallized by Rene's action outside Marcia's window, and he knew he would have faced joyfully a thousand French Canadians to protect her. But Sid was left with the growing conviction that Relda Franklin's charges were true.

"To hell with him!" Sid exclaimed as he started up the track toward town. "He's getting ready to stick me in that lumber camp for the winter."

Marcia's expression was serious when Larry entered.

"I was prepared for that sort of thing when I came here," she began at once. "It was inevitable ——"

"That wasn't," Larry interrupted. "I heard him."

"But see what you have done. You humiliated him so. You've made his hatred a terrible thing. Some day he will——"

"Rene won't do anything!" he exclaimed with an exultant laugh. "That's the third time he's backed down and he always will. But Rene or anybody else, they can't get away with that sort of thing around here."

It was not a boast. It was a challenge of his right to protect her, and it was uttered with an intensity that not only told her of the emotion which had impelled his rage but that thrilled her with its real significance. She drew back in her chair, breathless, suddenly afraid to pursue the subject and yet eager to catch against the flash in his eyes that had accompanied his statement. After a moment she turned to a ledger and asked Larry to explain an entry. In a moment they were deep in the intricacies of Bagnall's bookkeeping.

For the remainder of the week they were busy gathering all the data possible for the defense they planned and they made such progress that when Sunday came Marcia agreed to another hunting trip. Again they wandered all forenoon in the glorious autumn woods. Partridge were plentiful and Marcia's marksmanship improved, but it was after they had cooked and eaten their lunch and were seated on a large flat rock beside a small stream that the real joy of the day began.

They hunted until they were comfortably tired. The midday sun was delightfully warm. Smoke from Larry's pipe floated off lazily. There was a faint murmur from the water. Occasionally a chipmunk rustled the new fallen leaves, but these were sounds that only accentuated the soft, enveloping hush.

"Gosh!" Larry exclaimed at last. "It would be great if a fellow never had anything to do but this."

"But it wouldn't!" she protested so passionately he started in surprise. "Life would be a dreary thing if it were always so peaceful."

"Wah! All hankering for a fight, aren't you?"

"My life has been much like this afternoon," she continued. "Uncle Howard gave me everything. I never earned the right to exist. I told you—when we caught those fish under the falls—it is only since I came here that I feel I have really begun to live."

"It was white water you wanted."

"Just what do you mean by white water?"

"Anybody can ride a log in a gentle current. It's no trick to stay on and there's never a jam. You don't do anything but watch the logs go by, giving one a lazy poke if it catches on the bank. A jackpine eater could do that."

"What is a jackpine eater?" Marcia laughed. "Am I one?"

"Those homesteaders down in Wisconsin and Minnesota. They work in camps winters some. Don't know a peavy from a wanigan."

"And are they afraid of white water?"

"If they were to get into it they couldn't even pray. That's why they're jackpine eaters, and always will be."

"Then white water means danger and excitement and meeting opposition and ——"

"And getting the drive through regardless."

"But Larry! You didn't feel that way. It was only the danger and excitement you were looking for. You never waited to ——"

"See the drive into the booms," he laughed. "That's because I didn't know the fun of looking beyond the next bend in the river. There never was any next week for me because ——"

He broke off in sudden embarrassment, for he had not realized the trend of the conversation.

"And now you are different, Larry. You see, we have both been drifters, so I understand."

She turned to him with sudden animation. Larry stopped breathing, believed his heart had stopped beating. Never had he seen her so adorable. It was always in such moments of excitement that she became dazzlingly beautiful to him, but now for the first time he wanted to take her in his arms, to kiss her flushed cheeks, to run his hands through her tumbling brown hair, to have those gray eyes so close he could look down deep to all that lay behind them.

He believed some of the agony of his longing must show in his face, but she rushed on impetuously.

"That's why I can talk to you about it. We're both doing something now. We have an excuse for living. And life's so different. It's just as joyous, only there is something real behind it. And I needed it so badly. Sometimes I've wanted to talk about the work just to hear you say 'we,' to include me. I was awfully blue and afraid when I came, and now ——"

"You think," he began huskily, "you'll never be sorry you came, that you ——"

"Never! That's what I'm trying to tell you—what it's done for me—what it's meant."

Larry in his eagerness, Marcia in the fervor of her protestation, had leaned toward each other and in that moment the flash came, as it always does, revealing and unmistakable, swift and astounding. Each was breathless in the magic of it.

To them it was a thing of infinite splendor, spontaneous, of that moment alone. They knew nothing of its inception, its growth, of its previous expression in countless ways. They only felt that life's witchery had suddenly withdrawn a curtain.

Larry, dazzled and humble, was the first to look away. Quick on the heels of it had come, not the old dread of its impossibility, but the ardent determination to prove himself. He could not shake off the sense of unworthiness but he did find confidence of ultimate achievement. He knew now he could do the thing he wished and as if in expression of that confidence he sprang to his feet.

Marcia, too, arose, but slowly. Women recognize such situations more clearly, understand them more quickly, and there is always an instinctive drawing back. It was not that Marcia's usual courage or genuineness failed her at last. In one of those two supreme moments of feminine existence she was only wholly feminine.

And the Snow Scenes Look Grand on a Hot Day.

Directed by Herman Raymaker.
Presented at Neighborhood Theaters.

THE CAST.

The Fighting Dog	Rin-Tin-Tin
Joan Hardy	June Marlowe
Terry Moulton	David Butler
Jules Renault	Mitchell Lewis
"Silent" Hardy	Charles Sellon
Wah Wah	Princess Lea

By Mae Tinée.

Good Morning!

There was something I didn't quite understand at the beginning of this picture. It was a subtitle that said something about featuring "the wonder dog, Rex." How come, when Rin-Tin-Tin was supposed to be the star! Called up the producing company and found out that the live dog used in the prologue is the Rex referred to. Here's passing the info on to you.

If you like dogs you'll like this film. No question about it. The star throws himself into his part with zest and intelligence. He plays his heavy dramatic scenes with masterly acumen. His comedy has a light and pleasing touch. His pathos is heart rending. And then he IS such a beautiful sight to see!

He has a story that is thin enough in some places to poke holes through if one wants to be so mean, but on the whole it's quite an interesting little yarn—though mostly interesting because of the manner in which the star makes it so.

The hero is a wolf dog adopted when an orphaned pup by "Silent" Hardy, an Alaskan prospector, and his daughter. The dog is a trusted member of the family until, one terrible night, the master is killed. As Rinty was supposedly alone with him when the tragedy happened, and as he has blood on his jaws when it is discovered, it is thought that the wolf strain had cropped out and he had slain the man he loved. As he is about to be shot by the lover of the daughter, he escapes and, feeling the hand of man against him, goes back to the wilds that bred his mother and takes unto himself a wolf wife.

It becomes his lot to save the daughter and her lover from the murderer of the father and to vindicate his own honor. The picture has a vurr' happy ending.

As to photography, direction, etc., "Tracked in the Snow Country" passes muster. The human supporting cast does well. And O, BOY, does that snow look good on a hot day!

See you tomorrow!

Shriners Increase Their Income to $7,000,000 a Year

Los Angeles, June 4.—[Special.]—As a result of action in closing sessions of the fifty-first annual convention of the Shriners here today the treasuries of headquarters and local temples are assured an income exceeding $7,000,000 in the year 1925-26.

The minimum of annual dues paid by each of 600,000 shriners was raised from $5 to $10. In addition, every noble of the order pays $2 a year for a hospital fund. The latter fund is to construct, endow and operate hospitals in eleven cities where crippled children of every race, creed and color are cared for.

Other action before the convention of the "ancient Arabic Order" dissolved to reassemble in Philadelphia in June, 1926, included setting aside of $150,000 for the George Washington memorial. This will be paid in five yearly installments.

The order will operate a national magazine in future. A charter was given Tadmor chapter of Akron, O., which has operated under a dispensation since last year.

The new imperial potentate, James C. Burger of Denver, and his line of subordinate officers, were installed by past imperial potentates and the convention officially wound up in a huge parade early this evening.

The six special trains of Medinah temple, a delegation of 1,400 Chicagoans, departed for San Francisco tonight. The Chicago shriners will visit Portland, Seattle, Vancouver, Lake Louise and Banff on the way home.

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Mrs. Oscar Rice, 7531 Champlain avenue, Chicago, was awarded $5.

The Question.

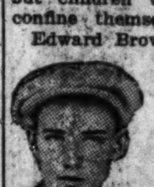
What do you think of Judge Jonas' proposal to turn over the west side parks to the children during the summer vacation period?

Where Asked.

Jackson boulevard at Wabash avenue.

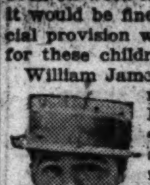
The Answers.

Mrs. Lillian Jacobsen, 4239 West End avenue—housewife—That would be a good plan, especially for children in the congested sections. Parents usually try to have their children play in the back yards, but children will not confine themselves to those limits.



Edward Brown, 1642 North Austin avenue, high school student—I think it is a good suggestion, but it has its bad as well as good points. A lot of kids together like that might go wild and wreck the parks. On the other hand, it would tend to keep children off the streets.

Mrs. Florence Williams, 4160 Drexel boulevard, housewife—That certainly sounds practical. Many parents cannot afford to take their children to the country for any kind of vacation, not even on week-ends, and it would be fine if special provision were made in the parks for these children.



William James, 3333 Evergreen avenue, clerk—That's O. K. It would keep children off the streets. The suggestion to close the roadways is good also. All parks ought to take up this plan, give it a trial, find out its weak and strong points, so that within a few years it would be a perfect system.

Miss Roseline Klein, 4917 North Avers avenue, stenographer—A splendid idea! And better still if all the parks were to try the same scheme. Our public parks could not be used for a better purpose. The youngsters would be far better off romping around on the grass instead of playing on the streets.

THEATER

Information on the stage from New-York includes a statement that heat is killing attendance on most everything save the Players' revival of "Trelawny of the Wells," with a cast wherein somebodies are falling the one over another, so thick are they. . . . "Odd Man Out," "Missmates," and "Man or Devil?"—this being the play by Jerome K. Jerome wherein Lionel Barrymore is acting,—are to be tossed into one of the rivers after tomorrow night.

And the heat isn't doing any good to the plays in Chicago. . . . Mrs. Insull's sale has virtually used up everything for nights in the remainder of the engagement, so that latecomers will have to take the matinées. Whenever they go, they will see a good performance of "The School for Scandal." . . . Managers quite explicably go into a fluster when a spell of heat empties the house for three or four nights running: unless there be a healthy advance-sale to carry through the hot nights, the profits of the cool weather are soon eaten up; for the pay of actors and stage-hands and others goes right on, and fares back to New-York look cheap as compared with a deficit for an uncertain period. Then, there is always the fair fear that, when cool nights come again, the public will have lost all interest in indoors diversion.

Among yesterday's benefactions was George M. Cohan's oral review (with marginal asides) of "The Green Hat," which he saw the other night; but, on hearing it, I grew gloomy, because Michael Arlen, also, could not have heard it; preferably, as spoken by Mr. Cohan. For myself, I was quite happy to get it by relay from one who heard it as the curtain fell on the final act in the Selwyn. . . . They think along different lines; but I am of a belief that seized me when I first read "These Charming People"—that the American could make bully plays from some of the Englishman's fiction.

And, now that she knows "The Green Hat" has been doing well at the box-office, Miss Gladys Cooper is going to put on the play in London. She has had the rights for a long time; but she was dubious enough about the piece to postpone production until after Mr. Woods should have made the gamble in this country.

Mr. Ziegfeld is incensed not only at Miss Ann Pennington, but at Leon Errol, also: the latter, too, is putting in a great deal of time performing for the screen, and shows up for "Louie the Fourteenth" at night, says Mr. Ziegfeld, all tired out. And Mr. Ziegfeld avers that, if the actors he pays don't desist, he will have the law on them, although he doesn't seem to be clear as to what the law may be.

"Laff That Off" is the good name of a new piece by Don Mullally, who has been represented in New-York this season by pieces named, respectively, "Conscience" and "The Desert-Flower."

And this season ends tomorrow, June 6, for all the purposes of 1924-'25 drama in my allotment of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, daily and Sunday. . . . The season of 1925-'26 dates from June 7, whether or not you care.

Wives Told to Demand Place on Pay Roll

Detroit, Mich., June 4.—(AP)—Women of the United States must move ahead of economic conditions, Doris Stevens (Mrs. Dudley Field Malone) told the members of the midwestern conference of the National Women's party at the close of the first day's meeting at Bloomfield Hills here.

Miss Stevens, as she had been presented to the conference, had just finished an impassioned plea for recognition of the woman of the home as a wage earner; to be in fact paid wages. One of her hearers interrupted to ask what would happen under a wage earning condition for the wife in the home of the workingman who was just able to make ends meet.

"We cannot wait for economic systems to change in the demands we are making," Miss Stevens replied. "The greatest thing we can do is to pass on to the next generation a clean slate, with all the old discriminating laws against women cleared away by a federal amendment giving men and women equal rights.

"We cannot live on in the atmosphere of sex antagonism. Men and women have to live together throughout these years as they have in the past. The place of the mother in the home is the greatest place in the world, but because she is the factor in the perpetuity of the race she must not be penalized."

Tomorrow's session will be given over to conferences on organization.

West Baden, Ind., June 4.—(AP)—Encouragement for "clean journalism" was voted today by the biennial council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Having reached that part of its program calling for the adoption of resolutions, the federation acted favorably upon a pronouncement which calls upon the individual club woman in every club in every state in the Union to purchase the newspaper that comes more nearly up to her ideals of clean journalism and to refrain from buying papers that do not conform to those ideals.

A reception was given at the church, which was presided over by Charles F. Fitts, senior warden. Addresses of congratulation were delivered by Bishop S. M. Griswold, Dr. Norman Hutton, St. Chrysostom's church, and Dr. George H. Thomas, St. Paul's. During the ten years, it was said, Father Fleming had led in the erection of a church and parish house costing $300,000. Twice he has declined election to the episcopacy.

This Time It's the Father-in-Law Who Is Always in the Way

BY DORIS BLAKE.

"Worried" asks why I never touch on the subject of in-laws, betraying thereby that she is not one of my faithful readers. I touch on them so often I fear to bore by repetition those fortunate folk who escape them as a married problem.

If it isn't the mother-in-law it is a sister-in-law, or a brother-in-law who disturbs the household by an unwelcome presence. Not often, strangely enough, does the father-in-law come in for complaint.

But here he is today, along with a bachelor son, imposing upon a 17 year old bride for home privileges that belong to them in a home of their own, not in the girl's.

Wouldn't you think a man of 28, marrying a girl of 17, would have brains enough to see the danger signals hoisted daily by those unwelcome relatives?

When Worried complains, her husband tells her his people are a big help because they pay the rent.

"I'd rather live in the cheapest flat in town and have our home to ourselves," she confides. "I am discouraged, heartsick, and weary. My house is always upset, as my father-in-law is retired and is home all day. He fools around the house like an old woman. What woman likes a man around the house all the time? There are ashes and papers in every room.

When my husband comes home his father just sits and we are never alone. It would be different if he and my husband's brother could not afford to keep up a place of their own, but they can. Night after night my brother-in-law has men up playing cards, and no place suits them but the dining room, scratching my good table. What a life! And I thought I was going to have a darling little home for two, where I could keep everything spick and span, and live for my husband only. If they only spent part of the time with us, I could bear it. But as soon as we set up housekeeping they moved in and stayed."

Worried is tempted to leave her husband. A friend of hers had an in-law experience and she left her husband with the understanding she would return only when his two brothers vacated. After she left the home broke up, and the brothers went to live with a married sister. The husband is in a rooming house and wants his wife back. Now she refuses to go. During her absence she met a man who has completely alienated her from her husband, a happening that never would have transpired but for interfering in-laws.

Worried has tried reasoning, threatening, coaxing, but her husband will not agree to taking a flat alone with her. The next chapter surely will read that she has gone back to her mother, as she threatens, if that man eleven years her senior doesn't wake up to the seriousness of the situation. It is enough to expect a 17 year old girl to do the cooking and cleaning for one man, as any fair minded judge would proclaim. Three able bodied men to look after is too large an order to expect of a child of 17.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Lacks the Knack.

"Dear Miss Blake: Am 20 and keeping company with a girl of the same age. I take her to a movie once a week and she has never said she enjoyed the show, or even thanked me for taking her out. Isn't it the girl's place to thank her escort at the end of the evening after the show? Is it right for me to ask for another date, even though she hasn't given me the satisfaction of knowing whether she enjoys spending an evening together or not? R. T."

We are not all equally gifted in our ability to show appreciation of what is done for us and the enjoyment we get out of things, R. T. She may be one who hasn't this knack. Or, it may be that she is not sufficiently fond of the movies to enthuse over them. Try some other form of amusement and see if it appeals to her more. She should show her appreciation in some way.

Talk Might Help.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am 22 and engaged to a girl two years my junior. When I go to her house to take her out her mother never lets us go out alone, and when we meet on the streets we cannot stop to talk, as she is kept strict. This gets me very angry. Will you kindly advise me what to do?
"BROWN EYES."

It seems to me you should have a talk with her mother and point out to her that it should be a privilege of yours, as the young lady's fiancé, to take her to places of amusement and give her some of the pleasures which every girl loves to have. If she approves of you as the life partner of her daughter she should have implicit faith in your ability to take the best of care of her now, Brown Eyes.

MEN'S FASHIONS

BY A. T. GALLICO.

Hot Weather Headgear.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Keeping a cool head is an all year round business with the wise man, but in these months when the sun is beating down with utter abandon, keeping the head cool becomes somewhat of a problem. Hat manufacturers do all within their power to make the summer a pleasant one, hattily speaking, however.

One in particular has on the market headgear which should make Old Man Sol discouraged at the prospect of trying to give sunstroke to any men who wear it. The hats are not only cool but smart looking, and so will find favor with well dressed men who will not give up sartorial effect for comfort.

The public is already acquainted with this manufacturer's hot weather hats made of the madagascar straw in the fedora shape. This season he has also to offer a similar hat but of a slightly different straw, called vatrabusa. This straw is extremely pliable and light weight and good looking. Wet will not harm it, and so a rain shower will not feaze it in the slightest. It is a Florida fiber.

Another hot weather hat which comes in the fedora shape is of a linen crash material, in oatmeal, oyster, or white. A hat on this order, of course, is not for wear with anything but light, hot weather sport clothing. With white linen knickers, or a white linen suit, or with white flannels, it could be worn.

Sounded Rude.

One of the girls in our office took sick and the firm employed a new girl to take her place for about a week. Upon my arrival the first morning, the new girl, who had not beeen introduced as yet, was sitting at the old girl's desk with a bright red dress on.

I had forgotten for the moment she was a new acquaintance, and noticing the gaudy outfit, I dashed up to her and slapped her on the back, saying: "Gosh, where did you get the doggy outfit?"

Well, when she turned around I know poistively my face was more scarlet than her dress. I. A.

Hitting Near Home.

Being a beauty operator one sees many queer sights. We often talk and laugh about some people who come in, but I got a sure cure the other day. After taking care of a customer I said to my boss, who is very jolly, "You should have seen the toothless Jennie I just had," whereupon she broke in, "Yes, I did see her; she is my sister-in-law, and is having some dental work done."

Never again! D. B. D.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Writes for Mother.

"I wonder if some one in your corner has a dark blue summer coat that my mother could have. She is short and wears size 44. Her birthday is in June, and I would like so much to surprise her with a coat. I am in the seventh grade and cannot buy a coat for her, so I am asking your kind readers.
"FERN."

Fern will be happy to learn that some one has a coat to give her for her mother. We hope some one has.

Offers Bird Cage.

"I have a good sized bird cage which I no longer use and which I would be glad to give to some one who wants it.
"G. C. D."

Not many things are nicer around a home than a bird and its song. If you are in need of a cage, we shall be glad to hear from you concerning this one which is to be given away.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Summer Curries.

If you want a seasoning that is exceedingly useful when preparing pot roasts and even chops, use a bit of curry powder. It may also be added to many sorts of gravies and sauces to give a curry effect. For such a seasoning put together the following for a homemade curry powder which has had a long and thorough testing out hereabouts:

Two teaspoons black pepper, two teaspoons cayenne pepper, four teaspoons mustard, four teaspoons cinnamon, four teaspoons ginger, two teaspoons salt, one teaspoon allspice, one teaspoon cloves, fourteen teaspoons turmeric powder.

The sirup in the most famous—and expensive—of all the chutneys is used to season certain egg dishes to make them curried. To make a fruity curry, some of the other chutneys may be used for the seasoning.

In the part of the world which knows curries best, either a muddy gravy curry or a sickening yellow curry is far from the ideal among the thousand and one effects to be secured. A curry with a fruity taste and with a bright brown glaze is the most elegant of the preparations that may be fairly draped over a brilliantly white boiled rice to tempt the appetite on a hot day. There are red curries, too, but a bright and a glassy look is the ideal for them also.

One of my heralded discoveries of last summer was that a certain mango chutney put up in Hawaii was an excellent seasoning for a small pork curry, made with one-fourth pound of pork, a tablespoon of butter, one large onion cut fine, a teaspoon of salt, one cup of water. Cut pork into thinnest of disklike slices, brown in butter, push aside, and cook onion in same until soft, add seasonings and water, stir till it simmers, and simmer gently for one hour. It should not lose its brightness. A little ginger root and grapefruit pulp may be added. Use as sauce over boiled rice.

Nursery Birthday Party.

The Jackson Park sanitarium stockyards day nursery will give a birthday tea at the residence of Mrs. Charles J. Rittenhouse at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Guests are asked to bring contributions in money corresponding to their ages.

Eleanor Bradley Advances Date of Wedding to June 24

BY NANCY R——.

Eleanor Bradley is to be a June bride after all. When her engagement to young Benjamin Carpenter was announced in April, plans were being made for a wedding in July, but now the date has been set for the romantic twenty-fourth of June, the hour to be six o'clock in the afternoon, and, if Mr. Weather Man permits, it's to take place out of doors at the lovely rambling country place of her parents, the John Dorr Bradleys, in Lake Forest.

I'm told it's to be a small and simple wedding—what a chic air these unshowy affairs have!—with just relatives and close friends of the Bradley and Carpenter clans invited, although, as in the case of two other "small" weddings, the Fenimore Cooper-Erskine and the Badger-Winterbotham nuptials, the invitation lists are likely to mount 'way up in the hundreds, so many are the nears and dears of such old and popular Chicago families.

Miss Bradley is to have only one attendant, her sister, Mrs. Frederick T. Fisher, who is coming on from New York just in time for the great event—at that, I think she's a shining example of this energetic modern generation of ours, for she has a wee and demanding youngster less than six weeks old who might easily tie her down if she were willing.

Young Carpenter has chosen his brother, Fairbank, to act as best man, and there'll be a group of other beaux to usher and make themselves generally useful on the fête day—the list of them will be decided on and announced later.

Plans for summers away still whiz through the air, sultry though it is these days, and one of the nicest that's come to my ears recently is that of the Rosecrans Baldwins and the junior John R. Winterbothams. They're a jolly foursome, and they're going to be together during the warm months on Cape Cod, as they've taken neighboring cottages at that breezy, quaint spot yclept Harwichport, where they can swim and bridge and yacht and tennis and golf.

Day's News in Society

Miss Eleanor Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dorr Bradley, is to be married at 6 o'clock on Wedensday afternoon, June 24, to Benjamin Carpenter Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Carpenter of 1545 Astor street, at the Bradley place in Lake Forest. Miss Bradley will have as her only attendant her sister, Mrs. Frederick Fisher (Alice Bradley) of New Canaan, Conn., and Mr. Carpenter's brother, Fairbank, will be his best man. Many of his friends are to assist in a semi-usher capacity. After their wedding journey Mr. Carpenter and his bride will be with Miss Bradley's parents for the remainder of the summer, when they will seek a dwelling place in the city.

Flowerside Farms, the Simeon B. Chapin place at Lake Geneva, has been opened for the summer by Mr. Chapin. Mrs. Chapin and her daughter, Miss Virginia Chapin, who are in Europe, are expected at Lake Geneva late this month. Miss Elizabeth Chapin, another daughter, will come on from New York to join them.

Holiday home, the charity maintained at Lake Geneva during the summer by the lake shore colony, will open for the season on June 17. A rummage sale for its benefit is to be held in early July at Horticultural hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wacker have arrived and are in their south shore place on the lake. Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Maxwell and their children are in their summer residence with Mrs. Maxwell's mother, Mrs. Jessie D. Crane.

William E. Clow of Lake Forest returns today after a week's sojourn in Washington, D. C., and New York City. Mrs. Clow, who accompanied him, will return early next week with Mr. and Mrs. Kent Clow and Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Douglas (Martha Clow), who land this week after a trip abroad.

Lake Forest Society Folk to Go Treasure Hunting This Evening

The novel occupation of treasure hunting will amuse a great number of Lake Forest's society folk this evening, as they travel by motor from one "clew" to another in an effort to discover the $50 in cash which has been secreted somewhere in the north shore region. The pursuit will wind up with a supper dance at the Villa Venice on Milwaukee avenue. Proceeds of the hunt will go to the Bryn Mawr fund. Mrs. Charles Edward Brown Jr., a Bryn Mawr alumna, who is managing the details of the affair, will give a dinner prior to the start of the trail. Her guests are to be Mr. and Mrs. Leeds Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Scott Linn, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. W. Peck. Others who will begin the evening by entertaining at dinner are Mrs. Bernard Rogers Jr., Mrs. John C. Dawson, and Miss Muriel McCormick.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

BLONDIE: YOU ARE A GROWING girl and need all your strength that you may develop into a healthy woman. I strongly advise against reducing in a case like yours, but, I have a set of exercises called "My Youth Preservers," which would be beneficial to you, keeping you in good condition. Send along a stamped addressed envelope for them.

M. J. H.: IT IS NOT WELL TO try out all kinds of soaps and creams on your face. Find the kind that agrees with your skin, and stick to it. There are many good creams on the market and some that are not good. I cannot make any recommendations, but I can give you a formula for a cleansing cream which you may have filled at the drug store. It is much better than trying to do the mixing yourself. Send a stamped, addressed envelope if you wish the formula.

Exercises, Plus a Little Ingenuity, Make Slim Ankles

by Antoinette Donnelly

Did you read that scare lately about silk stockings making the ankles thick?

The fact that it came out of England, where they are planning to impose a tax on silk stockings, to which the English women object, naturally enough, indicates the scare to be a clever form of propaganda.

If the promoters had suggested, for instance, that silk stockings were bad for the health, that would have scared none of us. To tell us they made the ankles ugly—that is something else again. It did perturb a number of us.

Inclosed herein is a great little bit of feminine psychology. You tell a woman that cigarets or alcohol are bad for her health. It may go in one ear and out the other, but we doubt if it penetrates the outer drum. But tell her they will ruin her complexion or make her fat and you have both ears. If you want to argue with a woman aim at her vanity and you win. That's probably why the silk stocking scare didn't get a hearing. There's too much vanity woven into the skein in which her ankles are enmeshed.

However, we have the word of Dr. Charles F. Pabst, New York dermatologist, that we have nothing to fear from silk stockings; they do not make the ankles thick. Poor circulation in the feet may result, he believes, and possibly poisoning from cheap dyes used in cheap hosiery.

Thick ankles, when they accompany a thickness all over, are reduced by the same diet regulation observed to reduce the rest of the body. Special exercises should be given the legs, however, as this fat is stubborn and hard to shake off. If you want some good exercises send stamped, addressed envelope and I will mail them to you.

A supersensitiveness about thick ankles inspires a number of women to wear skirts of exaggerated length, which I think a mistake. Instead of taking attention away from them one's attention is called to them. A popular actress told me she made this mistake for years, but an artist friend gave her a little talk on the value of perspective and suggested instead she allow a certain space free above the ankles to supply it. That in itself made the ankle appear smaller.

"Another thing," the actress confided. "I nursed this sensitiveness until it made me perfectly miserable. One day I just decided that my ankles are thick. I've tried everything to reduce them. From now on I'm not going to let them dictate my whole life. I'm going to forget them, be brazen about them, in fact, and try to let what assets I have counterbalance them. And I certainly have been happier about them."

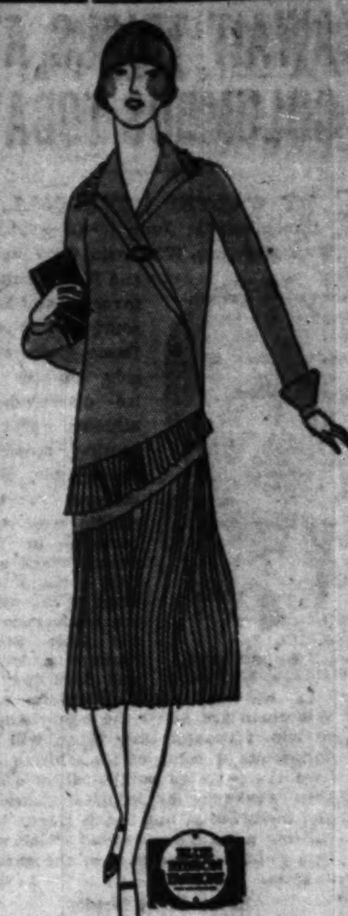
See the Plaited Peplum on a New Slant

by Corinne Lowe



NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Again we are saying not "goodby to summer" but "good bias to summer." If, in fact, there is a single method of developing the diagonal line which these designers of women's clothes have overlooked this spring, it needs a more mathematical mind than I command to detect the deficiency.

We see one more example of this ceaseless ingenuity in this charming coat frock of brown silk serge. Observe that the skirt section with its fine knife plaits slopes in exactly the same way as does that jaunty little plaited peplum. Together, they form one of the strongest arguments for the coat dress which I have yet seen—especially as they include that double collar with its narrow plaited ruffle and those sleeves with a little funnel cuff.

As I have remarked before, the coat dress is not starred this spring. Nevertheless, the clients who remain faithful to this type of street dress make up for their diminished numbers by a reputation for tactful dressing. Certainly this little model we show today wouldn't be burdensome in any woman's wardrobe, and to the prospective traveler—either she who expects to journey overseas or she who plans to travel overland—it would prove a tremendous asset.

Silk serge, by the way, is a fabric of which the French artistes have made much this season. They make it up even in the tailored overcoats so rampant in the mannish mixtures, and as a choice for the coat dress it has undoubted wisdom behind it.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.]—The President and Mrs. Coolidge have with them as a guest at the White House Mrs. Robert B. Hills of Northampton, Mass.

Representative Allen F. Moore of Illinois arrived today at the Willard hotel from Montreal, where he spent about ten days. He plans to remain here for a few days and then resume his trip to his home in Monticello, Ill.

Charles S. Dewey, assistant secretary of the treasury, and Mrs. Dewey, who are at present in Europe, have leased the residence at 1614 Rhode Island avenue and will take possession shortly after their return. Famililiarly known as the Bellamy Storer house, the new home of the Deweys was at one time occupied by the French embassy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey are sailing on the Homeric and are due to reach Washington on June 14. Miss Susette Dewey, who is with her parents in Europe and who was recently presented at the Court of St. James, will remain abroad for some time longer and will travel on the continent with friends.

WEDDING

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Edwin J. Fisher of the Windermere hotel to Clarence Hirschhorn. Mr. and Mrs. Hirschhorn are to sail on June 9 for a three months' trip abroad.

TRACK ATHLETES AWAIT TRIALS AT COLUMBUS TODAY

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Columbus, O., June 4.—[Special.]—With Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio State, and Illinois ruling favorites and Missouri and Notre Dame given outside chances to be contenders, athletes representing nineteen universities and colleges in the middle west will compete in the annual track and field championships of the western conference in the Ohio State stadium tomorrow and Saturday.

HARRY GILL.

Of the contenders, Michigan and Wisconsin are given the best chances to win, although Ohio State will be dangerous if some of its athletes deliver the expected points. Illinois has been weakened by injuries, sickness, and ineligibility, but Coach Harry Gill will put a team on the field which will be a contender for part of the games at least.

Every Point Needed.

In a meet of this sort, where so many teams appear evenly matched, it will be up to the second string performers to win the points offered for third and fourth places. It will also behoove the stars to see they are not beaten by well known performers of nonconference institutions. It will be a meet in which every point will count, and just as much stress will be placed upon the winning of a fourth place as upon the winning of the various events.

Winners of some events can be picked with a degree of certainty in advance, but in others the victors must earn their laurels not only by physical prowess but by using clever generalship as well.

In the 100 yard dash Hubbard and Wittman of Michigan, Evans of Illinois, McAndrews of Wisconsin, Gruenhagen of Minnesota, Irwin of Ohio State, and Ham and Gray of Butler have registered the best performances in the sprints during the spring competition.

Schock of Illinois, Stack of Notre Dame, Kennedy of Wisconsin, Wallace of Indiana, Martin of Northwestern, Feinsinger of Michigan, Spence of Chicago, and Johnson of Minnesota are among the leading quarter-milers.

Ohio Has Star Hurdlers.

A great race should result in the half-mile. Reinke of Michigan did 1:54 4-5 against Ohio State, Martin of Northwestern, 1:55 8-10 against Purdue, and Ponzer of Illinois, 1:56 6-10, Cox of Notre Dame did 1:57 4-5 in the dual meet with Illinois. The mile run will bring together some fleet runners in Cusack of Chicago, Schutt of Wisconsin, Arnold of Ohio State, and Makeever of Illinois.

Phelps of Iowa, Bourke of Chicago, Kennedy of Ohio State, Wentland of Notre Dame, and Kubly of Wisconsin are among the leading two-milers. Snyder and Guthrie of Ohio State, Kinsey of Illinois, Keeble of Missouri, Mattice of Minnesota, Walk of Michigan, and McGinnis of Wisconsin lead the high hurdlers and the same field will contest for the honors in the low barriers.

Cox of Minnesota, Bunker of Ohio State, and Hawkins of Michigan are the class of the hammer throwers, while Northrup of Michigan appears a certain winner of the javelin throw and Schwarze of Wisconsin in the shot put.

Richerson of Missouri, Hancock of Iowa, and Schwarze of Wisconsin appear the best in the discus throw.

Trials in all events except the one and two mile runs are listed for tomorrow, and heats will be drawn at noon.

IN the WAKE of the NEWS

BIG TEN MEET.

ILLINOIS and Michigan are favorites for the Big Ten track and field championships at Columbus today and tomorrow. Wisconsin is figured close behind, while Ohio State has an outside chance. There will be a wider point distribution than when Illinois ran away with the event last year.

In the indoor meet at Patten gym last winter, Michigan and Wisconsin were the contenders, followed closely by Chicago and Illinois. The Illini at that time were weakened by absence of several stars.

Both Illinois and Michigan have suffered from injuries and from ineligibility of prospective point winners. Other colleges, outside the Big Ten, also will enter stars likely to bring upsets to the advance choices.

From the standpoint of class the meet in several events is the best of recent years. From the standpoint of competition it promises both individual and team struggles of unusual keenness. It is, therefore, far more interesting than when the winner is predetermined.

AS a road builder, Uncle Sam has completed one-third of all the interstate highways designated as the federal aid system by the act approved in November, 1921. According to a check-up made yesterday by the Chicago Motor club, a total of 54,950 miles of the 174,350 mile federal aid system had been completed or placed under contract by the government at a total cost of $452,880,341.

Of the federal aid mileage which had been placed under contract up to Jan. 1 this year, 42,828 miles had been completed. It is anticipated that fully 10,000 miles of the remaining 12,127 under contract will be finished by the close of the year.

Reports from Dubuque indicate that Illinois route 5—the Grant highway leading from Chicago northwest through Elgin and Rockford to the Mississippi—is in good condition all the way. The old road from Stockton through Elizabeth and Galena, where a gap in the continuous pavement is being closed by state contracts, is reported excellent in dry weather. In wet weather a good gravel detour leads traffic through Warren to the river.

As a result of protests made by the Illinois Automobile club concerning reported wholesale arrests of motorists on route 4 in Lockport, city officials of Lockport yesterday announced that every precaution is being taken against unjust arrest there. Orders have gone out to allow a maximum speed of 25 miles an hour through the city

ST. JOHNS CREW HERE FOR RACE TOMORROW

The St. John's Military academy eight oared crew which will meet the Lincoln Park Boat club eight over the 1¼ mile course in the Lincoln park lagoon at 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon arrived in Chicago yesterday, in charge of Dean Holt and Maj. Musse.

The cadet eight took a few trial spins over the course yesterday, and they will wet their oars in the same waters this afternoon. The husky cadet eight averages 178 pounds, against 168 for the local crew. Both crews have been on the water since the breaking of the ice, and an interesting race should result.

It will be the tenth meeting of the two crews. St. John's has won six times and Lincoln Park four. Both crews will be guests of the Lincoln Park Boat club at a dinner at the Illinois A. C. tonight. The crews will row as follows:

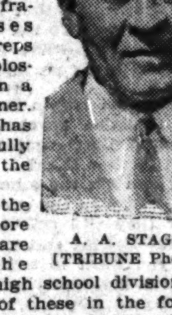
Prelims to Be Run at Midway Today in National Prep Meet

BY TED ISERMAN.

The stage is set for the twenty-first holding of A. A. Stagg's national interscholastic track and field meet—the prep prides of thirty-one states—are at the Midway ready for the preliminary heats today; fraternity houses where the preps are staying blossomed forth in a festive manner. Stagg field has been carefully groomed for the occasion.



A. A. STAGG.

Statistics on the meet show more than 800 boys are entered in the academy and high school divisions of the meet, 250 of these in the former section. All of these lads have intrastate, interstate, and even national fame in their respective events. They come from 180 high schools scattered

Prelims This Afternoon.

Beginning this afternoon at 2 o'clock the entrants in the dashes, hurdles, jumps, and weights will compete in the preliminary heats, semi-finals in the track events being reserved for tomorrow's program. The qualifying heights and distances in the field events will be as follows: Pole vault, 10 feet; 12 pound shotput, 40 feet; discus, 95 feet; javelin throw, 120 feet; broad jump, 19 feet.

Many of the boys who hope to take laurels of a high order back to their homes were on Stagg field yesterday, swarming around the track and doing their stuff in the practice jumping pits. Outstanding were such lads as Ed Hamm of Lonoke, Okla., holder of the national interscholastic broad jump record, who this year is expected to leap more than 25 feet; Jack Williams of Inglewood, Cal., who set a new pole vault mark this year by going 13 feet 1⅝ inches; F. K. Williams of Washington, D. C.; Foster of Wenatchee, Wash., and McCrary of Bicknell, Ind., all of whom have done the century in under :10. The Wichita, Kas., relay quartet is another likely looking crew.

Coloradoans Contenders.

Among the possible winners of the team championship are Fort Collins, Colo., for ten years winners of their state title and runners up in last year's national, whose well balanced but not particularly flashy crew should, at least, place them near the top; Washington High of Cedar Rapids, Ia., last year's winner, and Northeast High of Kansas City, Mo., whose four man team of speedsters has this year set up three prep relay marks.

The finals will be held tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock.

CATCHING TROUT OF THE BROOKS.

FOREST COUNTY, Wisconsin.—Doc and I paddled across two lakes and then up a wilderness brook trout stream today, a trip that penetrated not only an isolated beauty spot but also took us straight into the heart of springtime. A warm sun shone overhead, so that you had to peel off the coat and paddle in your shirt sleeves. Thousands of birds filled the air with their courting serenades, wild cherry trees white with blossoms added sweet fragrance, and our old friends, the gay yellow marsh marigolds, added the final touch of spring color to our ideal day.

On our way to the fishing grounds Doc and I stopped on a small forested island to pick up a board to place on the bottom of our leaky canoe, and this act nearly kept us from the brook trout stream. The island was simply alive with birds that held our attention for some time. Talk about your trained choruses! You should have heard those island singers dispense their notes. But Doc and I finally pushed along, watching the deep holes in the lakes for bass. We saw them, too. Bass weighing several pounds darted past us so near that we could see the long black stripes on their sides.

MacFARLANE AND JONES TIED WITH 291 IN GOLF OPEN

BY MORROW KRUM.

Worcester, Mass., June 4.—[Special.]—Robert T. Jones Jr., national amateur champion and resident of Atlanta, Ga., and Willie MacFarlane, professional at the Oak Ridge Country club, Tuckahoe, N. Y., are tied for the open golf championship of America. After 72 holes of play over the Worcester Country club course, each of these magnificent golf players had taken 291 strokes.

And yet it was a day when strokes were wasted, when a missed two foot putt, a poorly played explosion shot, a hooked drive, or an overplayed iron cost any one of half a dozen leaders the open championship. When the scores were added tonight it was found both Jones and MacFarlane were seven strokes higher than par. Par for 72 holes at Worcester is 284.

Play Off for Title.

Jones, the amateur, and MacFarlane, the professional, will fight it out tomorrow. They will drive from the first tee at 11 o'clock and will play 18 holes to decide which is to wear the crown for the coming golf year. That round of golf is expected to be the premier event of the year.

At this paragraph of the story it must be related that Walter Hagen stepped off the sixteenth green with a chance of winning. He was going for a four and a three to tie and two threes would have put him ahead. He failed.

Chicagoans Blow Chances.

Francis Ouimet, favorite amateur of New England, almost won; Johnny Farrell, professional at Quaker Ridge, New York, was close; little Gene Sarazen was also close, and at one time it looked as if two Chicagoans, Laurie Ayton of the Evanston Golf club and Al Espinosa of the Illinois Golf club, might fight their way to the top. And Leo Diegel, who with MacFarlane, led the field yesterday, might have won.

But the golf of Jones and the machine like work of MacFarlane are the two matters of most importance. Here is the picture:

On one hand there is an American lad of 22, a boy whose hair is parted in the middle, who is just a trifle heavy, who looks like the fraternity youth on the college campus.

Two Leaders a Contrast.

Jones is a lad who learned the game as a small boy and who has figured in national golf events for years and who is truly American, a boy who fights when he is down and who doesn't talk when he wins.

Then, on the other side, is Willie MacFarlane, the angular Scot, who left his hearthside in Aberdeen to come to America, where the public has gone wild over golf. MacFarlane will be 36 years old on the 29th day of this month. He has a slight burr in his voice and the one thing in his whole life is golf. He cares nothing for clothes. He looks exactly like a lanky scholar out for a tramp in the country as he sprawls along the golf courses. But he plays golf the way it should be played.

Course Sizzles in Heat.

Jones was sent away from the tee first today. Yesterday he was six strokes behind the Scot. Their first day cards read: Jones 147; MacFarlane, 141. Everything was against the Atlanta boy except his battling spirit.

The heat was terrific. A hot wind was blowing across the course. Jones went away from the first tee with a terrific drive, and he got a par four on the hole. On the second he reaped a par five and had a par four on the third. On the fourth he had a four, one over par, and things looked bad.

But Jones, whose whole demeanor on the golf course is casual, picked out his driver on the fifth tee and hit a mighty ball. He got a birdie four and it cheered him. He finished the first nine in par and on the second had three birdies and finished the 18 with a 70, one less than par.

On the second round he started out with a five. His iron put his second stroke over the green and he shook his head. On the fourth hole of the second round he was one over par with a four and on the ninth he again required one more than par. He missed a putt, after a neat chip shot from the edge of the green. He made the turn with a 38, three more than par.

He got a birdie on the tenth, but took five on the eleventh, five on the fourteenth, and five on the fifteenth, and there were those who said he could not win, he couldn't tie. He got another birdie on the seventeenth and wound up the last nine even with par. His score for the 36 holes was 70—74 and 70—74—144, two strokes more than par.

Willie Takes a 71.

MacFarlane started out with a four on the first hole. He got a six on the second hole and wound up the first nine with a 39, four more than par. But he got four birdies on the last nine of the first round and had a 33, three under par. His total for the first 18 holes was 71, one over par.

And it was that round and the first nine of the second eighteen yesterday, when he was out in 31, that won him the right to play with Jones tomorrow. On his second 18 today he had a 78—picture that—it is seven strokes higher than the par dopesters say a good player should need. His friends counted him out when he used one stroke more than par on the eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, and sixteenth holes.

At the home hole he put his second shot on the edge of the green. The big gallery knew that by virtue of his earlier rounds he had a good chance of winning, and there was dead silence. His putt, a matter of perhaps twenty-five feet, stopped in a foot of the cup, in a slight hole.

Sinks Putt with Driver.

MacFarlane took a driving iron from his bag and used it to sink the putt and get a par four. In the last shot of his play today MacFarlane gave his whole theory of golf. Do it right. Take no chances. If a putter is not the club to use for a shot use the proper club.

His scores for the day were 39—33—72, 39—39—78—150. Coupling that score with the 141—one less than par of yesterday—put him right on a line with Jones.

Johnny Farrell of Quaker Ridge and Francis Ouimet finished ahead of the great Walter Hagen. Each had a total of 292, just a single stroke behind Jones and MacFarlane, and plain bad luck on any one of six holes cost both the chance to play tomorrow. Hagen and Sarazen were tied with 293, and each could tell a number of shots that should have been played with more care or skill.

Then came Leo Diegel, Glen Oaks, 296; Laurie Ayton and Al Espinosa with 297; Joe Turnesa, Fairview, 299; MacDonald Smith, 299; Al Watrous of Grand Rapids, 300, and Willie Hunter of Los Angeles with 300.

Two Chicagoans Get 301.

The next two on the list were from Chicago. They are Bob MacDonald and Bill Mehlhorn with 301 each. Jock Hutchison was not far away with 306.

Cyril Walker, the retiring champion, had a grand total of 316. He was 25 shots behind the two leaders.

This afternoon was one of the most trying on the champions. From 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock it was anybody's championship. No player was shooting with an easy mind. The veterans of the game say it was one of the most trying rounds on players' nerves in the history of the game.

MacFarlane Grazes Ace.

The most spectacular shot of the tournament was made by MacFarlane. It came on his second trip today at the tenth hole. It is a short hole, a matter of 145 yards. His tee shot went straight and true through the air, down the hill, bounced on the green and rolled straight toward the hole. But these greens are in perfect condition and it had not enough roll. It stopped six inches from the cup and MacFarlane sank it with a quick putt.

The crowd that watched today's show was one of the largest that has attended a national open tournament. More than 12,000 people swarmed over the course. Their purchase of tickets more than paid for the expense of operating this tournament, and the Worcester Country club and the U. S. G. A. have both made money.

WILLIE MAC FARLANE NO FLASH IN PAN

Worcester, Mass., June 4.—(AP)—It was a lank Scotsman born in Aberdeen thirty-six years ago who tied today with Bobby Jones, Georgia amateur, for the national open golf championship of the United States. William MacFarlane came to American sixteen years ago. For the last four years he has been professional at the Oak Ridge Golf club, in Tuckahoe, N. Y.

After he had dropped the last putt into the cup on the 18th green and was tied with Jones, MacFarlane admitted that this was the first national tournament in which he had competed in four years.

Seventh in 1921.

It was no flash in the pan, however, that brought MacFarlane under the sporting spotlight today. Once, back in 1921, in Toledo, he finished in the money in the national open. At that time Ted Ray won. MacFarlane, after a bad start, finished seventh, only five strokes behind Ray.

For three years he was private instructor to Daniel Guggenheim and for two years to Otto H. Kahn. He was professional at the Suburban club, Baltimore, for two years. At the Hudson River club, Yonkers, N. Y., he was professional for five years.

Tied Diegel at Shawnee.

MacFarlane played in five tournaments last year. He won the Westchester county open and tied with Leo Diegel in the Shawnee open, only to lose in the playoff. In the metropolitan open he finished second to Mike Brady. He has a wife and one daughter, Edna, now 10 years old.

TORRID AIR BREEDS HOT GOLF PLAY AND SOME HOT REMARKS

WORCESTER, Mass., June 4.—[Special.]—It was particularly tragic to see Leo Diegel who was out in front with MacFarlane yesterday, sitting at the 18th green watching the players come up and their scores duck under his. He took an eight on that hole and "came in in a wheelbarrow" to use his own expression.

The greatest stationary gallery was camped under the trees at the top of the back hill where the ninth and fifteenth greens are located.

Willie MacFarlane's eight year old daughter was one of the first to congratulate him as he stepped off the eighteenth green. The photographers insisted on making many pictures of them.

All the scores were high. Glance at the figures in the nearby column and you will see that many of the western boys are higher than their eastern comrades. A great many eastern courses are more rolling than those of the west.

The cockiest man in Worcester last night was little Gene Sarazen, who believed he was going to win. The little fellow has played better golf in the last two days than he has since Skokie and when Gene is going good his spirits are high.

Cyril Walker, the retiring champion, had much to say yesterday. He believes that Americans like to see Americans wearing the crowns, he says. He also believes that the English golf writers are better sportsmen. "Look at the way Hagen was touted when he won the British open," he said. "You have never seen an American writer playing up a British golfer that way, have you? No sir. Another thing—You sport writers say that the national open championship is worth $50,000. That's the bunk. It's not worth that much to a foreign born player." And he had much more to say. He has always disliked newspaper men, the old timers say.

FORMER CHAMPS STEP LIVELY IN SOUTHERN GOLF

Nashville, Tenn., June 4.—(AP)—Mrs. David Gaut of Memphis, by superior golf, won her match with Mrs. Elaine Reinhart of Dallas, one up at the nineteenth hole and became a semi-finalist in the annual championship tournament of the Southern Woman's Golf association. Both are former champions.

The other semi-finalists, as a result of their third round victories are:

Mrs. E. D. Mason, Louisville, who conquered Miss Marion Turpie, New Orleans, 1 up at the 20th. Mrs. John Armstrong, Jackson, Miss., who eliminated Mrs. Walton Reymond, Baton Rouge, low medalist, 4 and 3, and Mrs. H. S. Geismer, Birmingham, who defeated Mrs. Frank Dooley of Memphis, 4 and 3.

PARE IS VICTOR OVER BENNETT IN NET TITLE MEET

Emmett Pare of St. Mel academy decisively proved his supremacy over all Cook county prep netmen in the finals of the University of Chicago's second annual tourney by defeating Gordon Braudt of Calumet, 6—3, 6—2, winning a spirited battle with the magic of his powerful backhand strokes and forehand prowess.

The doubles title, for which two Hyde Park High pairs disputed, was won by Thompson and Budd, who defeated their own team mates, Rexinger and Stellar, 6—4, 7—5, in the final tilts.

CHICAGO U. GIVES OUT FIELD HOUSE PLANS

General plans for the mammoth fieldhouse which is to be erected by the University of Chicago this summer as the initial unit in the million dollar improvements of its athletic department plans were made public by Midway officials last night. Following the decision to shift the site of the structure from the land on University avenue, north of Bartlett gymnasium, to a location on 56th street, between Greenwood and Ellis avenue, new specifications for the building were made, calling for one of the largest buildings of its kind in the country.

The building will measure 364 feet from east to west wall and will be 170 feet wide. The inside vertical measurement will be fifty-five feet, no rafters or other impedimenta being located below that height. Some of the special provisions of the building will be an eight lap track, a basketball court which will be located crosswise of the building at one end, and permanent seats on three sides of the structure. The seating capacity will be more than 10,000. A balcony is also called for under the general specifications. The building will conform to the general architectural style of the university buildings, which are noted for their beauty and uniformity of design.

ARRANGE SERIES FOR PREP TITLE

Deerfield, winner of class B championship in the Suburban Baseball league, and Evanston, class A victor, will play a three game series to determine the champion of the league.

The first of the series will be played tomorrow at Evanston; the second Tuesday at Deerfield, and, if necessary, the final contest will be played at Northwestern university Thursday.

8,000 FANS SEE CLASSY RACING AT AURORA TRACK

BY FRENCH LANE.

Aurora, Ill., June 4.—[Special.]—Broomster, a six year old son of Broomstick, and until early this spring a member of Harry Payne Whitney's famous racing stable, won the Inaugural handicap at the opening of the Chicago district racing season here this afternoon. Dustabout, from W. S. Heaton's string, was second, and Gold Mount third.

K. NOE.

Broomster, with Jockey K. Noe in the saddle, carried the red and white silks of L. T. Cooper, wealthy Miami turfman, to victory before a first day crowd of 8,000 racing fans. He came from behind in mid-stretch to win in a sensational finish in which Gold Mount, far in the lead in the early running, also surrendered to Dustabout in the last stride.

Betting Within the Law.

It was a fitting inaugural to what promises to be one of the most lively and most successful race meetings held in or near Chicago in nearly 25 years. It served to introduce for the first time in Illinois a modified form of pari-mutuel wagering, shaped in such a way that it is apparently within the law. It at least was within the law at Exposition park today, for throughout the long, hot afternoon hundreds of those in the opening throngs inclined to back their judgment on the outcome of a race purchased "earning certificates" for any sum from $2 up to $50.

Thrills in Handicap Finish.

Six accepted the issue in the handicap which featured the opening day. Jockey Roach rushed Gold Mount into a long lead, and as they rounded the first turn it looked as if he might have things his own way the rest of the trip home. Broomster and Dustabout took it easy down the back stretch, but on the last turn both moved up. Gold Mount raced gamely, and did not surrender his advantage until Broomster finally collared him a sixteenth out. He dropped out of it fast from then on, however, and it was easy for Dustabout in the last strides.

2,000 Arrive by Train.

The two special race trains operated over the Burlington were well filled, each pouring out more than 1,000 racegoers into the track here. Many hundreds of others came by motors.

Ten two year olds paraded to the post in the opening race and as the baby thoroughbreds came past the stands the big crowd gave them a fitting welcome. A Chicago youngster, running in the ever popular silks of Herbert G. Shimp's International stable, was installed the favorite, but she never had a chance to beat Vacation Time. Jockey L. Montgomery was away with a rush on the latter and he made every post a winning one.

The juiciest long shot of the day dropped out of the skies in the second when Peggy O, owned by J. H. Buscher, showed her heels nearly all the way to the favorite, Monastery, with Lavinia a close-up third. The winner paid the rather startling price of $146.60 for each two dollar certificate to win.

Favorites Are Beaten.

Two more favorites were bowled over in the third and fourth numbers when Marionette got up to beat out Pocket Mouse in the hard fought stretch struggle of the third and when Eddie Jr. raced to victory in the fourth. Fort Churchill, fresh from a victorious campaign at Tijuana, was the public choice in the fourth, but never figured seriously in the running.

While horses of the cheaper grade came together in the last two races, the finishes in which Sequel got a nose verdict over Annie Lyle in the sixth and when Proceeds came from far back to beat Tulalip by a head in the seventh were the most exciting of the big opening.

Miske Beats Tankerson for 19th Straight Win

Frank Miske, the fighting accountant, won his nineteenth straight bout as an amateur middleweight by beating Skyler Tankerson in the amateur bouts at Mullen's loop gym last night. Marty Fields won his fifth straight by beating Walter Johnson in one round. Other results:

118 pounds—Joe Patrice beat Patsy Chivoney [3]; Kid Ruppert and Jimmy Dunnington, draw [4]; 122 pounds, Carl Gallo beat Jack Zello [3]; 126 pounds, Joe Medill beat Nelson Ward [3]; 140 pounds, Jimmy Lawson beat Red Black [3]; heavyweights, George Vyhnalek beat Mickey Laflin [2].

Cheerful words which should help to disperse the opinion that Defensive Tom and Cautious Gene would put on an imitation of two turtles trying to discover which had the strongest backward pull when they meet tomorrow night.

Gibbons Is Fit.

Doesn't Intend to Kill.

"I've been misquoted some," he observed. "I never said I'd kill Tunney or even claimed that I would knock him out. I'll try to knock him out, of course, but I might not be able to do it."

Billy Gibson, manager of Gene Tunney, received the following cablegram today from Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, from Berlin, Germany:

"Will positively meet the winner of the Tunney-Gibbons bout if proper inducements are offered. We both are enjoying the trip immensely. Thanks for the good wishes. Hope you have a sell out."

TIGER FLOWERS RULES FAVORITE AGAINST MALONE

Theodore "Tiger" Flowers of Atlanta, Ga., who meets Jock Malone of St. Paul in the windup of the boxing show at East Chicago tonight, has been made a 6 to 5 favorite, and there is plenty of wagering on the result.

TIGER FLOWERS.

Followers of Flowers favor him to win because he can hit harder and will be on top of Jock most of the time. They assert Malone will not find time to step around and box his colored opponent, who can hit with either hand and from any angle. Malone followers, are confident Jock will take care of himself and will win the popular decision handily.

In the eight round semi-windup, Charley Anderson, the colored heavyweight of the south side, will meet "Wild Bill" Reed of Columbus, O. Norman Brown, the Hyde Park high school boxer, and the Terrible Turk of Chicago Heights will open the show in a four round encounter. Kewpie Tremble of East Chicago and Eddie Raynor of South Chicago meet in one of the six round preliminaries at 140 pounds, while Joe Hall of Buffalo and "Kid" Washington of the south side, lightweights, will mingle in the other six rounder.

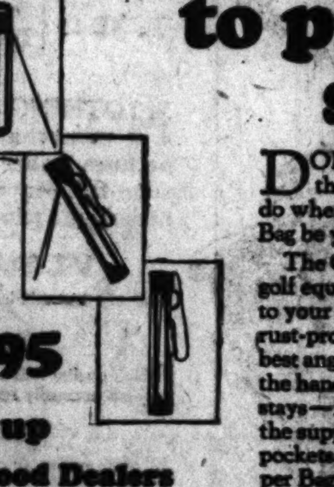
Why bang your clubs to pieces every shot you take



$5.95 and up
at good Dealers and your Pro.

DON'T rough up the head and shafts of your clubs as though they were picks and shovels. That's what you do when you bang them around. Let the Grasshopper Golf Bag be your caddy and take good care of your clubs.

The Grasshopper Golf Bag is the greatest improvement in golf equipment—the biggest help equipment can contribute to your game. Just a slight pressure on the handle causes two rust-proof steel legs to snap forward, supporting the bag at the best angle for selection and return of clubs. Pick up the bag by the handle or the strap, the legs flash back and hug snug to the stays—it looks like any other good bag. When the action of the supporting legs is not needed, they slip easily into their pockets, not noticeable in sight or weight. Let the Grasshopper Bag make your game better by making it easier.

If these things are true of Long Beach

The country home of M. V. Maloney, Oriole Trail, Long Beach (Architects, George W. Allen & Son)

If it is true that supervised play at Long Beach—hikes, races, games and aquatic sports will bring the ruddy glow of health to your children's cheeks—

If it is true that here mothers find freedom from worry about their children's welfare, rest and social life among congenial neighbors—

If—here in the famous beauty of the Dunes, we have built a rigidly restricted country home community where people of your kind have built two and one-half million dollars worth of artistic homes. Here they spend, not alone the summer months but glorious week-ends the year 'round, proving conclusively their confidence in the stability and permanence of Long Beach—

If every sport—tennis, horseback riding, 18 sporty holes of golf, the largest private club swimming tank in America, athletic, aquatic and golf instructors are here awaiting you—

If it is true that homesite purchasers are presented free with a $500 owner membership in the Long Beach Country Club which has $300,000 in physical assets—

If every modern convenience—gas, electricity, running water, telephone, mail and foodstuff deliveries have been provided—

If these things are true. If the same rigid restrictions assure constant homesite values and congenial neighbors always; what then, beside your own decision will keep from you and your family the social life, wholesome sports and desirable associations that Long Beach holds for you—and for them.

Our new book in colors, with over a hundred photos of supervised play, homes, golf—pictures of adventures in contentment—is waiting to tell you the story as well as paper and ink can.

Write for it—we'll send it gladly without cost. Or better, drive out this week-end. See this, the finest restricted, matured country home community in the middle west. Homesite prices are not high—terms are reasonable. Our guides are courteous, ethical and considerate. Come now—while the Lupines are still in bloom. Come—a thousand welcomes await you.

Bill Killefer's Cubs and the Brooklyn Robins wallowed in base hits yesterday. Home runs, triples, doubles, and singles came in large quantities, and so far as the safe blows were concerned the Robins had the edge, but the Cubs happened to score the most runs, and when a welcome finish had been reached the north siders were in possession of their third straight win. The count was 11 to 9, and over 10,000 patrons acted as though they had a big time.

The slapping of the jack rabbit baseballs was so extensive that the victors exploded sixteen hits for twenty-seven bases, and the Brooklyn fellows manufactured eighteen taps for a total of thirty-four bases. All of this naturally made life tough for the pitchers and seven of them horned in to get a piece of it, the last being "Sheriff" Blake, who had to hot foot to the slab in the ninth to save Tony Kaufmann, who seemed determined to let a five run lead get away from him.

Grimm's Bat Is Deadly.

Much of the damage inflicted by the Cubs was due to the bat of Charley Grimm. Every time he was up he either scored a run or drove one home, sometimes both. He showed his versatility by slamming a homer to right, a double to left, a couple of singles to right, and a sacrifice fly to center. Freigau and Griffith also helped themselves to four base wallops, but "Gabby" Hartnett, whose specialty is home runs, couldn't even notch as much as a lone single.

The trio of homers by the Bruins should have been enough for one day, but two others were uncorked by the Robins. One of them was very potent and for a few minutes made it look as if the Cubs might be in for a trimming. Taylor was responsible for it. He poked the pill into the right field seats in the fourth when the sacks were jammed.

Brooks, who ran second to Grimm for local hitting honors, started the rough housing in the second. He opened the inning with a single against "Rube" Ehrhardt, who was performing before several hundred of his admirers from Chicago Heights. Three others hit safely in the same frame for three runs. Then came that telling wallop by Taylor in the fourth, and in the home half Grimm tied it at four apiece with his homer. Then it was just a case of seesaw until the Cubs broke out in the seventh.

With the count knotted at six each, Freigau stepped up in the home half of the seventh and planted the ball among the left field customers. Brooks followed with a bunt, on which Johnston fumbled, and the $25,000 beaut scored later on a single by Griffith, a pass to Hartnett, and Grimm's long fly.

Cubs Find Green Easy.

In the eighth the Robins dropped a lad named Green on the hill and the Cubs made him live up to his name. Maranville started a real parade with a single. Freigau and Brooks also hit; so did Grimm and Weis, all of which let three runners scoot over the pan.

Fournier was the first man up in the ninth and he lined the ball into the seats in right. Brown then notched a fluke single behind short and Loftus doubled, and when Stock's long fly to right fell on the base line for a triple, the situation became alarming so Killefer decided to give Tony some help. Blake proved the right man for the job.

IRVING-LOGANS WIN.

The Irving-Logan team of the Post Office baseball league, defeated Ravenswood station team, 12 to 7. The Irving-Logan team is now leading the north division with five games won and none lost.

ARNOLD STATZ, CUB FOUR YEARS, IS SENT BACK TO LOS ANGELES

ARNOLD STATZ is no longer a Cub. President William Veeck of the north side team last night announced that "Jigger," who has covered the center field for the Cubs for the last three years had been released unconditionally to the Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast league. Statz came to the Cubs in 1922 for the reported purchase price of $50,000, coming from the Los Angeles club.

The great overstock of outfielders and the disappointment in Statz' hitting during last season and this year are the probable reasons for Statz' release.

SOX OPEN SERIES IN WASHINGTON TODAY

ARCHDEACON RELEASED

BALTIMORE, Md., June 4.—(AP)—Manager Jack Dunn of the Baltimore Internationals announced today that he had obtained Maurice Archdeacon, outfielder, from the Chicago Americans. Archdeacon is to report here tomorrow.

Secretary Harry Grabiner of the White Sox declared last night that Archdeacon had been released to Baltimore on option subject to recall.

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.]—After a long, hot, dry, and dusty ride the slugging White Sox arrived in Washington tonight and found everything here hot, dusty, and dry, with no chance to get cool or wet. A four days' engagement of diamond battling between the Sox and world champion Senators will begin tomorrow afternoon.

The Sox are liable to knock the world's champions flat, too, in this series. The Sox are all swelled up on themselves. The way they knocked the cover off the ball in the three games in Detroit has just about convinced them they can go out and take toe holds with any of them. Previous to that Detroit series there had always been a suspicion that the Sox couldn't hit much. Some of the players themselves began to believe it.

It's pitching that is worrying Boss Collins now. The task of selecting a hurler who can go out and stop the opposition is getting tougher and tougher. It's tough to decide, for instance, just which one of the hurlers to send in against the champs tomorrow.

Probably it will be little Mike Cvengros. He has enough stuff to make world's champions quit baseball in disgust. Only trouble is Mike can't always make use of it. Charley Robertson may be chosen for the opener here.

JOHNNY LENIHAN OF DE LA SALLE JOINS WHITE SOX

The Chicago White Sox yesterday added another scholastic diamond star to Collins' collegians, Johnny Lenihan, flashy third baseman of the De La Salle academy of Chicago, being sent east to complete the eastern tour with the team.

Johnny is too young to sign a contract, but Owner Comiskey considered him worth tutoring. He is the heavy hitter of the Catholic league.

Turkish-Domestic and—
A Dash of JAVA!

"A dash of Java!" You have never heard of it perhaps, in connection with a smoke; yet thousands have already learned of it, and its discovery is spreading like wildfire.

Mixing Java tobacco with the finest of Turkish and domestic tobaccos is Palina's discovery. Smokers and manufacturers have sought this blend for years. You will marvel that such satin-like mildness can be combined with such richness and flavor.

Lay down 15c for a trial package of Palinas today. You'll be repaid with the most delightful cigarette surprise you have ever experienced.

Tobacconists everywhere can supply you.

Java tobacco is distinctly different from any other tobacco in the world. It gives to Turkish and domestic a satin-like smoothness, eliminating the harshness without taking away from taste or fullness.

1923 BIG YEAR FOR MICHIGAN AUTO INDUSTRY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.]—An increase of 91 per cent in the value of products turned out by Michigan automobile factories in 1923, as compared to 1921, is shown in the figures of the biennial census of manufacturers made public today by the department of commerce.

The total output of Michigan's leading industry, at factory prices, was $1,551,990,000 for 1923. It was $812,379,000 for 1921. The number of workers increased 76.5 per cent, or from 84,573 to 149,296.

Although the output and pay rolls for the industry increased, the actual number of manufacturing establishments decreased from 66 to 54.

The record of all industries for the entire state having outputs in excess of $5,000 a year shows there were 5,698 establishments in 1923 employing 503,492 workers, with total pay rolls of $768,659,249 and an output of $3,870,434,161.

The manufacture of automobile bodies and parts ranked next to the automobile industry proper. The 152 establishments employing 25,813 workers in 1921 had been increased to 175 plants employing 70,157 wage earners in 1923. The total pay roll in this industry mounted from $38,543,936 in 1921 to $121,993,710 in 1923, while the value of products jumped from $176,791,523 to $476,523,887.

4 out of 5 get Pyorrhea

The law of averages is immutable. Dental statistics prove that four out of every five over 40—and thousands younger, too—are marred by Pyorrhea. Do you want to escape?

It takes healthy gums to keep healthy teeth

If you neglect your gums—let them get in a "run-down" condition—you may soon be numbered among Pyorrhea's countless victims.

Bleeding gums are Nature's first warning. Then the gums begin to recede, lose that rich, healthy-pink color. Poisons collect in pus pockets and often drain through the entire system, causing indigestion, anaemia, rheumatism and other serious diseases of mid-life. In the final stages the teeth loosen and fall out.

Take no chances—use Forhan's

If used in time and used consistently, Forhan's will prevent Pyorrhea, or check its progress—something ordinary tooth pastes are powerless to do. It contains just the right proportion of Forhan's Astringent (as used by the dental profession in the treatment of Pyorrhea). It is safe, efficient and pleasant tasting. Even if you don't care to discontinue your favorite dentifrice, at least start using Forhan's once a day.

Forhan's is more than a tooth paste; it checks Pyorrhea. Thousands have found it beneficial for years. For your own sake ask for and get Forhan's For the Gums. At all druggists, 35c and 60c in tubes.

REPORTS OF CROP INJURY AGAIN PUT WHEAT PRICES UP

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

A bull market was on in wheat, with September and December selling at a new high on the crop, while the July was in new ground on the present upturn. Trade broadened materially, belated public realization that the United States was on practically a domestic basis with the winter wheat crop going backward daily increasing the buying of futures materially, and the close was 2¼@4c higher, with July leading. The latter touched $1.68⅝, and closed at $1.68@1.68¼, while September sold at $1.64⅛ and finished at $1.63⅜@1.63⅝. Corn was 2⅝@3⅛c higher, with December leading. Oats were 1⅝@1⅞c, and rye 2½@4⅛c higher.

Further complaints regarding damage to the wheat crop in parts of Illinois and Indiana were received, and hot winds were reported in Kansas. There was a noticeable tendency to lower estimates on the yield in the latter states, with some showing under 70,000,000 bu, about the lowest so far. The forecast was for unsettled weather, with little change in temperature.

Canada Offers Wheat Abroad.

Liverpool made a relatively poor response to the strength in America the previous day, due to pressure of Manitobas, and it was said the leading holders in Canada were offering freely at low prices in an effort to clean up the wheat held at the head of the lakes.

July wheat gained 1c over the September, and it is understood there is a liberal sized outstanding short interest in the nearby delivery, while the steady deterioration in the crop prospects in Illinois and Indiana is causing doubt as to whether Chicago will get any material quantity of cash grain when the new crop starts to move. Cables from abroad reported the foreigners thought crop damage reports were exaggerated from this country. The outlook in Europe remains favorable. Export sales were 200,000 bu in all positions, with some hard winter bought back by the seaboard.

More Interest in Corn.

Recent rains over the corn belt were largely in the way of showers and failed to provide more than temporary relief. Outside trade broadened materially in all deliveries, especially the December, and the close was firm, with cash handlers reporting the best eastern demand in some time, with shipping sales of 166,000 bu. Traders are looking for further improvement in the cash demand and also for a marked falling off in the movement from the country.

Unfavorable crop reports from the central west on oats brought in a better class of buying, and the undertone was firm throughout the day. Rains and cooler weather are needed over a wide territory. Sales of 100,000 bu were made to go to store.

Damage Reports Help Rye.

Renewed damage reports on rye were received, and the trade paid more attention to them than of late, the close being at the top. Export demand was slow.

Strength in Liverpool, where lard was 1s 3d@3s 3d higher, combined with free buying by a strong commission house, carried futures here up sharply to a new high on the present upturn, and the close was 32½@40c higher. Ribs were 5@10c lower, and bellies 25c lower. Prices follow:

RAILROADS TO GET I. C. C. HEARING ON SUBURBAN FARES

The battle of railroads serving Chicago's suburbs to raise commutation fares has been carried to the interstate commerce commission. The roads recently applied to the Illinois commerce commission for an increase of 20 per cent. This was refused.

The interstate commerce commission announced last night that commutation fares will be investigated on the plea of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad that it is losing money on such traffic because it has not been permitted to make the 20 per cent increase. The Northwestern says it lost $1,264,000 on its intrastate commutation business last year. It asserts that interstate commerce is being discriminated against and that interstate fares to Wisconsin are being defeated by passengers riding on Illinois intrastate commutation fares to points near Wisconsin.

RAILROAD NOTES

Authority to acquire and operate 41 miles of the old Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis line, between Jacksonville and Havana, Ill., was asked by the Jacksonville and Havana Railroad company in an application filed with the interstate commerce commission. The company, organized to take over the line, proposes to issue and sell $300,000 of first mortgage 6 per cent bonds and a like amount of 6 per cent preferred stock.

Appointment of Dennis F. Lyons as general counsel of the Northern Pacific railway was announced, the appointment resulting from the retirement from that post of Charles W. Bunn after 29 years of service with the road. Mr. Bunn remains as vice president and special counsel. The appointments are effective July 1. Mr. Lyons has been general solicitor of the railroad since 1919.

Special group rates offered by the Kansas railroads to the advancing horde of harvesters were announced by L. T. Hussey, chairman of the state public service commission. The reductions will be operative from June 15 to July 15.

Freight cars in need of repair on May 15 totaled 193,035, or 8.50 per cent of the total number on lines, according to reports received by the American Railway association. This is an increase of 3,521 over the number reported on May 1. Cars in need of heavy repair totaled 146,541, or 6.30 per cent, an increase of 2,494 cars, compared with the May 1 total, and cars needing light repairs amounted to 46,494, or 2 per cent, an increase of 1,027 cars.

The conference of railway executives, railway union officers, heads of employes' pension and veteran associations, and prominent citizens, called by W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, to discuss relationships between railway employes and railway managements, will meet in Cleveland June 29.

Chicago and Alton handled 35,555 carloads during the month of May, as compared with 36,962 a year ago.

RAW SILK MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 4.—SILK—Raw unchanged.

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

The advance in wheat in two days has been over 11c, with the feeling more bullish as prices advance and crop reports continue to make a poor showing. The United States is practically on a domestic basis, considering the present crop prospects, which naturally creates a confident feeling among holders, who say that it is immaterial to the trade in the United States whether Liverpool advances or declines.

The public has been a good buyer of wheat for three days, especially yesterday. They are taking July and September, mostly the latter, while cash interests and those who believe that there will be limited marketings early next month, are taking the July. The July shows signs of congestion, as the country is not selling new wheat to arrive. Usually some of the large commission houses have several million bushels of new wheat bought by this time, while one house said that it had not bought more than 50,000 bushels. This is due to belief on the part of the farmers that prices will be higher and to uncertainty as to the outcome of the crop as thrashing returns will have to tell the story.

A Board of Trade membership sold at $7,700 net to the buyer, an advance of $200 within a few weeks.

Estimates on the Kansas wheat crop by observers who have been over it the last few days, range from 69,000,000 to 77,000,000 bu. Kansas City July wheat closed 4¼c higher at the best of the day at $1.59⅝. September was up 3¼c at $1.56. Within a week the Kansas crop has been estimated at 83,000,000 to 90,000,000 bu.

Temperatures in parts of Canada yesterday were around 32, not good for the crop, but it is not advanced sufficiently to be seriously hurt.

CASH GRAIN NEWS

Export sales of wheat in all positions at the seaboard were estimated at 250,000 bu. Two houses bought back hard winters from abroad. Scandinavia took a little rye, while Wednesday's business in rye was estimated at 300,000 bu.

Chicago handlers sold 5,000 bu wheat, 166,000 bu corn, and 75,000 bu oats to the domestic trade, with 100,000 bu oats sold to go to store.

Milling demand for cash wheat at Kansas City and Minneapolis showed marked improvement, with prices at Kansas City 2@6c higher, while the basis at Minneapolis advanced 2@3c. Shippers were also after wheat at Minneapolis. St. Louis and Omaha prices were 2@4c higher. The local basis was steady on red winter at 18@20c over July for No. 2, while hard winter was steady to 2c higher, with No. 2 at 2@5c over the future.

Offerings of cash corn were fair with a good demand at unchanged prices as compared with the July. Outside markets were unchanged to 3c higher, with Omaha showing the most strength.

Cash oats were in fair demand at 1¼@1½c over July for No. 2 white and ½@1c under the July for No. 3 white.

Official receipts of grain at Chicago Thursday: Wheat, 32 cars; corn, 210 cars; oats, 57 cars; rye, 3 cars; barley, 8 cars.

WALL STREET NOTES

NEW YORK, June 4.—[A. P.]—Pronounced reactionary tendencies developed in today's curb market. Lehigh Power Securities broke 8½ points to 142, while net losses of 2 to 7 points took place in Adirondack Power, American Light and Traction, American Power and Light, Electric Bond and Share, Commonwealth Power, Power Corporation of New York, Southeastern Power and Light, United Gas and Electric, and Western Power.

Mixed movements took place in the industrial list. Chrysler Motors broke 4½ points to 114½. Purity Baking B touched a record top at 47 and then slipped back to 45½, up 1⅝ on the day. Durant Motors sank more than 2 points to a record low of 11⅝, but recovered most of the day's loss.

Standard Oil of Kentucky advanced 1⅝ to 119⅜, and Humble Oil improved fractionally, but most of the other oils sold off despite the extension of gasoline price advances. Sun Oil dropped back 2 points from its recent high, but the net losses in the other active issues were held to fractions.

United States and foreign government obligations held the limelight in the bond market, which failed to maintain its early showing of strength. The recent advance in Hungarian 7½s which has carried them to record high prices was linked with reports that a new loan or credit might be arranged here for the government. Other European issues responded to the progress which has been made in stabilizing continental finances and currencies. German 7s touched a new peak at 98, and Belgian 6s and 6½s also worked into new high ground. United States treasury obligations rose to the best prices in their history, as bidding was inspired by reports that the new treasury financing would be done on a low yield basis.

Development of opposition to the St. Paul reorganization plan brought about moderate reactions in the road's junior securities, while the mortgage bonds and Terre Haute issues encountered profit taking after yesterday's rally. Southern Pacific collateral 4s and Illinois Central 5½s were among the few strong spots in the rail list. Oil company liens turned heavy in line with selling of petroleum stocks, which followed the announcement of another substantial increase in crude production.

"The Land of Live-forever"

Rest in Colorado

Go into the heart of the Rockies this summer and hide from your cares. When you return, they will have vanished.

That is why Colorado is "the land of live-forever." Care cannot mingle in the outdoor life of Rocky Mountain National Park—and the Pikes Peak region.

Years ago Care toppled from the crest of Long's Peak; slid down living glaciers from the "Top O' The World;" and forsook Denver's Mountain Parks where Buffalo Bill lies in his last long sleep.

Even the en route part of a Colorado trip is carefree. The famous ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED takes you direct to either Denver or Colorado Springs. Chicago today—the heart of the Rockies to-morrow.

You can spend two weeks in the Colorado Rockies for as little as $125—only a trifle more than a vacation at home would cost. Our Travel Bureau will show you how.

SURPLUS VALUE WAIL FAILS TO STIR SCRUTATOR

BY SCRUTATOR.

Although the figures showing the increasing consumption of goods per capita in this country are eloquent of the ability of American capitalism to expand its consumption to keep pace, in the long run, with productive capacity, and the assumed imperative necessity for foreign outlets for a large per cent of our goods has not appeared, we are constantly warned that our productive capacity is too great. We are told that we will reach a period when the chronic unemployment of a large fraction of our people will be as noticeable here as in Britain.

All of these predictions and forebodings go back to the same fount of ideas, from which spring the socialist theory of "surplus value" and the eventual collapse of capitalism. If the capitalist robs the worker of "surplus value" it is obvious that the worker cannot buy it back, and when finally there is nobody here except a few capitalists and hordes of workers robbed of "surplus value" there will be no market for the products of capitalist industry.

Twenty-five years is a long time in the history of capitalism, about a sixth of the entire time since the introduction of the factory system of production, but in this last sixth part of the capitalist era we have seen American factories increase their output 185 per cent, with the number of wage earners rising only 90 per cent.

There has been no collapse as the result of the abstraction of all the socialistic "surplus value" indicated by those two figures. On the contrary, there has been an ever widening home market to absorb all but a small fraction of the increased product. Part of that widening home market is explained by the fact that in a period of five years, in which the value of manufactured products increased 160 per cent, the wages of the workers increased 150 per cent.

Pages could be filled with similar figures and comparisons, all of which would show that there must be something vitally wrong with the whole theory of "surplus value," exploitation of the worker, and the eventual collapse of capitalism from lack of markets in which to sell its stolen goods.

But the old error persists. A British ambassador spoke in that vein the other day when discussing his country's future. His words were promptly taken up and set to Red music by writers who cherish the "hope deferred that maketh the heart sick" that capitalism is going to collapse.

The Wolf in Sheep's Clothing

A wolf found great difficulty in getting at the sheep owing to the vigilance of the shepherd and his dogs. But one day the wolf found the skin of a sheep that had been flayed and thrown aside, so he put it on over his own pelt and strolled down among the sheep. The lamb, whose mother's skin the wolf was wearing, began to follow the wolf in the sheep's clothing; so, leading the lamb a little apart he soon made a meal of her, and for some time he succeeded in deceiving the sheep and enjoying hearty meals.

PROTECT THE PRINCIPAL

If you leave your estate to your dependents outright, you will provide them with the means for obtaining an income. But their income will decrease if there is any shrinkage in the principal.

When you name this Bank—a Trust Company—as Executor and Trustee of your estate, you safeguard the principal which is the source of income. This is one of the most important considerations when you make a Will and plan for the protection of your estate.

OBJECTIONS TO ST. PAUL PLAN BEGIN TO APPEAR

BY O. A. MATHER.

Possible opposition to the proposed reorganization plan of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad cropped out yesterday. At the same time trading in the securities to be issued under the plan began on a "when issued" basis and gave some indication of their probable market values.

A group of stockholders headed by J. D. Shatford as representing the American Railroad Owners' association, announced opposition to the plan unless the reorganization managers enlist banking support to help the stockholders in meeting their assessments and so prevent small holders from being squeezed out. A Wall street firm representing several large institutional holders of St. Paul securities argued that the receivership results from confiscatory freight rates, not from bad financing nor bad management, and therefore a reorganization should be delayed until pending applications for higher rates have been decided.

Plan Is Defended.

The reorganization managers defended the plan. Receiver H. E. Byram said the demand of small stockholders that the bankers aid them in raising their assessments is practicable, that the burden had been lightened by permitting installments covering a number of months and that the stockholders could pledge the new securities they will receive. He said the junior bond holders are asked merely to sacrifice interest for a few years until the road can be restored to a sound financial position. Charles E. Mitchell said it would be absurd to delay the reorganization until the rate question can be settled by the interstate commerce commission.

On the New York curb market yesterday the new 5 per cent bonds which stockholders will receive for part of their assessment sold between $81 and $82. The adjustment 5 per cent bonds to be exchanged for present junior bonds sold between 53⅛ and 54¼. The new preferred stock sold at 28.

Money Situation Stable.

Stability in money rates and the general credit situation of the country is indicated in the weekly report of the federal reserve system. While loans for the whole system declined $1,657,000 in the last week, this was entirely due to a contraction of $5,940,000 at New York. Open market bills purchased by the system increased $6,541,000, government securities expanded $4,891,000, and earning assets were up $9,775,000. Gold and total reserves declined $19,871,000 and $24,288,000, respectively.

The principal change was in deposits, which expanded $20,271,000, with member bank reserve credits and other deposits increasing $8,747,000 and $11,116,000 respectively. Note circulation increased $4,051,000. The ratio of reserves to liabilities receded to 75.9 from 77 per cent in the preceding week.

Steel Foundries Dividend.

More cheerful dividend announcements appeared yesterday. The American Steel Foundries declared an initial quarterly dividend of 75 cents on the new common stock, this being the same rate as was paid on the old stock, for which new stock was issued in the ratio of five new for four old shares. President R. P. Lamont said operations continue at 70 per cent of capacity and the outlook is promising.

The Packard Motor Car company declared an extra dividend of 5 per cent on its common stock and the regular quarterly payment of 3 per cent. This makes total cash disbursements of 20 per cent for the fiscal year to end Aug. 31, as no further dividends will be declared before then. An extra of 3 per cent was paid in October. The Midland Steel Products company declared an extra of about 40 cents on the common and an extra of $1 on the preferred stock.

New York, June 4.—(AP)—Heavy selling for both accounts took place in today's stock market, recessions of one to five points being quite common at the close.

Uneasiness caused by the suspension of trading in the old Maxwell shares, the weakness of French exchange, the apparent inability of operators on the long side to attract a large public offering, and the marking up of call money rates toward the close, all had a depressing effect on speculative sentiment. Selling pressure was most acute against a number of motors, public utilities, and specialties which had enjoyed an almost uninterrupted advance in the last few weeks.

General Electric broke 5½ points to 289, while net declines of 2½ points or more were recorded by American Can, California Packing, Du Pont, General Baking, La Clede Gas, Loose-Wiles Biscuit, Mack Trucks, Montana Power, F. G. Shattuck, and U. S. Cast Iron Pipe.

While pool operations were suspended in many issues, independent strength was shown by about a score of motors and specialties, Nash, Moon, U. S. Rubber first preferred, Fisher Body, Coca Cola, Cushman's Bakery, Ward Baking "B," Tobacco Products, and American Telephone all being lifted to new high records for the year.

Maxwell "B" certificates broke from 119¾ to 112 and then rallied to 115½ for a net loss of 3½ points on the day. An "over the counter" market developed for the old Maxwell "A" and "B" shares. The first quotation was 118 bid and 122 asked.

Accumulation was noted in some of the eastern rails on rumors of a possible change in control. Lackawanna was run up nearly five points to 146⅝, and then slipped back to 145, while Lehigh Valley showed a net gain of about a point at 80¾ after having sold as high as 81½. St. Paul issues displayed a firm undertone. Southern Railway was strong in the early trading, but sold off later.

Coppers lost ground on liquidation by traders who had become tired of waiting for the predicted increase in red metal prices. American Smelting and Anaconda each fell back about two points, while losses of a point or more were recorded by Kennecott, Magma, and Cerro de Pasco.

Midcontinent Oil displayed a strong undertone, but the other oils failed to respond to reports of additional gasoline price advances. The extremely hot weather of the last few days stimulated the buying of American Ice, which crossed 113 to the highest price in three years.

Montana Power.

G. L., Oak Park, Ill.—Montana Power company is a super-power system, handling a large part of the state of Montana and with some of its lines going into eastern Idaho and supplying the "St. Paul" railroad with power. It had outstanding as of Dec. 31, 1924, $49,633,300 of common stock, preceded by $9,784,600 of 7 per cent preferred stock and a funded debt of $34,949,700. Net income available for dividends after bond interest, depreciation, etc., for 1924 was $2,911,233, compared with $3,067,752 for 1923. This was at the rate of $29.75 a share earned on the preferred stock and $4.48 a share on the common in 1924, against $31.36 a share on the preferred and $4.80 a share on the common in 1923. In the first quarter of 1925 it earned $1.64 a share on the common stock, compared with $1.43 a share in that quarter of 1924. The company is paying dividends at the rate of $4 a share per annum on the common stock. A new plant costing about $1,000,000 was put into operation in March, 1925. The preferred stock is high grade and the common deserves a good rating.

Top and average hog prices were carried down 5c at $12.40 and $12.10, respectively, on yesterday's steady to 15c lower market. With eastern demand narrow, light and underweights weakened most, closing in spots as much as 25c lower on hogs weighing under 150 lbs., while medium and weighty butchers late, held firm at the decline. Choice 211@283 lb averages topped at $12.40, with best 180 lb averages at $12.30. Top a week ago at $12.80, was paid for sorted 200 pounders, when fancy heavy butchers were bringing $12.50. Prevailing quotations are mostly 15@25c under a week ago, the average indicating 15c decline since last Thursday.

The few loads of strictly choice steers on sale were disposed of on a strong to 10c higher basis, while other kinds were largely 10@15c lower. A load of 1,497 lb steers sold for shipment to New York at $11.60, or 10c above the previous top this week for heavy steers and 35c above high point last week for this class. Steers averaging 806@1,080 lbs sold at $11.75, the day's high point. Some 1,581 lb shippers went at $11.25. Butcher stock sold steady, two loads of 652 lb "baby" heifers making $10.75. Canning stock, bulls, and feeding steers were little changed, and calves 25@50c lower. Cattle receipts at 11,000 were beyond expectations. Quality was fairly good.

Lambs Break Again.

The largest Thursday sheep receipts since January, consisting largely of springers, broke prices another 25@50c, bringing total declines since last week's close to $1.25@1.50 on better grades and $2.50@3.00 on culls. Aged shorn lambs are off 75c@$1.00 for the week thus far. However, stock sold freely at yesterday's additional reductions, indicating that the market has reached a more paying basis and a firmer tone was apparent on late rounds. Aged sheep continued dull. Top Idaho 69 lb spring lambs were $15.40; best natives, $15.25, with culls at $10.00@10.50. Top 79 lb shorn lambs sold at $13.50. Fair quality California springers sold at $14.50. Range feeding lambs brought $13.50@13.75.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 2,000 cattle, 18,000 hogs, and 9,000 sheep, against 3,598 cattle, 30,033 hogs, and 12,497 sheep the corresponding Friday a year ago.

Cotton prices moved up sharply on buying by shorts and while the top figures were not maintained there were gains of 35 to 37 points in Chicago and 47 to 57 in New York, while New Orleans was up 90 to 108 points in two days, showing an advance of more than $5 a bale.

Spot cotton in other markets was up 1c a pound and New York gained 40 points. Bearish news seemed to have been discounted and there was buying of July against sales of October in New York by leading spot interests, while the spot demand generally was better. Prices in the leading markets follow:

REAL ESTATE SALESMAN.

Fifty men in our organization have closed over $3,500,000 worth of real estate for the year 1924. We feel that for a salesman to be successful in real estate, he must work for a concern that develops its properties and builds homes. In our 20 years' experience, each and every one of our subdivisions has advanced and has made money for our customers.

The last 2 years we have built homes for over 5,000 people. We run no schools for salesmen; we are looking for salesmen under 40 yrs. old, energetic and clean cut, who want good leads and prospects to work on and will appreciate real co-operation.

OUR PROPERTIES, HOMES, BUNGALOWS, ACRES, 2 and 5 ACRE TRACTS ARE LOCATED ON THE NORTHWESTERN, AURORA & ELGIN, BURLINGTON and ROCK ISLAND R. R.

See Mr. Ford, Salesmanager, Arthur T. McIntosh & Co., Rm. 837, 160 N. La Salle-st., Chicago, between 9 and 11 a. m.

REAL ESTATE SALESMEN.

Since November, 1924, we have been beautifying a wonderful tract of land in Lake Forest. The property will soon be ready for sale. The price per lot is the lowest of any on the North Shore, considering the location and the improvements. Every foot of the entire tract is highly restricted and magnificent homes are now being planned to be built on a few of the lots. This is the "big man's" opportunity. The ordinary lot salesman who can "go out and get a $25 deposit and balance of payments on a lot of $10 to $15 per month need not apply for this position. We want big men who can talk to big people and put over big sales.

Our company has been established here in Chicago since 1891 and been in business continuously here ever since. Do you want to make $300 to $500 per week? If so, hitch your wagon to our star. Address F G 106, Tribune.

The Special Master, at the time and place hereinbefore designated, will first offer for sale separately the so-called Gary Terminal property hereinbefore and in said decree described, and will invite bids for the same. Immediately thereafter the Special Master will offer for sale all of the other property hereinbefore and in said decree described other than said Gary Terminal property, and will invite bids for the same. Thereafter the Special Master will offer for sale as an entirety all of said property hereinbefore and in said decree described, including said Gary Terminal property, and will invite bids for the same. No bid shall be received by the Special Master from any person until such person shall have made a deposit as a bidder for said Gary Terminal property in the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) and/or as a bidder for the remainder of said property other than the said Gary Terminal property in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), and/or as a bidder for the entire property, including the said Gary Terminal property, in the sum of Eleven Thousand Dollars ($11,000.00), in cash or certified check acceptable to the Special Master and made or endorsed payable to his order, provided, however, that if any person shall make said deposit as a bidder for said entire property, said deposit shall be considered as also covering the deposit required to support his bid or bids for said Gary Terminal property and for said entire property exclusive of said Gary Terminal property. Any deposit received from any unsuccessful bidder [illegible]

The said property will be sold subject to any and all taxes and public charges falling due and becoming delinquent after the date of said sale and subject to a lien for Ten Thousand Dollars [$10,000.00] and accrued interest and charges thereon in favor of The Guardian Trust Company upon and against a certain part of said property known as the Pullman property hereinbefore and in said decree referred to and described.

In the event that a sale shall be made either of said entire property as a whole or of said entire property exclusive of said Gary Terminal property, such sale shall be made without the benefit of valuation or appraisement and without right of redemption.

No minimum price is put upon the property ordered by said decree to be sold, but the court reserves full power and discretion to reject any bid which in his judgment is inadequate or otherwise subject to just objection.

A purchaser of said entire property exclusive of said Gary Terminal property shall be required to pay upon his bid such further portion of the purchase price therefor, in addition to the deposit hereinbefore and in said decree provided for, as the court may direct to be paid in cash, and such purchaser may satisfy or make good the balance of his bid in whole or in part by turning in to be paid and canceled or for credit thereon any of the bonds and claims for past due interest appertaining thereto entitled to share in the distribution of the proceeds of the sale, and such purchaser shall be credited therefor on account of the purchase price with such sums as would be payable in cash on said obligations and interest out of the proceeds of such sale if the whole amount of the purchase price were paid in cash. Payment of the purchase price in the manner hereinbefore and in said decree provided shall be made within thirty [30] days after the confirmation of the sale unless the court shall otherwise direct.

Any purchaser of said Gary Terminal property alone shall, within thirty [30] days after confirmation of sale, be required to pay the entire purchase price thereof in cash unless said purchase price is greater than the amount necessary to pay in full the liens on said Gary Terminal property in said decree adjudged in favor of The Guardian Trust Company and The Cleveland Trust Company, Trustee under a certain Eight Hundred Thousand Dollar [$800,000.00] Loan Agreement dated April 14, 1910, but if said purchase price is greater than the amount required to pay off said two liens, the balance of said purchase price over and above said amount may be paid by turning in bonds as provided in the foregoing paragraph with reference to the sale of said entire property exclusive of said Gary Terminal property.

Any purchaser of the entire property, including said Gary Terminal property, shall, within thirty [30] days after the confirmation of the sale, be required to pay in cash in addition to the amount of cash above required to be paid by any purchaser of the entire property exclusive of said Gary Terminal property, a further sum in cash sufficient to pay off said liens of The Guardian Trust Company and The Cleveland Trust Company, Trustee under said Eight Hundred Thousand Dollar [$800,000.00] Loan Agreement of April 14, 1910, or as much of said two liens as shall equal the purchase price of said Gary Terminal property apportioned to it in the manner provided in said decree, and said purchaser of the entire property shall also have the same right to satisfy or make good the balance of his bid by turning in bonds as above given to any purchaser of said entire property exclusive of said Gary Terminal property, and shall also pay the balance of said entire purchase price in the manner above provided within thirty [30] days after confirmation of sale.

No purchaser at any sale or sales made pursuant to this notice shall be bound to inquire into or see to the application of the purchase money.

Until any purchaser, his successors and assigns, shall have paid in full in the manner herein and in said decree provided the entire amount of his bid for any properties at said sale, the court reserves a paramount lien and charge upon the property sold to said purchaser for the payment of any unpaid portion of the purchase price, and in case any purchaser, his successors or assigns, shall make default for a period of thirty [30] days in complying with the directions or any order for said payment made by the court, then the court may retake and resell the property sold to such purchaser, and at the cost and risk of such purchaser.

The court reserves the right to retake and resell any property purchased upon the failure of any bidder, the conditional acceptance of whose bid by the Special Master shall have been confirmed and ratified by the court, to comply with the terms of sale or with any order of the court regarding payment of the purchase price within thirty [30] days after service of notice of the entry of such order, and in case of such resale all sums paid by any defaulting purchaser may be forfeited as a penalty for such non-compliance, or such defaulting purchaser may be held liable for any deficiency remaining upon the price bid by him upon the property resold after subtracting from the proceeds of such resale all expenses of such resale, and after giving credit to such defaulting purchaser for the amounts theretofore paid by him and the amounts realized upon such resale. The court reserves full jurisdiction to grant any order, judgment or decree necessary to enforce the provisions of said decree against such defaulting purchaser.

The purchaser shall, as part consideration, and in addition to the sum bid for such property, take the conveyance and assignment thereof upon the express condition that to the extent that the assets or the proceeds of assets then remaining in the receiver's hands shall be insufficient, such purchaser, his successors or assigns shall pay, satisfy, or discharge: (1) Any unpaid compensation which shall be allowed by the court to the Receiver; and (2) Any unpaid indebtedness or obligations or liabilities which shall have been duly contracted or incurred by the Receiver before delivery of possession of the property sold. All payments for any such purposes made by the purchaser in advance of the final accounting and discharge of the Receiver shall be treated as advances and subject to final adjustment upon such accounting. The purchaser of any of said property shall also take the same subject to the performance by him or his successors or assigns of all pending contracts in respect thereof theretofore lawfully made by the Receiver.

The purchaser or purchasers, or his or their successors or assigns, at any time after the confirmation of the sale herein decreed, shall in any event before the execution and delivery as in said decree ordered of the deed of the Special Master, may disavow, renounce, or relinquish any contract or lease to which said Railway Company is a party, or the rights thereunder which are a part of the property so sold. Such disavowal or disavowals shall be made by instruments in writing filed with the Clerk of the Court within the aforesaid period of time, and no user of rights prior to the delivery of the deed of the Special Master unaccompanied by the filing of such written instrument shall be deemed to conclude the purchaser in respect of such disavowal, but no such disavowal or disavowals shall entitle the purchaser to any reduction in the amount of his bid.

The court reserves exclusive power and jurisdiction to deliver to the purchaser title to and possession of the property directed to be sold, to determine all controversies as to the character, extent, and validity of the possession of such purchaser acquired through the execution of said decree.

The court reserves jurisdiction by the terms of said decree of the property affected thereby for the purpose of the final disposition of all questions and matters not disposed of in said decree.

The property by said decree directed to be sold and hereby advertised for sale may be inspected by intending bidders subject to such reasonable regulations as the Receiver in said cause may prescribe.

For a more particular description of the property hereby advertised for sale and for a more complete statement of the terms and conditions of the sale, reference is hereby made to said decree.

FLOYD O. JELLISON,

and drive the automobile that offers the greatest form of luxury in transportation at the lowest cost per mile. The public has never been offered Used and Renewed Marmon automobiles at these prices and on such unheard of terms.

Our Daily Special:

STUTZ 1924 COUPE, 4 PASS. This car cannot be classed as the ordinary "used car." We know the former owner and know the care he would give any automobile he owned. After purchasing it very late last fall, he went to California for the winter. The actual mileage is 1,200 miles. The exterior, interior and mechanism are as good as the day car left the factory, in fact, it would pass for new on the street. Equipped with 6 Bear-Cat cord tires [the 2 spares, of course, never having been on the ground], special trunk with suit cases and hat compartment, Hartford shock absorbers, nickeled shell and lamps, vanity case, adjustible mirrors, and many other things. We have priced this car in accordance with all others offered in this sale and are offering this one at the ridiculously low figure of $1,680.

All Types Available

We are offering Marmon Sport Sedans, 4 and 7 pass. Phaeton Tourings, 2 and 4 pass. Speedsters, Coupes, Chummy Roadsters, Limousines and Suburban Sedans in this special sale. Nearly all are newly finished in Duco—the most practical finish made. All are in exceptional mechanical condition. Some have balloon tires, 4 wheel brakes. All are guaranteed to be as represented. We have put them on our main floor. Our entire sales staff to serve you. No waiting. No hurry. Take all the time you want. Expert Marmon instructors will demonstrate any car of your choice. Come in early.

FRANKLIN

STEVENS-DURYEA TOWN LIMOUSINE. This is a custom built Town Limousine that words cannot describe. It is very near new; in fact, we doubt if you could distinguish it from new. It is designed purely with an eye to good taste, artistic proportions, and harmonious tones, and we believe will appeal to the person who demands individuality coupled with admirable construction. The color combination is Brewster Green and Black. Interior and mechanism flawless. This particular car cost in excess of $9,500 and for a short time only are offering it at a price which, we believe, could not be duplicated in Chicago or New York. An early inspection is urged, as such a value rarely stays here over night. Price $3,000. If desired, deferred payments will be extended. Your car accepted as part payment.

BUICK 1922 TOURING, 4 CYL. WITH $400 NEW BADGER TOP AND SIDES. Without question the best light 4 cyl. 5 pass. value that money can buy. Interior and exterior elegant. Paint excellent. FRANKLIN 1922 SEDAN 5 PASS. This is one of the very latest 9-B models, newly finished in Duco, and equipped with new balloon tires all around. Interior like new. Motor and chassis overhauled and guaranteed by us. $625 cash, bal. easy.

We would like to show people interested in high class, dependable transportation, two remarkable Peerless cars just received from our refinishing rooms; one in Peerless gray; the other in Brewster green; both have had a thorough reconditioning in our own shops and are guaranteed; details throughout perfect; equipment most complete; either of these would be ideal buys for families desiring high grade motor cars without heavy investment and absolute value for every dollar invested. Come in and see them today—the prices are less than you would expect.
